Mr. J. W. Tucker has accepted a situation in Toronto and left town on Monday to enter upon his new duties. J. W. has been for fifteen years in the Standard Office and was a most capable and efficient practical printer and business man. He and his estimable wife were prominent in society and will be much missed in Markdale. Their friends wish them prosperity in their new home and calling.—Standard.

"Why not form a regiment of ministers of the gospel and send them to the front," says the Orangeville Sun. "About two thousand," it adds, "have applied to accompany the second Canadian contingent as chaplains while only twenty are required. Fortunately for the welfare of Canada and Canadians the Sun's suggestion is not likely to be acted upon. The clergymen who are doing their duty seem enough of battle at home and should be the last called to this front.

The Department of Trade and Commerce stated on November 10 that up to that date they had received 30,000 requests for the booklet on how to serve apples. These requests came in response to the advertisement appearing in many Canadian dailies in connection with the Government's campaign to increase the sale and consumption of Canadian apples. The enquiries have averaged a thousand a day since the first advertisement appeared. Wholesale apple dealers and growers' associations report a greatly increased demand for apples as a result of the advertising.

A fine exhibition of clean hockey was played here Wednesday evening between Harrison and Durham senior teams, the score was 8-6 in Durham's favor.

The death of Lechlan McLachlan, a highly respected employe at the Duke of Sutherland's colony near Brooks, occurred very suddenly last Friday night at the colony. Heart failure was the cause of his death. Deceased was about forty years of age and was born in Glenelg township, Grey County, Ontario, and had lived two years in the west. He was well liked by his employers and fellow-workers and his untimely end, sadder because it came in the glad Christmas season is deeply regretted. The surviving sisters and brothers are: Mrs W. Myer, Mrs. Aitken, Buffalo, Mrs Shortreed at Pricerville, Ont.; Alexander and John, Champlain, A. Herts, Angus at Gate way, B. C., and Donald at Pricerville, Ont. Alexander was in Brooks on Tuesday and arranged for the sending of the body to Ontario for interment.—Brooks, Alta., Bulletin.

The death occurred on Sunday evening last of Mrs Margaret Milligan, relict of the late William Milligan, at the home of her daughter, Mrs Arthur Ellis, at the advanced age of 80 years and 1 day. Deceased was born at Lumlash Island of Arnan, Scotland. She came to Canada with her parents, Mr and Mrs John McNeil, in 1858 and shortly afterwards came up to "bush" in Bentinck where they spent many years. Mr Milligan died some years ago. They had a family of three sons and four daughters, two of the daughters being deceased. Those living are Christina, matron of the Infants' Home, Hamilton and Mrs Arthur Ellis of Hanover; Robert and Donald in B. C. and John in Bentinck. Deceased also leaves two brothers and one sister to mourn her loss viz: David of Hanover and John of Ottawa and Christina, (Mrs John Nichol) of Pricerville. Deceased enjoyed the highest respect of all who knew her and her death will be mourned by a whole circle of friends. The funeral takes place today to West Bentinck cemetery.—Post.

The Durham Poultry Association are holding their Annual Show Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 19, 20 and 21.

There will be a change in the Grand Trunk time table in Durham dating from Jan. 17th, whereas the outgoing p. m. train which formerly left at 4, will then leave at 3:45 p. m.

The interest in the week of prayer led the leaders to hold a second week and the meetings are progressing in the same order. An important meeting was held Wednesday evening the topic being Cycles and Law Enforcement of which more later.

Mr George Robertson of St. Catharines, will give two lectures in the Town Hall Thursday, Jan. 21, one at 2:30 p. m. and an illustrated lecture at 8 p. m. in connection with the Durham Poultry Show to be held Jan. 19, 20, 21. Admission to lecture, free.

New Council Meets

Interviewed by Delegations

Mayor Hunter on Monday night dispensed with the usual inaugural speech outlining his policy and plans for the year and without a preliminary of any kind entered upon the business, reading first the list of committees appointed earlier in the day.

