

Minety Colborne Street

TO BUY OR SELL A Grain or Dairy Farm wson, Brampton, or it Colborne St., Toronto.

ERS FOR SALE. IN LIVE TOWN IN Stationery and Book tion. Price only $4,000, ilson Publishing Comslaide Street, Toronto.

LLANEOUS. ORS. LUMPS, ETC. external, cured withme treatment. Write Dr. Bellman Medical purposes. Water OTHER CARONTO

and Shipbullders.

EXVENTIONS

PAGEON & DAVIS ames Se - Mus 20.4 MOROSEOSOSOSOS TO EVERY BOY AND GIRL

This ring is an exact ! You can earn this beautiled ring in less than an hour. Just simply or asserted picture post CO. TORONO, ONT. Memonone none

g, belting, pulleys, 18 by 42, complete ne, fly wheel, bearm good coad tion. ne inch to three thirty inches to ting six inches to Will sell entire or ASONABLE

REFUSED. ilson & Sons. et West. Toronto.

n War Time. apa, didn't you tell economize.

ell I was thinkin n'd get me a pony

out so many shoes.

n the camp. It will ongest constitution st vigorous health. estion, biliousness, d complexion, sick one of the most f appendicitis. To ls positively cure hey are entirely osition and do not or gripe. Preserve

orse's oot Pills

tort a good to shave A Pereless Oil varm any om in a n is porttake it to lar or attic here extra

- and it is nient in urns only

dirt, no king; easy

. No coal,

Or, the Belle of the Season.

CHAPTER XXXVII.-(Continued). I don't know; was it a rabbit?"

You he said, with an emphatic nod. I called Jreon to bring a spade; but I lewing like-like one of the dogs, my shook her head gently; then she cheque book with me. How much do you but when they had gone into the drawingried slightly, as she remembered the want? And, forgive me, my dear Miss room, he drew a chair to the fire for her, ght Stafford and she had watched her Ida, but may I ask what you want it for?" and said: remething of my father's?"

Ida stared at him, as if she did not real-

you are rich, not poor; imgrandale: I suppose I can go back?" she meet wooden-headed idiot that ever dis- was rejoicing with her.

Rich as Croesus, my dear child," he sponded, with a laugh. She blushed still more deeply.

Then, have you have you any money for its muteness. with you, Mr. Wordley? I mean quite a large sum of money? "Not a very large sum, my dear," he front of the fire awaiting her. the was replied rather puzzled. "About twenty or glad that Jason had not had time to pro-

thirty pounds, perhaps." dear Jason came and we had that box "Oh, that is not nearly enough," she "Eh?" he saked. "But I've got my made, at any rate, a pretence of eating;

"Can I have a cheque for five hundred | "Now, my dear, I am afraid I shall have pounds? Ida asked, timidly. "Five thousand, fifty thousand, my dear!" he responded, promptly, and with see I have left all my other clients' afsee something of your father's. "Five hundred will do-for the present." no little pride and satisfaction. she erid a little nervously. "Perhaps the dle. Now, my dear, before I go, I should Still puzzled, Mr. Wordley went into the like to do. As I have explained to you, you are now the mistress of a very large scentle, my dear Miss Ida, securi, porter's box and took out his cheque-

"Make it payable to the hospital-and give it to me, please," said Ida, in a low The old man's face cleared, and he nod-

