delicious sauces. ave no equal. FOR SALE.

Ninety Colborne Street TO BUY OR SELL A Grain or Dairy Farm,

Colborne St., Toronta. R SALE. HAMPSHIRE SWIND

s., Benmiller, Ont. PERS FOR SALE. IN LIVE TOWN IN ison Publishing Com-

LLANEOUS. external, cured with home treatment. Write Dr. Bellman Medical gwood. Ont.

INVENTIONS N. PIGEON & DAVIS James St., - Montreal

purposes, Water N WORKS TORONTO

Cultivating Your Grove Now

ent's new protective vinet adulterators of vrup good into effect Woe betide trans-that date! Maple will reap the reward t labor at last! Buyyrup will be greatly number, and it will ay farmers to cultiple Groves. The one ilt for the best re-Champion"-our pride d but never excelled booklet giving full MFG. CO., LIMITED St., Montroal, Que.

, will you help a ain't done nothin' in rk for more'n twelve ear, dear; perhaps I omething. What can 'hank y', lidy, thank m : ef v' could p raps washin' to do, I could o me wife."

d the mistress, "are ent Cures Colds, &c.

sardines that you "Shure, Oi don's said the new waitas pasht spakin' whin se's

Root Pills he need which so often family for a medicine d regulate the bowels.

they effective in all ipation, but they help king up a Cold or La the blood. In the same ve or cure Biliousness, ck Headaches, Rheumer common ailments. sense of the words Dr. n Root Pills are hold Remedy THE PRINT PRINT SHAPE OF House hout ld Spot house that Perfection s Oil Heater rave a cold where. tion is light be carried m room to anywhere and Spring er gives just onipeg Vascozzer

Foolish Young Man;

Or, the Belle of the Season.

Followed by this devout prayer, Ida farce to make her wretched; unutterably miserable, and at she could no longer endure Villa and the petty tyranny liveness of these relations.

No," he said, huskily, and almost to himself. "Yes; it must have been fancy.

She could not have been there. It is imirl, such as Ida, than which hurt more than actual slows. She felt stiffing, choking; she dream. It was, of course, impossible that the man she had seen could be Stafford: Stafford on board a cattle-ship! But the she thought that it would maining the could find some way of the remembered that she had eaten nothing since vesterday at noon, and she rust a few things into a bag and her purse and counted the con-they amounted to six pounds and shillings; but small though the Without undressing. heart ached too acutely ain was too active to permit of ravel back to these brief days of Herondale, and she was the remembrance of Stafford which she had lost; and at past was almost effaced by the tafford seated beside Maude weary, and putting on her outdoor things stole downstairs with her bag in her hand. and she unfastened the hall door and left the house without attracting any attention. The fresh, morning air, while it lost; the cart was upon her before she had until a workmen's train came up, and, are led by the crowd of sleepy and weary throng which turned up Bishopsgate street though any other direction would ed her as well-or as litte; for she had no idea where to go, or what to do beyond seeking some inexpensive lodging She knew well enough that she could not afford to go to a hotel; that she would pital. beginning to feel bewildered by the crowd, sympathy. which early as it was, streamed along o the Minorles, and to the very quay which Stafford had reached in his aimlese sunderings; and, mechanically she paus ed and looked on dreamily at the bustle ad confusion which reigned there. Per-the corner of his mouth—which did not she was in the Alexandra ward of the hansom cab in London.

She drew back, for the big man end-his alouch hat, "Anything I can do for rou, anybody you're looking for?" No; oh, no! said Ida, blushing and slood with one foot on the taffrail an expression of impatience on his weath-Like enough he ain't comin', Mr. Joffler, he said. Them kind o' gent; is aldesay. Though I didn't think as this one was one of that kind. Too much of London. grit about him-ah, and I was not mistak-Here he is! Get ready there!" furned, and Ida, instinctively turnin, saw a tall figure clad in a making its way quickly the crowd of busy dock-men and g spectaors. He came straight at man, who greeted him jo oudly, and they passed side by ar drew a long breath and passed her her her brow. It was absurd, of aried and overstrained brain-but was to that of Stafford! It disapseared with that of he big man into the resel, and, with a sigh, she was coming away when the saw the two men coming ong the deck and mount to the quarter. wan was talking and laughing. man in the blue serge was grave