Following reading of the minutes and passing accounts, the mayor asked for delegations and Rev. Mr Prudham stepped forward and after felicitations to mayor and council on their election proceeded to lay before them the advisability, in the interest of law enforcement of introducing and passing a by-law under legislation of 1914. Such a by-law gives powers to a specially appointed officer equal to a Provincial Inspector, with this important feature in addition, that fines collected through him come into the town treasury. One-third of these fines shall be laid aside as a fund for the enforcement of the License law, the rest to be used for any municipal purpose.

During the year ending Sept. 30, 1914, no less a sum than $540 was collected by Insp. Allan from violators of the law in Durham and under the proposed measure this would stay in town. Besides this in the same period $40 had been collected by town constable and this last though imposed, does not seem to have been paid.

He instanced several other places where this law was in force and producing good results and hoped the council would signalize itself by granting the request of the delegation, representing a large body of public opinion in town desirous of removing the stain of law-breaking from Durham.

Rev. Mr. Wylie, Insp. Campbell and C. Ramage, other members of the delegation pressed these and similar arguments on the attention of council.

Reeve Calder, for himself, was desirous of further information before proceeding. He claimed temperance people in the past had asked for changes that had not given satisfaction and resented what he called the interference that past councils were to blame. The delegation were quite agreeable to furnish information from other places and this will be done on Tuesday of next week.

Another delegation was present from the Public Library, headed by Insp. Campbell, chairman, of the Board, He. Librarian Elvidge and Secy. Ramage presented their case and council granted $225 which amount will just clean up liabilities of 1914. A statement in detail of income and outlay will be presented at next meeting.

That the Library and Reading Room is filling a good purpose in Durham is evident. Those unable to secure a wide education, may improve themselves here. The duty of the Library is to reach every one in town to whom reading would be of value. That it tends in that direction is evident for since its formation as a free library the number of readers has increased from about 100 to 400.

The newly elected members of the Town Council took the Statutory declaration at 2 o'clock on Monday last. Dr. Wolfe, Librarian Elvidge and pointed a distribution committee and their report below was adopted on motion of Lloyd—Grant.

Toboggan Danger

Two accidents this week call attention to an ever present danger in our hilly town. Monday last Royden, son of Mr Robt Burnett, was enjoying the sport of coasting on the steep hill near the Cement works. A mishap of some kind occurred and the lad came out of it with a cut on his head requiring several stitches.

On Tuesday on Garafraza St. hill, tobogganing was in full blast and one of them with a load of 5 or 6 found themselves in danger of diving into a cutter that was resting there. The pilot, to save impact with the cutterly tilted the toboggan and in this position Harry Kress who was clinging to the cutter violent. He received of course a cut on the head and a severe cut in one leg, requiring stitching, and some bruises on the feet and elsewhere. Both boys are getting along well.

Tobogganing is a fascinating sport, so much so that the town officials wink at it as a violation of law but on our main street in business hours it will have to stop to save a quite possible tragedy.

If a company on a quiet evening wish to indulge we think it might be allowed but one of their number in turn should be stationed at the railway track to signal danger.

About three generations of Durhamites have coasted this hill. It's in the blood and will not be easily stopped.

Repeal Contests.

Figures below give the result of the nine (9) local option repeal contests in Ontario. We wonder how many of the honest, conscientious citizens of Durham are ashamed to see our good town in that lonely column? Is it any wonder the Mesford Express attributes the result as due to an influx of foreign laborers? Alas! We haven't even that excuse.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr Arthur Hutton left Monday for Winham, where he has secured a school in that district.

Mr and Mrs Thos. McClocklin are visiting a couple of weeks with their respective parents in Toronto.

Mr Dan McCormick, teacher of Le Duc, Alta., is home visiting at his father's, Mr Arch. McCormick, Aberdeen.

Mrs Geo. Ritchie and son George, from Acton, are visiting at the former's brother-in-law, Mr Andrew Ritchie, Upper Town.

Mrs Buchanan, of Edmonton, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs Chas. McKinnon, Sr., Pricerville, for a few days last week and this.

