Soldiers Questions and Their Answers

A citizen has been prepared and authorized by the militia council at Ottawa for the purpose of enabling soldiers who enlist in the second contingent to know just what they may expect for themselves and their families in case they go to the front.

Men will naturally ask some pertinent questions and the following questions and answers have been prepared:

"For how long will I have to serve?"

"Till the end of the war and six months after its termination, if necessary."

"What will happen to my wife and children?"

Your wife will get $20 per month separation allowance for herself. She can look with confidence to the Canadian Patriotic fund to supplement this by whatever amount is necessary to meet the needs of the home.

You will get to begin with $1.10 per day and all found."

"What will happen if I am maimed by loss of limb?"

"You will receive a pension at such rates as may be fixed by the government."

What provision will be made for my family if I am killed?"

"They will be cared for by the Canadian people whose ward they will become."

108,000 Canadians under Arms

An official statement issued by the Prime Minister on Nov. 21st, announces the Government's plan for immediately increasing to 50,000 the number of troops in Canada under arms and training for active service. The total Canadian force under arms either in Canada or abroad will therefore within a couple of months or so be 108,000 and this total will be maintained until the end of the war, or increased if it is found that more men from Canada are needed at the front.

Orders for the enlistment of 20,000 men, additional to the force in training, as decided upon a month ago, will be issued at once. Owing however to the advice received from the war office and the present limitations of receiving and finally training in England more Canadians for service at the front, the new recruits other than the 17,000 of the second contingent will be sent abroad for some months at least. Meanwhile they will undergo a thorough course of training in Canada with a view to having them fit for active service in Europe as soon as needed, and shortening as far as possible the period of their training in England which the first contingent is now undergoing.

For the second contingent the War Office has asked for 17,000 men, 4,765 horses, 58 field and heavy guns, with various supplementary units. This force will be ready to go forward within a month or so. Arrangements have been made with the war office for the purchase of the necessary 18 pounder field guns as well as guns of heavier calibre. Meanwhile the field artillery units for the second contingent are being trained with 12 pounders of the type used in the South African war. Large numbers of these guns are available in Canada.

The Omission Explained

In last Thursday's News there appeared a letter signed by E. T. Eede, M. D., Geo. Hollinger, J. H. Adams, S. B. Clarke, D. Kuechel, H. H. Engel, A. B. Taylor, M. D., A. D. Poole, well known citizens of Hanover, calling attention of the News to the unfairness of the letter of Mr. R. J. Ball, M. P., which it published and its editorial comment that "in view of the fact that Mr. Miller and Mr. Ball had been and will be the political opponents, the omission was curious and unfortunate." The letter continues "We agree the omission was unfortunate but we deem Mr. Ball's letter more unfortunate. Mr. Ball, we think, must have seen and read Mr. Wilson's letter before he, a week later, wrote his letter to the News and other papers. In our opinion the explanation should have been accepted as perfectly satisfactory, especially as Mr. Miller had with the greatest possible promptness done all any man could do to correct the error inadvertently made."

Here follows an offer to anyone to inspect the stenographer's notes, telegrams and correspondence, and the letter proceeds: "At a meeting last Monday night of the Appropriation Committee of the Hanover Patriotic Fund, at which Mr. Ball and Mr. Miller were each present as members, the members of the committee, Conservative and Liberal alike, expressed confidence in Mr. Miller and repudiated all thought of him having purposely omitted the subscription of Mr. Ball's company and members of the committee and others, without regard to party, express great surprise at Mr. Ball's attitude and action."

We ask you to give this letter as conspicuous a place in your columns as you gave to the letter of Mr. Ball. Mr. Wilson, a well-known and respected young man engaged as stenographer in Mr. Miller's office, made a very clear explanation of the unfortunate omission in a letter which appeared in the Hanover Post of the 12th Nov., of which the following is a copy: "Having learned this morning that there is some street talk as to

MILTON MILLS

Son of Mr. W. D. Mills of St. Catharines, formerly of Durham, who is now in training on Salisbury Plains with the Artillery section of the First Canadian Contingent. He was born in Durham nearly twenty years ago and is the first native-born Durham boy to volunteer for service. His friends here wish for him a safe and joyous return.

the omission in the reports published in the Toronto and London papers of the subscription to the Patriotic Fund of $100 of the Ball Furniture Co., I beg to say that the fault was mine entirely. On Thursday evening last just before leaving for Allan Park to attend a box social there, Mr. Miller dictated reports to me for five Toronto papers and two London papers and in the dictation given to me by Mr. Miller the subscription of The Kneehiel Furniture Co., Limited, for $100, immediately followed it. I wrote the reports after tea and inadvertently omitted the subscription of the Ball Furniture Co. Mr. Miller did not notice the oversight until he opened a paper the next morning. He immediately called my attention to the omission and then telephoned the office of The Ball Furniture Co. and made explanation. He then wrote at once to the Toronto and London papers and telegraphed to the Toronto evening papers asking that the omission be corrected or that prominent notice be given to the mention of The Ball Company's subscription. I exceedingly regret having made the mistake and will be pleased to show any one my notes of Mr. Miller's dictation to me, in which the subscription of the Ball Co. is plainly included. I write this letter that no blame may be unfairly attached to Mr. Miller in connection with an omission he sincerely regrets and for which he was in no way to blame.