Suddenly, as she paused, the younger shamer figure turned in her direction and uttered a cry, a cry almost of terror. Was she demented? Had her longing, her sehing longing for a sight of him called up this vision of Stafford? Unless she were out of her mind, the victim of a sho stood there, his face, pale and haggard, turned towards her, she cried, unconsciously, and her hand gripped the iron rail in that her voice could reach him owing and bleating of the cattle he raisd his head and looked in her direction. heir eyes met and were enhanced for a ch seemed an enternity; then he blood flew to his face, leaving it the

Stafford bit his lin and tried to pull It is about as difficult to get a difficult to get had figure, and his voice was shaky, as cheerfully. "You must not go until you the tried to tell herself that the right directly It don't do to come aboard too sober, 'specially when you're leavin' old England for the first time. Do you

She could not have been there. It is Mr. Joffler whistled and winked to hir self comprehendingly.

She!" he murmured.

is it? Ah, well, I've been there myself! Don't you let the fancy upset you, sir! It in under her cousin's roof, eat of his charity, for another day, dered as she pictured herself them at the breakfast table, fac. Heron's spiteful face, Isabel's yes, and her Cousin John's sancti.

Hon't you let the fancy upset you, sir! It thing like the sea for teachin' you to forget the gale you've left behind you! Come down below and try and peck a bit. There's cold beef—and pickles. That'll send them kind o' fancies to the right Ida turned and walked quickly away > ascribed this freak of her imagination to the weakness caused by want of food.

>
> She left the quay slowly—as if her heart and her strength and all her life's hope had gone with the dingy vessel—and emerging on the narrow, crowded street, looked for some shop at which she could buy a roll of bread. Presently she saw a baker's at the opposite side of the road to that on which she was walking, and she was crossing, when a huge empty van so a lighter cart came swiftly upon her. She was so dazed, so bewildered by the vision she had seen, and the noise of the street, that she stood, hesitating, uncertain whether to go on or to retreat to the pavement she had left.

coused her to a sense of her position, re- lost; the cart was upon her before she ha at the house of bondage which she was at the house of bondage which she was and least from his east the noval errord. The water from the vegetables, in which General d'Amade's cavalry thrown down the drain contains the collision between the gray hordes of the war has ruined them. It has and leapt from his seat, the usual crowd, which seems to spring instantaneously had relieved the pressure on the had relieved the pressure and the thin pressure and the pres thoroughfare of shops and offices, and, had not lost the capacity for pity and enemy-typhoid. Indeed, no one with a heart in her bothe pavements, she turned off into one of som could stand by unmoved and hear the hrusts itself into all our affairs, led her framed the same name-Stafford, Stafford prevent him shouting and bawling at the London Hospital, and that she had been there like one of the casks, and in the nurse smiled as if it were the best joke in midst of his shouting and bawling, he a mild way, in the world, and answered now fighting in France. In all every new and then glanced at a watch Ida's further questions while she adminof the frying pan order. It was evident istered beef tea with an air of pride and even to the inexperienced Ida, that the satisfaction which made her plain and vosel was about to start; the sailors were homely face seem angelic to Ida. rushing about on deck in the haste and | "You were knocked down by a cart you excitement of ordered disorder, chains know," said Nurse Brown. "You weren't were clanking, and ropes and pulleys were badly injured; that is, no bones were earleking; and a steam whistle shrieked broken, as is very often the case-that at intervals and added to the multitudin- | girl there in the next bed but two had Poor sheep, poor bulls!" murmured mail cart; and that poor woman opposite, as the last of the beasts were driven got both arms and a collar-bone broken up the gangway and disappeared. "Per- But I mustn't harrow you with our bad tape you have come from another Heron- cases," she said, quickly, as Ida seemed dale! Dr you remember, do you look to wince, "Of course you feel very strange -I suppose this is the first time you have dealy lurched in her direction, and in- "Yes," replied Ida, glancing round time

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Beg pardon, miss," he said, touching | "Ah, yes, of course," said Nurse Brown, nodding and smiling encouragingly. "And you feel shy and nervous; but, if you only knew it, you are better off here than you would be anywhere else; you have the Mr. Joffler, for it was that genial Aus- very best surgeons in the world-we are ralian, nodded and stretched his moon- awfully proud of them-and, though I Thought you'd come to say 'good-bye' ought not to say it, the best of nursing. You are watched night and day, and you get the least wee little thing you want, if hould stay on air or no air and I'm time we have had a lady in the ward. A great many of them come down here 'slumming,' and sometimes they get run over, as you have been, or they fall down some of the dark and rickety stairs, or hurt themselves in some other way - it's wonderful what a choice of accidents you can have in this busy and crewded part

After a pause she went on:

That's better, M'ss Heron," she said, "It is quite pleasant to watch you asleep and not to hear you rambling." Ida's face flushed. Have I been rambling?" she asked.

