The "Princess Pats"

From the Detroit Free Press A touch of the plain and the prairie, A bit of the motherland too; A strain of the fur trapper, wary; A blend of the old and the new. A bit of the pioneer splendor That opened the wilderness flats, A touch of the home lover tender, You'll find in the boys—they call "Pats."

The glory and strength of the maple, The courage that's born to the wheat, The pride of a stock that is staple, The bronze of a midsummer heat, A mixture of wisdom and daring, The best of a new land, and that's The regiment gallantly bearing The neat little title of "Pats."

Our Plucky Neighbors

[The comment below is from the Detroit Free Press and the generous recognition by an outsider is heartily appreciated by all Canadians.—Ed.]

Canadians may well take pride in reading about the courage and stoicism of their boys in the first exposure to fire in the European trenches. The regiment familiarly known as "Pat's Pats" has stood the test with much credit, and although it has not as yet found an opportunity to display its dashing qualities that brought renown to the South African contingent during the Boer war it has demonstrated that it possesses the traditional bravery of Canadians and warrants expectation that it will cover itself with glory when the time comes.

There is something pitiful in the thought of these strong young men, who seem so real to us over here, being sent into the fatal field of ruthless battle, but war has its compensation for its manifold evils and it may be that we Americans too shall some time recover with the rest of the world the ancient admiration for heroism in combat and believe that it is a proper and even pleasant thing to die for one's country. The concept is a little out-of-date with us yet, but we may revive the fashion. At all events courage is always admired by real men and our Canadian cousins are certainly showing that they have it.

Canadian Pacific Train Service between Toronto—Montreal and Ottawa.

Attention is called to excellent night service from Toronto to Montreal and Ottawa via Canadian Pacific. Train 22 leaving Toronto Union Station at 11.40 p. m. daily, carries electric lighted sleepers, compartment observation car from Toronto to Montreal, and Toronto to Ottawa. This train runs via Lake Ontario Shore Line, due Montreal 8.55 a. m. daily, the Ottawa sleeper arriving in Ottawa 7.25 a. m. daily. Smoking is permitted in the lounge of observation room of the Buffet Library Observation Compartment Car, Toronto to Montreal, and arrangements have been made whereby passengers on this car will press clothes for passengers at very reasonable charges.

Being the last night train from Toronto to Montreal and Ottawa, it gives the travelling public the opportunity of spending the entire evening with their families, or enables them to attend the theatre and other places of amusement, and still have plenty of time to take the train. Sleepers are placed for occupancy at 10.00 p. m. at Toronto Union Station, enabling passengers who so desire to retire at that time.

Dining Car is attached at Smith's Falls every morning, serving breakfast into Montreal, so that business men may proceed direct to their offices or appointments immediately on arrival.

The Canadian Pacific operates a high class passenger train from North Toronto Station at 10.00 p. m. daily, carrying standard electric lighted sleepers and compartment car for Montreal and sleeper Toronto to Ottawa. Train is due Montreal 7.35 a. m. daily and Ottawa car reaches that point at 7.25 a. m. daily.

A solid night train is also operated from Toronto Union Station to Ottawa leaving Toronto 10.20 p. m. daily, this train carrying standard electric lighted sleepers and compartment car, at Ottawa 7.25 a. m. daily. Carries from Smith's Falls to Ottawa, the standard sleepers for that point, leaving North Toronto at 10.00 p. m. and the standard sleepers leaving Toronto Union Station at 11.40 p. m. daily, so that Ottawa passengers may take their choice of either of these trains and reach Ottawa at exactly the same time.

The Canadian limited No. 20 via Lake Ontario Shore Line route leaves Toronto daily 9.09 a. m. for Montreal, connection at Smith's Falls for Ottawa stopping at important places, carrying Observation Parlor Car, Dining Car and first and second class coaches.

Particulars from any Canadian Pacific Ticket Agent, or write M. G. Murphy, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

HANOVER

MAP DRAWING CONTEST—The Hanover Boy Scouts held a map drawing contest last week which attracted a good deal of interest and anyone who saw the specimens of their work in the display windows of H. H. Engel & Co., formed a high opinion of the skill of the young participants. The subject was a war map of Europe, showing the important places of the conflict. The contest was divided into two classes. First for boys 14 years and over, the winners being, 1st—Duncan Engel; 2nd—Harold Boettiger; 3rd—Gordon Schroeder. The second class was for boys under 14 years the winners being: 1st—Freddie Hodder, 2nd—Stanley Eckel, 3rd—Ross Helwig. The judges were Miss McKee and Mr. D. L. Strachan. The maps were not traced but were free hand and were remarkably good—seeing as a humorous remark that it is a pretty difficult thing to draw a map of Europe at the present time.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS—The result of the Religious Census taken by the Hanover Adult Bible Class Federation was: Adult members and adherents 1280 No church in particular..... 22 Adult S. S. attendance..... 322 Boys under twenty years..... 305 Girls under twenty years..... 418 Boys S. S. attendance..... 290 Girls S. S. attendance..... 314 Boys not attending S. S..... 105 Girls not attending S. S..... 104 Total..... 3018

(Quite a number of the latter class are children too small to attend the Sunday School.)

PRESIDENT RICHARDSON—Mr. B. Richardson was elected President of the Hanover, Bentinck and Brant Agricultural Society at the annual meeting last week. Dr. Taylor who had been president for eight years retired. He made an excellent presentation and helped materially to place the Hanover Show in the front row of its class. Mr. Richardson is a popular young man and we hope that he will make good in the new position.—Post