"Of course, of course! God bless you, my dear. I might have known what was in that good, grateful heart of yours. See As enormous sum of money," he re- here, I've made it out for a thousand the while God forgive me! pounds. That's five hundred for you and thought that I am under the old roof was under the impression that your fa- five hundred for me-and don't you say a againdesign nothing to save the cetate and to ful for the idea. It will cool me down; provide for you, he was speculating and and upon my word, I feel so excited, so vesting; and doing it with a skill and above and beyond myself that I want some a shreadness which could not have been safety-valve like this, or I should fall to are and by the most astute and busi- dancing in the hall and so disgrace mylike of men. His judgment was all self and the noble profession to which I transferry cases in which everything took lim up the many stone steps to the the work was being carried out. man touches turne to gold. There are Alexandra ward. The gentle-eyed sister, many shares there which I would not who had parted from her so reluctantly, are bought at a farthing a piece; but was naturally surprised to see her return your father bought them, and they've so soon, and accompanied by a fatherly everyone of them, or nearly everyone of and prosperous old gentleman, who kept tarned up trumps. Some of them close to her as if he were afraid she might tired of it pounds! My again, sister," said Ida, her voice falter- "I honor you for that feeling. Well, then, he look her hand and patted it as ing a little, but her eyes beaming as they I shall engage an architect of repute, the be acre by ng to break the shock to had not beamed for many a day; "and I first in his profession"-he rubbed his that at any moment I may wake and find butter to four medium potatoes pictures or a letter, dip them in a and her hands had clasped each changed significant glances, and there was myself at Laburnum Villa. And, oh, Mr. seasons them well, with the salt and strong solution of alum water, dry-flushed cheek and quavering voice, made help them, I hope, to forget the trouble I them acquainted with Ida's gift. "And now," said Mr. Wordley, after he their fault: they did not understand." I cannot realize that I can go back to had chaken hands with several of the officials, including the porter, "and now, my "There is one topic of conversation, my dear Miss Ida, for Herondale and Home! dear Miss Ida, I shall be compelled to e that I am coing to pay off the mort- The journey down to Herondale canno You will get every inch of the be described; whenever Ida thought of and back; you will be the richest lady in the after years, she felt herself trembhe county you, in the whole county! The ling and quivering with the memory of it end glories of the dear old house can be Until she had sat in the carriage, and the resided you can queen it there as the He- train had started and she realized that she was indeed going home home!—she did not know what it had cost her to leave the did not know much she had suffered at cold and dead, and the sunshine, bright until a light brown, or in the pan out with all the cream. no warmth in it. She was a great heiross he stirred and turned so as to by friends. She had been poor and well-by friends. She had been poor and well-by friends. She had been poor and well-by friends. She had been poor and well-brown on all sides. Another way never loses his way.

Jessie's shoulder and shook the honest

With the roast, where they had be stirred and turned so as to gan wrongly. This debt must be think their patients think they are.

nigh friendless that day Stafford had taken her in his arms and kiesed her for the first time; but, ah, how happy she had as to decree that she should never be happy again, never lose the aching pain which racked her heart at every thought of him? She put the fear from her with a feeling of shame and helplessness. She would forget the man who had left her for another woman, would not let thought of him cast a shadow over her life and dominate it. No doubt by this time he had

She would not look in the direction of rride in the United States. the trees under which he had stood on the night of the day she had first seen him; and she went in with a forced cheerfulness to tell Jessie, listening with wide-open eyes, of some of the strange things which had happened to her. All the time she was talking, she was betet by a longing to ask Jessie about Brae Wood and the Ormes; but as she crushed down the idea; and Jessie was too intent upon hearing the story of her mistress's sojourn in London to have any breath or inclination hand which had grown hard and horny in her service. Jees e almost carried her mis-tress into the hall, where a huge fire was burning and threw a red and cheerful glow over the fading gilding and grey-"Oh, mice, how thin you be!" she said at lest, as, with clasped bands, she surveyed Ida from top to toe anxiously and like that? But, never mind, Man Ida; you're back, and that's everything! And we'll very soon get some fie h on you bones and drive the sad look out of thee eyes. In moments of emotion and excitement Jense forgot the schooling Ida had given her, and lapted into semi-West-merland "You've missed the meorical air, dearle, and the cream and the milk—I've 'eard it's all chalk and water in London—and I suppose there was a recemble.