What have I said? You know my name, ment moment paler than before. He ed. "But there was no address, nothing

Ida blushed again and felt troubled, land. He has offered prizes at Lonhe said, not unsympath. Why should she annoy and worry the He- don clubs, and shown how useful d on! Took queer like! Lor' rons? she shuddered lightly, as she pieknow how the feelin' is! It tured her cousin John standing beside the competitions and displays may be salebes at you right in the middle of the bed where the sweet and pleasant-faced in spreading the vogue of his favorfrom you we're moving, we're fiere, take a sip of this. You'll burnum Villa: and Ida regarded the prospect of return to that cheerful abode of the Christian virtues as a prisoner might most Englishmen, he is able to keep

It is about as difficult to get a definite You're right. Mr. Joffler. It is too late outsy there. But it must have been fancy:
That a impossible, quite impossible!"

sympathetic wink, "Lor love you, Tve Punch, 'Don't," I should easy, like Mr.

Punch, 'Don't," I should easy, like Mr.

Punch, 'Don't," I should easy, like Mr.

Punch, 'Don't," I should easy, like Mr. ford standing on the stern of the vessel.

Of course, it was only a vision, an hallucination; but how real it had seemed! So real that it was almost difficult to believe that it was not he himself. She smiled sadly at the idea of Stafford, the son of the great Sir Stephen Orme, sailing in a cattle-ship!

The hours passed in a kind of peaceful of Nurse Brown and the house surgeon, and for some time Ida lay in a kind of prepared pancake flour one beaten actions in a dream; but as she grew stronger she began to take an interest in patients; and on the second day after her resturn to consciousness began a conversation with her next-door neighbor, a pleasant-looking woman who had eyed her wistfully several times, but who had been too shy to address "the young lady." She was a country-woman—from Dorsetshire—up to London on a visit "to my daughter, miss, which is married "in side" in side in the house surgeon, and the house surgeon, and the house surgeon, and the house surgeon may be made by adding to any good prepared pancake flour one beaten egg and a little milk. This enriches the batter and noticeably improves it.

A Variation is Scrambled Eggs.—Beat the eggs, season with salt and pepper, and add them to melted butter in chafing dish. When nearly scrambled, add bread cut into dice and browned.

When a kettle is "furred" inside miss, which is married to a man as keeps a dairy." It was her first visit to Lon-

Very soon. Ida found herself taking an interest in everything that went on, in money can buy, and which could not have been exceeded if they had one and all been prince sees of the blood royal.

(To be continued.)

To be continued.)

To be continued.)

GENERAL D'AMADE.

Was With the British Troops the Boer War.

and leapt from his seat, the usual crowd. Which seems to spring instantaneously from the very stones, collected and surged round, the usual policeman forced his way through, and Ida was picked up and carried to the pavement. There was a patch of blood on the side of her heading the dear, small head which had rested on Stafford's breast so often!—and she was unconscious.

