While driving in to church on Sunday morning, Mrs John Bell noticed a purse lying on the road on Lambton street east, and found it contained money and other articles. She gave it into the hands of Constable Arrowsmith, who learned the owner to be Miss Millie Whitmore, teacher at Lamlash, she having dropped it going home the evening previous and after some search had failed to discover it. Needless to say, she rejoiced on finding it had fallen into honest hands.

Arrangements are completed for the reception in the Town Hall, Friday evening, 19th inst., to Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., in recognition of his appointment to the speakership of the Legislature. The reception is purely a civie one and as the honor to our townsman reflects credit on the town citizens of all stripes will honor themselves by attending. The meeting is called for 8 p. m. Address and Presentation

Ou Thursday evening, Feb. 11th, the friends and neighbors, numbering about sixty, of Mr and Mrs Wm. Kenny, gathered at their old home at Glenroaden to say farewell and spend one more evening together.

At the proper time Mr and Mrs Kenny were presented with a Dinner Set by Mr John Timmons and Vincent Paylor, while Mrs W. J. Greenwood read the address. Mr and Mrs Kenny, aithough completely taken by surprise, made a very fitting reply.

Mr Tom Morrison was then ca led as chairman and after a short progr consisting of speeches and songs, the remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing.

Following is the address : To Mr and Mrs Wm, Kenny