don-and I suppose there wasn't room to ride in them crowded streets; and the food, too, I'm told it ain't fit for ordinary humans, leave alone a dainty maid like desire, Jessia" said Ida. "I suppose don't look of much account: I've been ill. But I chall soon get well. I felt, as we drove along the moor, with the wind blowing on my cheek, as if I had not breathed since the hour I left. And now tell me everything-all-at once! Rupert? There no need to ask about the dogs." Donald and Bees had not yet ceased to tear at her in frantic efforts to express their delight. "Are you glad I've come back, Donald?"

she asked in a low voice as she knelt and put her arms round his neck and nestled her face against hiz, and let him lick her with his great, soft tongue. "Ah, if you are only half as glad as I am, doggie, your heart must be half breaking with the joy of it. And if I'm lean, you are disgracefully fat, Bees. Don't tell me you've missed me, for I don't believe it.

It was some time before Jestie could drag her upstairs; and the eight of her old room, as cheerful as the hall, with the huge fire, almost unnerved her, and when she was alone she sank upon her knees beside the bed in a thankegiving which was none the less deep and fervent

When she came down the dinner was ready and Mr. Wordley was standing in cure a new livery, was glad of the old habbiness of the room, that its aspect

was not yet changed, and that it greeted her with all its old familiarity. Mr. Wordley would not let her talk until dhe had to talk business. I shall be too busy to fairs, to come after my stray lamb; I ex-

like you to tell me exactly what you would fortune with which you can do absolutely

what you like. Would you like to live here, or would you like to take a house in

"Oh, not go to London or abroad!" she said. "Can I not live here? If you knew how I feel-how the sight of the place, the

She looked round the faded, stately

"Of course you can, my dear," he said

"But equally of course, you will now want to restore the old place. There is a great deal to be done, and I thought that

"No, I would like to stay, even if I have to live in the kitchen or one of the garrets. It will be a delight to me to watch the men at work; I should never grow

"I didn't ask you," said Ida, with

on to the terrace, and walking to the end.

be for everyone of us.

Mr. Wordley grunted.

room lovingly, wietfully, and Mr. Word-

Ida locked up a little piteously.

"Oh, not go to London or abroad!"

London, or go abroad?"

Ida shook her head.

come over to-morrow." He laughed. "You

"Yes, you shall fatten me to your heart's

my sweet m strees."

Lessons Come Easier

IF the child has a big, generous light to study by.

Rayo

lamp saves eye strain. It is kerosene light at its best -clear, mellow, and unflickering.

The RAYO does not smoke or smell. It is easy to light, easy to clean, and easy to rewick. The RAYO costs little, but you cannot get a better lamp at any price.

Made in Canada

ROYALITE OIL is best for all uses THE IMPERIAL OIL CO., Limited

With the Potato.

"I quite understand, my dear," he said. your poor father whom we all re- want to give you something, something hands with an air of enjoyment—"and he mashed potato which we so univers- steam for two or three hours, ac- the Belgians, who are fighting which we so univers steam for the hospital-it is from my dear friend shall restore the old place, with all really serve; it is that it must not be cording to size. And I want you not to open it until we man to employ; and we will start at once. allowed to stand after it has been By adding soda before heating it, By adding soda before heating it, am going to write to you as I promised; see you settled in your proper position mashed and seasoned. It loses all milk on the verge of souring may and over her brow and drew a long and you can write to me if you will be here. The thought of it gives me a new its quality by so doing. So true is be scalded and used for blanc pened. But I will write and tell you; now I can only say"—her voice broke and thank one of the finest places in the county and brush the top with butter or egg, Russet shoes can be cleaned by rub-She drew the sister to her and kissed "And Jessie shall be the bousekeeper and put into the oven for ten min- bing them with a banana peel, acher; and Mr. Wordley shook the steters and Jason the butler," said Ida, with a utes. A tablespoon of cream to cording to some. hand, and blew his nose so loudly that laugh of almost child-like enjoyment, the patients, who had been watching them "Oh, it all seems like a dream; and I feel each two potatoes and an ounce of To preserve a paper document, which found adequate expression when, at once. I want to send the Herons a perhaps pepper. It is best to have ing thoroughly. If the paper is very present, a really nice present that will the cream hot, or hot milk may be thick, repeat the process.