In which General d'Amade's cavality had relieved the pressure on the English troops at a critical moment meant no more than that a French commander had done his duty valiantly and well. But to many military readers the name to many military readers the name with water, and cook slowly, remaining the scum as it rises. When the moving the scum as it rises. When the dear stafford is presented to the pavement. There was a first the dear, small head which had rested on the dear, small head which had rested on many military readers the name with water, and cook slowly, remaining the scum as it rises. Orse struck 'er with 'is 'oof," said the policeman, sententiously. "Ere, boy, eall a keb. I'll have your name and addiar. General d'Amade has already the chicken is tender, take it up; been in touch with the English strain and return the broth to the A cab was brought, and Ida, still un- army on active service. He went kettle. If there is not a quart of it conscious, was carried to the London hos through the South African War as add boiling water. Add one quart have to be content with a small room, per-haps an attic and the plainest of food, clean, carbolic-smelling ward, attended by although he assembled the Port attache, and of oysters with their juice, and the clean, carbolic-smelling ward, attended by the most skilful doctors in Eugland and although he escaped the Boer bul-same amount of scalding milk. Seaand what she was not likely to by the grave and silent nurses, who, notlets, he fell a victim to a common son to taste with a little salt and common son to taste with a little salt and to wage war or to watch it. The spoonful of flour and butter rubbed Interesting Anecdotes of the Great alry was only 200 yards away one if he had been stealing chickens. girl woaning and crying in a whisper for attache's business is a difficult one. together and just before it is serv-The long arm of Coincidence which "Stafford." Day and night the white lips He is always under escort: "Where ed stir one-half of a tea cupful of ever I walk and wherever I go," hot cream into the soup. This wrote Sir Ian Hamilton when he makes three quarts of soup. was attached to the Japanese staff | Batata Muhshy (stuffed potatoes). When Ida came to she found the sister in Manchuria. "I am unceasingly a Peel a dozen medium-sized potatarget for curious eyes. There is no toes, hollow them out through a by sympathy with their hustled and hur- Why a hospital nurse should under any help for it, I know, but in course small hole with a sharp knife until red condition, which so nearly resembled and every circumstance be invariably of time this sense of being watched the shell is about as thin as an with one hand resting on a rail, and a to rank with the problem contained in the fact that an undertaker is nearly always of a merry disposition. they drove the cattle up the gangways or of a merry disposition.

Of course Ida asked the usual questions: two most secluded situations in the hold A big. fat man, with a slouch hat "Where am I?" and "How long have I world—the desert of Sahara or a In South Africa he made friends with several of the English generals

General D'Amade.

you'd soon get used to the other people his escort, he proved an exemplary water later as needed. When ready cle. in the ward, though they are of a differ. His estort, he water later as needed. When ready cie.

ent class to yourself. But most of them are usual, to use slice cucumbers lengthwise 'Does your eyesight require you tleman tributes of surprise and adent class to yourself. But most of them actuache, and which are very poor and some of them are usual alone he had a way of impressing for the table and boil kraut as to wear that?" he inquired. scarcele ever hear a murmur; only a sigh good intentions. An attache, let it now and again and they are so grateful be known, ruhs a risk of being that sometimes they bring the tears to be known, ruhs a risk of being your eyes, and it's quite hard to part from Freated as a spy if he shows the them when they get well and are discharged. But I really mustn't talk to you least disposition to nervousness. charged. But I really mustn't talk to you least disposition to nervousness. ed potato while hot. Add three dered Lord Kitchener, crisply. "I sprovided. He any more," she murmured, penitently. When he goes forth to observe the and the soft, placid voice ceased.

Ida looked round the ward, her heart country, he must never avoid the cups lukewarm water and strain beating as fast as her condition would allow. As Nurse Brown had said, she felt to above mixture one pint flour, terribly strange and nervous in the long, it is not safe for an alien looking warmed, and beat till well mixed.

K. of K. despises self-advertising, and has never sought popularity. To-day, in a cafe, the landlady warmed, and has never sought popularity. terribly strange and nervous in the long. It is not safe for an alien-looking warmed, and beat till well mixed. When he can, he escapes lionizing; soldiers, but the Scottish and the whitewashed ward which, however, was it is not safe for an amenatoring some brands of flour will require and he appears to care nothing for Irish are not good men. They won't pictures from illustrated papers, which appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the walls, and by appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the wall appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the wall appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the wall appear too suddenly round the corhad been fastened to the wall appear to the corhad been fastened to the wall appear to the corhad been fastened to the corhad been faste had been fastened to the walls, and by appear too studenty round the control the vases and great bowls of flowers which ner. But by confident and easy one yeast cake dissolved in one-half public, except so far as it helps him this was a slight on men of my own seemed to occupy every suitable spot.

She closed her eyes and tried to think: bearing, and even by timely and cup warm water. Stronger blowing of the pose on any for several minutes.