Mr Thos. Binic, in the Assay office in Brit. Columbia, came home last week after an absence of 10 years in the western province. He finds many changes but is enjoying the fraternization with brother and sisters here and old friends.

Mr. Forbes Amos of Chatham, has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Dan McAniff for a few days before leaving to join the third contingent. Miss Lauretta McAniff accompanied her cousin as far as Mt. Forest.

Mrs. Gun Sr. received a letter a few days ago from her son Cecil on board ship off the east coast of South America. They were living in a tense atmosphere owing to the possibilities of attack by a German marauder. Cecil did not know whether his ship was bound for New York or Liverpool but hoped it was the latter as he was anxious to get to the front.

Dr. Jamieson, M. P. E., and Mrs. Jamieson, went to Toronto on Monday and will occupy the Speaker's Chamber during the approaching session.

Mr and Mrs. Thos. Lauder returned Monday after a month's stay with Cleveland relatives. Mr. and Mrs. P. McArthur, formerly of Pricerville, held the fort in the old home in their absence.

Mrs. R. Shortreed of Pricerville, and brother Alex. of Champlain, Alta., visited their aunt, Mrs. Allan McKinnon over Monday night.

Mr A. C. McDonald of town received a letter from his son Tom in British Columbia written on January 5th, informing him that he had joined the Army Medical Corps and was leaving in a few days to join the second overseas contingent. He regrets that he is unable to give his address at present but promises to write. This does war invade many homes taking the best of our youth, some of whom may never return.

Mr. Robt. Moffat of Toronto, is visiting with his brother John at Edge Hill and other friends.

Miss Effie Hutton has accepted a school at Mansfield, near Shelburne, leaving Saturday.

Mrs Robt MacFarlane is spending the week in Toronto.

Mr Jas. Counts, of Bentinck, was taken to Stratford Hospital on Thursday last to undergo an operation for appendicitis. We are pleased to state he is making favorable recovery.

Mr Milton Ard, Secy. of the Sawyer-Massey Co., Regina, is visiting his old home near Allenford a couple weeks and paid a flying visit to Durham Tuesday to see his sister, Mrs Robt. Watt.

Mr E. Proctor, of Kimberley, accompanied Miss Mae McGowan home this week, the latter having resigned her school at Ravenna.

Army Horses

A Colonel Robertson and an assistant on behalf of the government were in town Monday last to purchase horses. Owing to imperfect advertising of their coming they did not do as much business as expected, but they picked up 8 horses 4 each of artillery and riding classes. They intend to come again and with better publicity will do bigger business. They are paying better prices than the regular buyers and if they will let Mr Black know in time he will easily get them a carload.

Fair Play Will Give

Durham the Wardenship

County Council meets on the 23rd January and one of the items of business that takes popular attention is the choice of a warden.

For two years back a large section of the County Council and many county citizens have recognized in Wm. Calder, Reeve of Durham, a fitting man for the position and when to personal qualifications there is added the fact that Durham as a town has never in its history been honored with the Wardenship, many think that the conjunct on of ability in the man and fair play to the municipality, should lead the council of 1915 to send the Wardenship this way unanimously.

Besides it was held by a northern man last year and in fairness should this year come south.

Mr Calder in past years has occupied the chairmanship of the Finance and other important Committees of County Council. For 6 consecutive years he has been Reeve of Durham, the last four of which he got by acclamation so that on all counts he would be a worthy fill the position and Durham after many years would appreciate the honor.

Let it be unanimous.

WARM GOOD-BYE TO DURHAM BOY.—Dr. Cecil E. Wolfe, who some time ago, was accepted on the Canadian Veterinary staff for service in the war zone, received on Monday a telegram, notifying him to report on Thursday. On his leaving Wednesday afternoon, the news having in the meantime spread, a crowd of two or three hundred citizens, including the high school students, girl guides and the band which serenaded, had marched and assembled at the station, where many handshakes and feeling farewells were given. He left for Montreal, and thence proceeds to Halifax, where he will learn when he is to cross the pond.