Potatoes Baked and Stuffed. - Fuller's earth, oxgall and water; found gratitude to the Providence which was restoring her to the old house, the at last he went and Ida was left alone to face the strange change in her fortune. set in oven ten minutes, and then curdle, try cooking it in this way: Was Belgium's share in the matter | Second Laborer I'd sooner have She sat before the fire dreaming for a pour some melted butter over them Put the baking dish into a steamer at an end because Germany had my shovel. old house from room to room; and every before serving. Butter, cream, and on the top of a stove, until it is so- spoken her 'Must'? It still had > loving hand the books and papers over made a decorative garnish. these is that they may be cooked about. with the roast, where they must har," he said. "I never want to hear Mr. John Heron's name again. As to sending ent way from those sometimes put and rub as dry as possible with a war. This at any rate, is what is get off the steps soon?' queried the in to bake with a roast, in the last dry cloth. your kingdom; though, if you ack me hour, may be done as follows. Peel To protect the finger-nails when "The Belgians only wanted to be "No. I just heard him say that as many potatoes of medium size as doing rough and dirty work, rub left in peace, as we do. That, how- was the last kiss. They'll be an hour laugh, putting her hand on his arm. "If are needed, making them egg shap- them over with a piece of soap, and ever, was too inconvenient to Ger- yet. ed or pyramidal, or in any form you when you wash your hands after the man war interests. We know that please. Cut off one end so that they task the soap will come out. Gar- we are doing wrong, said the Im-To-morrow I shall pay a sum of money into the bank for you, and you will have will stand and make them with the dening work and blacking the stove perial Chancellor, but 'necessity to drive over and get a cheque-book; and roast or by themselves. When done are not so disastrous if this is done. knows no law.' the business, and have behaved like pendence had entered her soul. She was cheques until I come again."

Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the pulp, When you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the pulp, would you like the pulp, when you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the pulp, when you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the pulp, when you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the pulp, when you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the pulp, when you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the graph of the top, dip out the pulp, when you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the graph of the top, dip out the pulp, when you have a receipt that "Yes. But the German Imperial ler's window)—How would you like the graph of the top of the top room had its memories and associations egg yolk may be used to season the lid, and put it into the oven only France on the south, and if it had for her. In the library she could almost legg york may be used to season the lid, and put it into the over fancy that her father was sitting in the inside and some finely chopped meat long enough to brown it. high-backed chair which was still drawn or bacon and some chopped mush- When bedrooms are small, and would then have had the right to wants nothing so much as supply and sat in it and touched with reverent, room may be added. These may be trunks and hat-boxes have to be pil- regard this as a cause of war.

ed up in corners, it is a good plan stood before his portrait and gazed at it Potato Noisettes. - Noisette to get four blocks of wood all the with tear-dimmed eyes, and only the con- means nut, a hazel nut, and vege- same size, and to make a groove in stood and looked towards the ruined quickly and are decorative. The A method which is said to be very Belgium, then, had to refuse is to boil the little pieces for eight or ten minutes, just covering with cold water, to make them more mealy, and quickly brought to a boil. These can be drained and finished with butter or added to a sauce. In either case potatoes so prepared can stand in the oven covered and not lose in flavor as do mashed potatoes. Beiled Onions. - Small onions boiled in meat stock, boiled away and reduced to glaze, are delicious, but some butter or bacon with a little sugar and water may be used instead, just enough liquid to cover, so that it will all be boiled away. Cooked in plain salted water and served in a little hot cream they are deficious, but cannot so well by used as a garnish. Small onions E WINNIPEG will cook from twenty minutes to half an hour as follows : Remove the thin paper skin so as to leave them as comely as possible, cover with a up, then cover cooking vessel close- DUTCH AFRAID OF GERMAN ly, and finish over the simmering burner. The steam generated helps to cook them better than in an LETTER FROM HOLLAND TO open vessel.