She closed her eyes and tried to think: bearing, and even by timely and cup warm water. Stronger blowing of the pose on any for several minutes. She closed her eyes and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and tried to think: bearing, and even by time, and tried to think: bearing, and tried to the tried tried to the tried tried tried tried that she had fallen off Rupert and was proaching the danger-zone (both lying on the mose beside the river, quite General d'Amade and Sir Ian Ham- to rise and stir at intervals as it and the artificial in the real reason of their faulty commercial lying on the moss beside the river, quite General d'Amade and Sir Ian Hamcomfortable and most absurdly content. General d'Amade and Sir Ian Hamcomfortable and most absurdly content. General d'Amade and Sir Ian Hamcomfortable and most absurdly content. The point of the poi When she woke the sister was standing ilton have anecdotes to the point), makes a lighter sponge. At bed nown. Mrs. Erskine describes how, it is possible to go through a cam- time or early next morning warm after an elaborate function in his paign without being taken for a two and one-half quarts of flour honor, at which a pompous master combatant. General d'Amade's (or more if not enough to stiffen of ceremonies had delivered a ver-

More than would be the case with the Christian virtues as a prisoner might the martial character intact under regard the prospect of returning to his regard the prospect of returning to his appearing to do so.

The sister regarded her keenly without appearing to do so.

The sister regarded her keenly without appearing to do so.

Perhaps you would rather remain quiet of about fifty, with grey moustache ly for a few days, Miss Heron? she sugand Fray blue eyes. A brilliant process of the prospect of returning to his the martial character intact under a pile of social attainments. A man of about fifty, with grey moustache and Fray blue eyes. A brilliant process of about fifty and Fray blue eyes. A brilliant process of the prospect of returning to his the martial character intact under a pile of social attainments. A man of about fifty, with grey moustache and Fray blue eyes. A brilliant process of the prospect of returning to his the martial character intact under a pile of social attainments. A man of about fifty, with grey moustache and Fray blue eyes. A brilliant process of the prospect of returning to his the martial character intact under a pile of social attainments. A man of about fifty, with grey moustache and Fray blue eyes. A brilliant process of the proce We can't stop—and you'd Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor, come yellow and crack.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor, come yellow and crack.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor.

Ida's eyes—they looked preternaturally horse man and of established valor. encounter. His allies can find no officer and a gentleman.

> Some of the imaginery blessings we haven't would probably make us appy if we had them.

Selected Recipes.

Pancakes. - Delicious pancakes cloth may be made by adding to any good To sharpen a knife, fold a piece of and browned.

Duck Stuffing (Peanut) - Threedon; she had wandered from her daughter's. lest her way, and, in her confusion. She told Ida the hiztory of some of the other cases, and Ida found herself listen ing with an interest which astonished her. Nurse Brown, seeing the two talking, nodded approvingly.

"That's right," she said, with a smile. "You keep each other company. It passes the time away."

"The time aw

Ripe Cucumber Relish. - Twelve the arrival of a new case, in the visit of the doctors and the chaplain, and the friends of the other patients. Let the pessimists say what they may, there is a lot meat grinder. Add half cup salt, of good in human nature; and it comes out quite startlingly in the ward of a hospital. Ida was amazed at the care and attention, the patience and the devotion which were lavished on herself and her fellow-sufferers; a devotion which no delicious, retains its crispness and fours.

Ida was amazed at the care and cone cup sugar, one and one-half cups vinegar. Can cold. This is delicious, retains its crispness and hours.

Oatmeal Mush With Apples. Core the apples, leaving large cay ities; pare and cook until soft in syrup made by boiling sugar and water together, allowing one cupful tightly and left a few hours in a counter with undying glory, says a in fuls of water. Fill the cavities with oatmeal mush; serve with sugar liquor of every vegetable cooked, It is the story of what those saw some ladies to-day, ladies who lateand cream. The syrup should be with a little milk or butter added. who were not themselves in the fir-pepper; also a little mace and nut-It is doubtful whether it is easier meg if liked. Thicken with one tea-half an hour. The pine seeds can ener bringing a fine lawn kandker- musketry. Amidst it all the men generally be procured at any Syri- chief upon which, in compliance in khaki stood immobile. Grimly, an grocery store. If they are unob- with a fashionable fancy of the mo- and without budging, they threw tainable, the meat may either be ment, he desired to obtain the gen- back, at the bayonet's point, in utused alone, or in combination with eral's autograph. some other ingredient.

