The Great Convention

Preparations are going forward most encouragingly for the big Dominion-Provincial Temperance Convention to be held in Massey Hall, Toronto, on March 3rd, 4th and 5th. Already many credentials are being received at the Alliance Office and the prospect is that there will be a bumper gathering.

A feature of the Convention will be the music. Prof. E. O. Excell of Chicago, one of the greatest leaders of assembly singers on the continent, will take charge. He will be assisted by Mr. Alvin W. Roper of Chicago, pianist; Prof. T. C. Jeffers of Toronto College of Music, organist, and the famous Alexander Choir, Toronto, assisted by noted soloists.

Churches and temperance Societies in Canada are invited to send delegates. The present probability is that single fare return rates upon the Convention plan will not only obtain from all points in the Dominion of Canada. This will greatly help to increase that attendance from other Provinces.

The time of the Convention will be largely devoted to business but provision has been made for the accommodation of visitors in the balcony and gallery of the Hall. Two public meetings will be held on Thursday and Friday evenings. On Thursday evening Dominion wide issues will be discussed. On Friday evening Provincial situation will be dealt with.

DORNOCH

With iron hand and rigour all his own King Winter reigns supreme. His icy breath Hath hushed the babbling brooks and streams, that made A concord of sweet sounds and gaily danced Beneath the smile of summer's azure skies.

And bosoms of the crystal lakes are warped, Where wimpling waves, kissed by the summer breeze, Made merry music on the plucky beach.

On frosted window-panes, his magic touch Hath brought to birth a thousand life-like forms.

A little fairy world, where boggers sit In state like kings, and huts seem palaces.

From sky o'erhead, clothed black with sullen clouds, The snow comes swirling down as thick as hail; And, bolted by the wild north-western blast, Assumes fantastic heaps upon the ground.

Peep-frownd mounds and Lillocks pile on pile, With over hanging ridges frowning down. But like great fires which soon burn out themselves, The storm is spent, the morn is hushed and still; And, when the great sun fires the Eastern pines And floods the world with countless rays of flame,

The bosom of the snow is one vast sea Of shimmering diamonds, rare and beautiful.

So welcome, merry winter, your delights Give health and vim and make the blood flow free. And welcome thrice will be the blismy Spring When tracks, that now wend o'er the driven snow, Will wend through flowering vales and meadows green.

Mr and Mrs Hugh McIntosh of the County Town, spent a few pleasant days with relatives and friends in the village and community.

Mrs T. Ware, of the Queen City, accompanied by her two bonnie sons, Thomas and Norman, is visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs Thos. McKnight.

We extend congratulations to Mr John Helt and Miss Minnie Gillen, who joined hand and heart in wedlock a fortnight ago. May the home thus formed among the myriad homes of earth be blessed with happiness and prosperity.

The young people of the community were entertained by Mr and Mrs Fred Stafford at their home south of the Burg, on Tuesday evening of last week. Music, games and the whirl of the merry dance were enjoyed with social glee till Old Sol fired the Eastern horizon.

The concert, in aid of the suffering Belgians, held in the Presbyterian Church on Friday evening last was a brilliant success. Although the day was inclement, the storm gradually subsided and the night ushered in with absolute calm. The roads were ideal, the air keen and frosty, the mercury dipping to something like 20 degrees below, and the full moon shedding a glorious lustre on the snow-clad earth. The community was well represented and contingent from many outside points swelled the crowd till, in the commodious church, every available seat was occupied. Several members of the Durham Presbyterian choir were present and the many gemmed and much appreciated by the audience. The only juveniles to participate in the programme were Ross Parke, son of our genial merchant, who recited "Bagen on the Rhine" in true elocutionary style and the two Boyd children of Glenrodden, who sang a patriotic selection with great vim and melody. Two readings, one by Miss Reid and the other by Mr Wm. Runnings, added materially to the program. Rev. Mr Whaley, of Durham, was present and gave the address of the evening, an address, which for depth of sublimity, impressive delivery and in spring touch, was one of the best we have ever heard in Dornoch. He scored the grand American Republic for their Luke-warmness in the present great conflict, and, discussing each of the belligerents in turn, gleaned valuable lessons from the national characteristics of each, his graphic language and well chosen figures, making a profound impression on his hearers. The Dornoch young ladies sang two pleasing selections and the flag drill by eight of them was executed in perfect time and was particularly pleasing to the audience. Rev. Mr Mills aptly discharged the duties of chairman and the perfect order that prevailed throughout was a credit to any gathering. The proceeds were in excess of $50 and the committee are grateful to all who responded so nobly to such a worthy cause.

DORNOCH

The Women's Mission Society was held in the basement of the church on Monday, Feb 1st. Home and Foreign Mission work was read by Mrs Neil Wilson and Mrs H Alexander.

The patriotic concert which was held in the church on Friday night was a real success. The Durham choir did their part splendidly and it was a great treat to all. Come again. The proceeds were $50 so far but more is yet expected.

The Institute will be held at Mrs H Alexander's on Feb. 10th and we would like all members to be present. Papers will be given by Mrs Park and Miss Campbell. Roll will be called and everyone will respond.

Miss Frook is holding her concert in her school Feb 5th. Don't miss this or you will miss the time of your life.

Mr and Mrs Park spent Saturday in Durham.

Our Dornoch Sunday School is surely worthy of praise. Last Sunday there were eleven diplomas for memorizing List one, four for List two, and eight diplomas and bibles for memorizing the Shorter Catechism and one Golden Seal so surely the good work is being carried on in our Sunday School.

E. A. ROWE

It has been reported that the first "important" engagement in which The Princess Patricia's, Canada's first regiment on the battle front took part, occurred the latter part of last week, in the region of Ypres. The following refers to the said engagement:

"For Canada and England", the hearty shout arose.

As one long line of mighty men, dressed in khaki clothes, with set teeth and bayonets fixed, rushed onward to the fray, and with their heavey skill and strength they only won the day, The Charge of The Princess Patricia's.

"For Canada and England", the cry in spired the men,

They slashed to right, they cut to left, they slashed to right again

They cared not for the painful wounds inflicted by the foe.

So long as life and strength would last, they on, on, on, must go,

The Charge of The Princess Patricia's,

"For Canada and England", again they'd raise the cry,

The Princess Pat's was obvious, were out to do or die;

And when the foe was beaten back, they were not satisfied.

If needful they would fight until the last man died,

The Charge of the Princess Patricia's,

"For Canada and England", the cry re-echoed shrill,

They followed the retreating foe, to strike, to wound, to kill.

All those brave athletic men, were eager for the fight,

And glad the chance had come at last for them to show their might,

The Charge of The Princess Patricia's,

For Canada and England a victory was won,

For Canada and England a noble task was done,

The loss of life was very small, yet may it be their worst,

May every effort bring success as glorious as their first,

The Charge of the Princess Patricia's,

JOS I. SULLIVAN.