Potatoes a la Brabanconne. -Cook one-half onion sliced. Add two tablespoons chopped ham, one tablespoon chopped parsley, butter, Campaign of Excuses For the Invasalt and paprika to season, cream if convenient. Mound in a greased baker, and smoothly mash six potatoes and cover top with fine bread crumbs and dots of butter Bake twenty minutes, until the top is well browned.

Household Hats.

To brighten zine rub it with sof coap and sand.

pplied with a newspaper. die cakes every morning.

fore frying and it will not burst. the bread made from it will be. improves both flavor and quality. Every household should have

Tie a knot of red ricbon on scissors and keys if you want to find them easily.

Celery leaves should always be saved-even dried, if necessary-to Never put much sugar in bread;

it is only used at all to help the! yeast to ferment. A japanned tray can be freshenand a finish of enamel.

caused them. Poor people, it was not used instead with a little more but- To remove grease spots from carpets, rub on each spot a mixture of cooking may be done in ten or good for removing all the cream Germany's offer, and the too, Up to this moment she had been buoyed twelve minutes. The cutting out from milk contained in a bottle or with her arms. In spite of this, up by excitement and the joy and pleas-ure of her return to the old house; but suddenly there fell a cloud-like depression member that the word used for this disk of rubber which takes a slightcutting is "turning," and the knack ly concave shape, it being hung as Franc-tireurs, for their country, either of us! ing void, a lack of something which robbed her heart of all its joy. She had no can soon be acquired. The scoop is upon three light aluminum rods or may have acted against internationneed to ask herself what it was: she knew buried in the vegetable and turned. wires. Slipping the disk in edgewise at law. But has not your Chancelher, she was the mistress of a large for Fried potato noisettes are pretty and below the surface, it then takes lor admitted himself that the Germoney to my friends that I am a and may be simply cooked in butter the flat position and can be drawn man army was acting contrary to most broke. Owens-Let me make

TO GUARD AGAINST ALUM IN BAKING POWDER SEE THAT ALL INGREDIENTS ARE PLAINLY PRINTED ON THE LABEL, AND THAT ALUM OR SULPHATE OF ALUMINA OR SODIC ALUMINIC SUL-PHATE IS NOT ONE OF THEM. THE WORDS "NO ALUM" WITHOUT THE IN-GREDIENTS IS NOT SUFFI-CIENT. MAGIC BAKING POWDER COSTS NO MORE THAN THE ORDINARY KINDS. FOR ECONOMY, BUY THE ONE POUND TINS.

MONTREAL

E. W. GILLETT COMPANY LIMITED TORONTO, ONT.

"OUR GERMAN FRIENDS."

sion of Belgium Not Successful.

From the Dutch paper de Amwhich a translation is given:

have received postcards from your Russians in north-east Germany country which seek to give us, your were to revenge town for town, and friends, the impression which may peasant for peasant, what would To clean tinware, try dry flour be expressed in the words-Thank you be able to say! God, we Germans have a clear con-Bran muffins are better than grid- science.' We Dutch cannot answer you, as your Chancellor has adall these postcards, and we would mitted, have broken both word and Roll sausage in a little flour be- not like to do so. It is our solemn right. Thus you are come under duty not to leave our German the ban of the curse which the great The better the flour, the better friends under the impression that Schiller threatened-This is the their campaign of excuses has been curse of evil deeds, that they con-Part milk used in mixing bread successful. The struggle for the tinue to bear evil. triumph of the moral means fighta ing with other weapons. How we, plentiful supply of apples for winwho do not labor under your delusion, must view the situation the following statements shall show.

receive from all parts of Germany asseverations to the effect that 'The Dutch, they are our friends!

"We only hope that the German love for us will not be too much like Far to the heart of the woods it ran; 'monkey-love'; we should not just exactly like to be crushed to death Daring to go with a throbbing heart in her loving arms.