kraut cutter. For every gallon use inquired: a rounded tablespoon of salt and one-half teaspoon caraway seeds handkerchief: one-half teaspoon caraway seeds. Mix well. Wash medium size cucumbers. On the bottom of an eartheoware jar put a few dill stems (seeds will-do), then put in | alternate layers of cucumbers writing upon it, inquiring as he did ed them the strains of songs. they sprinkled with salt, and the pre- so, "And what kind of hairpins do had never heard before. A French pared cabbage. About three times you wear?" the thickness of cabbage when If the story is not true, it is at aged face and a bullet in his back, pressed down with the palms of least invented in harmony with the ventured to repeat from memory your hands as of encumbers. Con- known characteristics of K. of K., the beginnings of a tune which tinue until jar is full, using cab- who despises fripperies and affecta- made out to be that of "God Save bage as last layer. Over all put a tions. Mrs. Erskine, wife of one of Ireland," and I have gathered that "Of course you will go away as soon as you can; but it's a pity, it really is; senses, even to the point of being ed over with a weight on it to keep Pretoria, he one day observed a other of these strains. white cloth and a white plate turn- his former officers, tells how, at "Whistle to me, said I," was anyou're ever so much better off here, and able to amuse and be amused by contents under brine. Add more young lieutenant sporting a mono- The generosity of Mr. Thomas bearing is fit for all occasions. properly), add one tablespoon of bose eulogy before a distinguished It is the bearing of a first-rate salt. Mix the sponge into this company (boring him most frightfencer. It has the alacrity and flour until a medium stiff dough is fully), she and her husband return-Your things are marked," he explain finish proper to an exponent of that formed. Knead and pound well and ing home on horseback in his comed. "But there was no address, nothing which could be us to communicate with politest of the arts. General d'A set away to rise. When light mix pany. On the way they passed a which could belo us to communicate with pointest of the your friends, or we would have done so made has done a great deal for the into loaves. Knead each loave well shabby ice-cream cart, the sides of cult of the foil and epec in Eng- for better bread. Warming the flour lithographs of Open Victoria the is part of the secret of this bread's lithographs of Queen Victoria, the excellence.

> Bread. One large cup mashed man, hastily. potato, two tablespoons lard, one-

Household Hints.

By dipping a broom in boiling suds once a week it can be preserv-Linen stored in a closet, warm and poorly ventilated, will soon beman, hearten up! You're not Oh, yes, yes! if I may. Shall I be ill active soldiers who are upholding pair of pillow cases, and will cost of the long? how soon will it be before I can the honor of France in the present much less than pillow tubing.

"Credulous, is he?" If a few drops of paraffin are apfitter description than that he is an plied to a cut, it will give instant relief and also assist it to heal.

Boiled chestnuts served on lettuce leaves, with French dressing, make a delicious and seasonable salad. A piece bag made of mosquito Scrappy-Yes, it serves them etting enables one by a look to find the particular roll of goods de

Spirits of turpentine will remove most spots from silk, but care must be taken to be sure that the dye is

Varnished paper on walls should be cleaned with a flannel dipped in weak tea and polished with a dry

When a kettle is "furred" inside fill it with water, add a good-sized lump of borax, and let it boil well.

Then pour away the borax and water, and rinse thoroughly with clear cold water. Sweet spirits of nitre will remove III ink-spots from wood. Rub the spots with the nitre; when the wood make a second application. When you have finished with the kitchen fire for cooking purposes take some fine coal dust, put it in Enthusiastic Correspondent Tells Krupps are trained upon them.

Chinese gloss starch is made of dry cloth before ironing.

Soups should be made from the tral News. the vegetable, and should never be the Kaiser's horsemen and the thin made them line up with the child-

"acidity" will do well to try going made ready for their oncoming. hoping that England will remain as without bread and especially with- These same Britishers had jovially safe to-morrow as she is to-day, reout any starchy thing with an acid, shouted their adieux to French member that every one of us has his at the same time trying to find out troops who had been retired from part to play in assuring that how much fat can be tolerated, but their immediate neighborhood, and safety. ter, cream, or the fat of bacon, and in the brief interval before the so forth. Fats do not stimulate the crash came the watchers could see

KEEN-EYED K. OF K.

