Concentration

J. W. HUNT, Holstein

It is better to advertise intensively than extensively when the sum to be devoted to advertising is small. This means the regular use of the DURHAM REVIEW-52 messages -a year addressed to the same constituency of readers.

Intermittent or divided effort is not likely to be resultful. One full-powered blow is batt th an two half blows.

Concentration of appeal will do a work of noi to and persuasion that will surpise you what the year's returns are totalled up.

A NOTE TO THE PUBLIC

There's advice for you in this little homily to alvertiers; it is: Reward with a full-not divided custom the merchant who steadfastly solicits your good-will. The more you strengthen the hands of the man who serves you the better will be the service returned.