"Still, there is a contradiction ed with two coats of white paint hidden in this declaration of Germany's disinterested goodwill to-To make an old fowl tender, rub ward us-nay, even expressed in it. Mashed Potato. — There is one the bird all over with lemon juice, You are our friends, because you Building a bridge or a water wheel; essential thing to remember about then wrap in buttered paper, and remain neutral.' Then they abuse against Germany.

Germany's Broken Faith.

be scalded and used for blanc or squash pies.

It is on the back of the cheque."

She had written it in the porter's box.

She had written it in the porter's box. "I am going home. Something has hap carriages and horses; both the lodges of the lodges are beforehand. To clean white buckskin and gium, for, curiously, it appears that what the Germans reckon as a tirtue in us Dutch they regard as an enormity in the Belgians-namely, Back to the farm as a man I went, 'the maintenance of neutrality.'

"The Belgians are just as gallant as we are. They want to be neu- But all they started to grow in me. tral and to remain neutral, and to protect themselves with all their strength against the attack on their neutrality, as it is their duty, and as we also should do.

'And, as the Germans know quite old burglar in disgust. "It's no well, that was not an act of war. | use wasting time hert. Potatoes prepared in a little differ, then rinse this out with clear water Likewise, it was not a cause for Don't you think those lovers will taught by international law.

permitted Germany's step, France quaintances and friends. This world its neutrality in every direction, or others it protects it not at all. We Dutch enabled her to bear his absence. As she table noisettes are little vegetable each for the casters to fit in. This see well enough how each party passed through the hall the newly risen spheres the size of a hazel nut cut raises the bed, and all trunks and watches us to see that we do not

Curse of Evil Deeds.

internation law in breaking into a the finishing touch. neutral country?

V paid, but you want to make Belgium

"In spite of a thousand sophistries, you can never bring that into line with your conscience, as soon as it again makes itself heard, nor with the conscience of the world.

"And now comes the news that Louvain, wonderful Louvain, has been destroyed, and the people put to the sword or driven out, destroyed by a German army, which should protect culture against Russian bar-

"Our dear, good German friends, sterdammer is here reprinted an we weep for the wonderful Louvain. open letter to the Germans, of brass, tapestry, sevres china, and we weep for the Belgians, but we "During the past week we Dutch weep still more for you. If the

"It all comes from the fact that

MY RIVER.

By Dr. J. L. Hughes, Toronto.

"It does us Dutch people good to Clear was the spring in the pasture Close to the foot of the tall elm tree, Source of my river a half yard wide, Wonderful river it was to me.

> Often I followed it there aione, Into the depths of the great un-

Barefoot and hatless I worked all day. Changing its course with my wood-

Mine were great visions of power to Mine were the joys of achievement.

Mine were the glories of earth and

River and spring and tall eim had

A Long Good-By. "Come on, Bill," whispered the

His Choice.

First Laborer (gazing into jewel.

Never say unkind things about acpeople, who see the bright side of "Either, or. A people protects things, and find something good in "I think, William, I'll ask there new people next door to take dinner with us to-night." "What for

"Well, the butcher, by mistake, left their meat order here, and it see. only fair.

Easymark-I've leaned so much

Buy British-made Roofing--Not Foreign-Made

quite forgotten her, or, if he remembered her, recalled the past with a feeling of annoyance with which a man regards a smelted, rolled, galvanized and corrugated within the Empire. We could use feeling the past time he had the past time he had not send your money to foreign countries—circulate it AT HOME, where your crops are sold, and where your money will come back to you and your family. Our "Redcliffe" Corrugated Iron is British through and through—mined, smelted, rolled, galvanized and corrugated within the Empire. We could use foreign-made Keystone sheets if we wished, but we prefer to buy within the Empire, and so should you. Our thirty-year reputation for square dealing is behind every one of the famous "Redcliffe" British-made Galvanized Sheets which you will get if you buy from us. And our prices are as low or lower than sheets and "Redcliffe" British-made Corrugated Iron make a staunch, time-proof