Anecdotes of Lord Kitchener of comrade, which he coolly lit. Khartum-K. of K., as he is popularly called by the English-have cavalry." and did it in better order so I just took him prisoner. been going the rounds of the for- and with much less excitement than eign and the American newspapers if they had been about to witness Europe. Some are new, and more giments of German cavalry, splencredible. One of the most popular didly horsed, splendidly equipped, a sufficient quantity of lean, tender mutton, add a proportionate quanmutton, add a proportionate quan- as there are pins in a lady's hair. ing and smoking rose up to meet tity of pine seeds, season the mix- The original version; however, then, a bristling bulwark of giants ture with salt and pepper, and fry seems to be that brought from holding weapons of steel in steel it thoroughly. Stuff the potatoes South Africa at the time of the grips. with the friend meat and set them Boer War by a lively young French side by side, with the hole upward, journalist, Mons. Jean Cariere of For a few minutes there was an in a saucepan. Put some tomatoes, the Paris Matin. According to him, awful chaos of horses, soldiers gray a little butter and half a pint or so a dandy British officer, with an un- and soldiers yellow, glittering of water in the pan, and cool the fortunately effeminate taste in lances and bayonets, the automatic potatoes over a light fire, for about trifles, one day came to Lord Kitch- spit of machine guns, the flashes of

K. of K. took the handkerchief, the Kaiser, the men who terrified Sauer Kraut and Cucumber turned it over, turned it round, peasant villagers of Belgium and Pickles. Cut cabbage fine, using carefully inspected its quality, and France.

mine.

And he handed it back, without before the crash came, there reach-

"Then report to-morrow morning many other delicacies wherewith he half cup sugar. Beat all into mash- to the line of communications," or- is provided. He believes in sharing do not require men with poor eye-

> K. of K. leaned suddenly forward in passing, flecked his own dusty portrait with the tip of his riding whip, and declared: That, and that only is fame."

Hears Little.

Jones believes about all he Not particularly; he's as deaf Deserve the Punishment.

Mrs. Scrapp-Statistics show that married men live longer than single

GERMAN CAVALRY CHARGE

Their Gallantry in Battle.

This is the story, as it has been two tablespoons raw starch and one told to me, of the way in which the tablespoonful borax dissolved in Irish Guards, at M-, met the one and one-half cups water. Gar- charge of three German cavalry rements are dipped in this, rolled giments and emerged from the en-but unswerving, line of Britishers ren of the gutters in order to get People who suffer much from in khaki, who, with bayonets fixed, bread. Remember this, and while officers walking up and down the lines, cracking jokes with their dier in Belgium. His colonel, obmen, and otherwise assisting to serving him one morning wending maintain their excellent spirits. I his way to camp with a fine rooster am told that when the German cav- in his arms, stopped him to know man momentarily put down his "No, colonel," was the reply; "I rifle and begged a cigarette from a just saw the old fellow sitting on

They wanted something to put on their banner, and their casualty list "No," replied the officer, "it's will show that, "if blood be the price," they achieved their aim. "Ah," echoed Kitchener, "it is French soldiers tell me that, rising from the ranks of the Irish, just soldier, hobbling along with a bandmiration from the French soldiery. 'It does," replied the young He wants to give everything awayhis jam, his canned meats, and told represented the total. "Then, said I, "I will pay you your 12 francs," and I was about to do so turns white, wipe it off with a soft STOOD LIKE ROCK TO MEET been drinking in the restaurant when some French soldiers who had stood up and said : "No, you won't If this is true that the Irish and Scotch do not pay their bills, it is true that they do not run when the They are cooler than we, and the Germans fear them." After that the landlady, whose husband was fighting at the front, refused to take my money. And now something about the seamiest side of the war. Those of us at home who, thanks to our glorious navy, know nothing of what Havre dispatch to the London Cen- minder such as a visit to the continwar means, need, perhaps, a re-

"They Do Not Run."

Took Him Prisoner.

A story is told of a British solthe wall, and I ordered him to Then they "prepared to receive crow for England, and he wouldn't,

More of It EROSENE 1 light is best for young eyes and old lamp gives you kerosene light at its best - a steady, generous glow that reaches every corner of the room.

The RAYO does not smoke or smell. It is made of solid brass, nickel-plated. It is easy to light, easy to clean, easy to rewick. At dealers everywhere.

Made in Canada

THE IMPERIAL OIL CO., Limited

Which Way do You Buy Sugar? Do you say decisively:

Extra Granulated SUGAR

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO