Prayer meeting will be held at the home of Hugh McKinnon, south line, on Thursday evening of this week.

A patriotic concert will be held in Watson's Hall on the evening of Nov. 6th, in aid of the sufferers from the effects of war.

Mrs Brown's funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon, the 27th inst., to the cemetery in this town.

Mr Joseph Phillips of Lucknow, who has been engaged with Mrs J. H. Richardson is at present in Fergus Hospital.

Mr Cornfield and son of Flesherton spent Sunday with Mr and Mrs. Jas. Knox.

The Sunday School Convention was held at Eugenia Thursday last.

The instructors of the Public Schools of vicinity attended the Convention in Dundalk and report the usual good time.

Mr R J Porter bought a carload of yearlings in the vicinity of Orillia and had them shipped here last week.

The men who solicited potatoes and oats in this vicinity met with hearty response.

Messrs John McQueen and John A. Graham of Durham, visited here over Sunday.

The neighborhood was shocked by the accident which occurred at Mr. Fred Runciman's when a mud sill in his barn gave way and killed his only daughter Lyla.

Mr. Lane, our M. D., is kept busy attending his many patients while we saw Vet. McIntyre attending his own class of patients as far away as Durham lately.

Reeve Nichol, of Glenelg, was away at his father-in-law's, Mr McAlister, of Nottawasaga, for a load of apples last week.

This week we have in part to report on two deaths, but as the first is out of our jurisdiction, we will only make reference to it, knowing that a good write-up will be given from that part.

We refer to the sad death of the young and only girl of Mr and Mrs Runciman, Boothville, who Mrs Runciman, killed on Friday, was instantly falling on her head by a beam falling on her father's barn. She was eleven years of age.

Our next subject, who died on Sunday at noon, the 25th inst., at her home in Priceville, Mrs Brown, relict of the late Malcolm Brown, who predeceased her about 40 or more years ago.

Mrs Brown was born in the small island of Tyree, Scotland, about 100 years ago. Could we begin to enumerate all that this good old lady saw since her younger days, we would have to write a good many pages of foolscap.

Mrs. Kato McKinnon, of Irish Lake spent the last of the week at her friend's, Tena McCormick.

PRICEVILLE

The weather is getting cooler and frost in general at nights. This was an exceptional fine fall.

Those who did not get their potatoes up yet need not blame the weather giver, for there was never such a fine fall for taking up roots of any kind.