NOW

ORDER

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO

Our Prices To-day Are: 28 Gauge---$3.60 per 100 square feet 26 Gauge---$3.80 per 100 square feet Laburaum Villa, but she gave Jessie and account of the accident and her experiences of a hospital ward; at all which Jessie uttered "Ohs" and "Abs" with bated breath and gaping mouth. It was late before ida got to bed, and later still before she fell asleep; for, somehow, now that she was back at Herondale the memory of that happy past grew more vivid; in fact, the whole place was haunted by the spectre of her lost love; and of all spectre of her lost love; and of all spectre of her lost love; and of all spectres this is the most sad and heart possessing.

Freight prepaid to any station in Old Ontario. Terms: cash with the order. Special prices to other sections of Canada on application. We can also supply Corrugated Ridge Cap, etc., to fit our sheets. You save money and get a vastly better article. Buy "Redcliffe" Corrugated Iron to-day at our special cut prices. Very special reduced prices are also being quoted for "Metallic" Siding and Wall Plates—beautiful and durable. Correspondence invited.

We will gladly help you with your barn plane. Let us hear from you about your requirements.

The METALLIC ROOFING Co., Ltd., Manufacturers, Cor. Toronto

Foolish Young Man;

responded Mr. Wordley, with suprecord excitement. "It was the top of a a and I opened it. And what do you murmured.

her coming, in his eleep, from the ruin-

and a little farther off e found another tin case quite as full. and soundest companies, and they are met infallible; he seems scarcely ever to belong."

With a folded cheque in her hand Ida perhaps you would like to go away while such he hought for a few chillings gold be spirited from him. nd diamond shares are worth hundreds "I have come back to-to say good-bye so sudden, so unexpected, that I canrealize it. It seems to me as if I were as in the cot upstairs and dreaming.

sked with a sudden piteousness that if hearly brought the tears to Mr. Go back, my dear!" he exclaimed. "Of curse, you can go back! The place beouse to you. Why, I've already given no-

How can I thank you for all your

and with a shamefaced oy which affected wide moors, the brawling streams which Ida even more than his wonderful news che knew now were dearer to her than life gother; for I've been the stupidest and and knew by his nod of the head that he bave seen through your father's affecta- to meet them at Bryndermere, and ou'd like to go back to Herondale by ped at the familiar gate, and Jessie, who he first train. You must hate the sight was standing there, with her hair blown was standing there, with her hair blown was pouring in through the tall wild be the wind, forgot the inequalities of their positions, and catching her believed young mistress to her bosom, croon-level voung mistress to her bosom, croon-level bell door and went level to the first the fi said Ida, gently. "Yes, I of their positions, and catching her bewould like to go back to Herondale-ah. loved young mistress to her bosom, croono see someone before I go-the sister, the Jason stood just behind, balancing him-

INFLUENZA Catarrhal Fever Pink Eye, Shipping

And all diseases of the horse affecting his throat, speedily cured; colts and horses in the same stable kept from having them by using Spohn's Distemper and Cough Compound, 3 to 6 doses often cures; one bottle guaranteed to cure one case. Safe for broad mares, baby colts, stallions, all ages and conditions. Most skillful scientific compound. Any druggist. SPONN MEDICAL CO., Goshen, Ind. U.S.A.

does make the bread and butter taste good !"

it out on bread or pancakes, fruit or porridge, that you notice most the sweetness and perfect purity of REDPATH Extra Granulated Sugar. Buy it in the 2 and 5-lb. Sealed Cartons, or in the 10, 20, 50 or 100-lb. Cloth Bags, and you'll get the genuine Actor, absolutely clean, just as it left the refinery.

CANADA SUGAR REFINING CO., LIMITED, . - MONTREAL.

London to have any breath or inclination to tell any of the data news. Of course Ida did not speak of the disagreement at