The Durham Review

MARCH 11, 1915

Zig Zag or Straight

Special to the Review.

Toronto, March 7, 1915
Hon Mr Hearst, in the reply to the demand of the Dominion Alliance Deputation for the total prohibition of the sale of liquor said: "the zig zag path is often the best."

Mr. N. W. Rowell at the Massey Hall meeting of the Dominion Alliance convention. "This is no time for zig zagging in the temperance movement."

It is but natural that the delegates to the Dominion Alliance, who in an enormous deputation, interviewed Premier Hearst and his government at the Parliament buildings on Friday March 5th, should feel disappointed with the government's attitude. The Prime minister of course was non-committal and did not say definitely what he would do or what he would not do but the tenor of his remarks revealed the fact that he was not likely to grant what the deputation asked for, which was the complete prohibition of the sale of liquor in Ontario, if not for all time, for the very least during the course of the present war.

"The zig zag path is often the best" was one of the disappointing remarks made by Mr Hearst, showing an admitted lack of directness in his desire to deal with the request of the deputation. As if this remark was not enough the Prime minister emphasized it still further by saying that a "frontal attack is not always the best."

Hon. Mr Hanna was equally disappointing to the temperance people. The furthest he would go was to say that they would not find this government behind the previous Government in its dealings with the liquor traffic. What the temperance people asked for of course, was a policy much in advance of that given by the Government of Sir Jas. Whitney on this particular point.

Mr. F. S. Spence in speaking in support of the deputation views, told the Premier that he held office to-day thanks to the votes of a large number of Conservatives who believed that if the Conservative party were returned it would change its policy on the temperance question and advance rather than stand still. "Now is Mr Hearst's opportunity" said Mr Spence "to let the Temperance Conservatives see if they were right or not."

Ex-mayor Lees of Hamilton in supporting the demand for the total prohibition of the sale of liquor in the province, said that he and his family were Conservatives and always voted Conservative when they had a chance but did not do so when they felt the Government was opposed to advanced temperance measures.

At the concluding session of the Dominion Alliance Conference, Mr. N. W. Rowell acted as chairman.

Patriotism and Production Campaign

Object of the Campaign
It is not to be supposed that Patriotism and Production means increased Production alone; it means also improved production. Neither does the phrase or term mean that anybody assumes to teach anybody else how to conduct his own affairs. It is merely founded on the plain and acknowledged fact that nobody is so wise that nobody else can give him a hint or suggestion of value in some department of his business. It is always possible to be too rigidly self-contained.

Definiteness aimed at
It is claimed in some quarters that the Patriotic and Production Campaign is being conducted on too indefinite lines. The bulletins obtainable free on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, treating each of one subject, and written by acknowledged expert authorities, are especially definite. Readers in occasional cases may think they know as much as is there set down, or even that they know better, but to the vast majority there cannot fail to be something helpful. At any rate, send for the bulletins and see.

When "The Day" Comes
Economists predict a boom in trade when the war is over. Increased and improved production now means riches for Canada then. Markets are not won in a day.

Scope of the Campaign
While the war and the demand it is causing for supplies, especially foodstuffs, are the main reasons for the "Patriotic and Production" campaign, the subject matters discussed have a wider aspect than the immediate present. They mean the welfare of the district, the country and the Empire, both now and hereafter. With all the principal European supply countries engaged in deadly conflict, there will be no production of quantity or quality coming from thence. They will not only require every ounce for their own consumption, but will be compelled to purchase largely from neutral countries. Great Britain above all, will have to be fed and clad and Canada being her largest, nearest and absolute ally, will have in great measure to furnish the necessities. Nor will Great Britain be the only member of our Empire that will need what we can produce. New Zealand and Australia will also be importers. Thus then, the markets are assured for years to come, practically for all time, and not only for grain, but also for live stock, for, as the seasons pass, the latter bid fair to become scarcer and scarcer. Cattle cannot be bred, raised and placed on the market in one season, nor can horses, nor can sheep, hence the demand for action is instant. In short, Canada's opportunity is right now.

Time for Fulfillment

Now is Canada's opportunity to make good her boast that she is the granary of the Empire. Many of her young men are displaying a martial and hastening to offer themselves, to sacrifice themselves, in the cause they have at heart. But there is even a deeper duty resting on this country. That duty, well fulfilled, while helping others, cannot fail to help ourselves. We shall be abundantly paid for all we do, and in doing will possess the proud sense of serving the right. To neglect the opportunity for improved production is not only to fall short of the call of patriotism, but to be guilty of a crime. We have the soil we have the resources, we have the energy to justify our claim to be the granary of the Empire.

Figures that carry a Lesson

Great Britain imported 51,786,915 bushels of wheat from Canada in 1913. She also imported 9,860,400 bushels from Russia, 2,050,987 from Germany, 804,538 from France, 201,653 from Roumania, 265,848 from Austria-Hungary and 76,533 bushels from Bulgaria, a total of 12,759,949 bushels that will have to be made up. There was a decrease in Russia's exportation to Britain 7,000,000 bushels in 1913 compared with 1912 and of 24,000,000 compared with 1911. In 1913, the United States supplied the United Kingdom with 80,018,879 bushels, an increase of 22,000,000 bushels over 1912, and 43,000,000 bushels over 1911, while Canada's increase in 1913 over 1912 was only 1,177,000 bushels. Great Britain's total importations reached 229,580,865 bushels.

Great Britain imported 14,245,000 bushels of barley from Russia in 1913, 3,240,538 bushels from Roumania, 5,208,700 bushels from Turkey in Asia, 892,067 from Germany and 622,533 bushels from Austria-Hungary, a total of 21,148,833 bushels. Canada supplied 5,977,539 bushels and the United States 10,355,567 bushels. Great Britain's total importations amounted to 52,358,245 bushels.

Great Britain imported 9,178,459 bushels of oats from Russia in 1913, 11,273,459 bushels from Germany, 2,007,765 bushels from Roumania, a total of 22,454,683 bushels. Canada supplied 7,734,588 bushels and the United States 4,723,814. Great Britain's total importations of oats were 59,829,950 bushels.

Deficiencies that must be Made Good
Great Britain imported 185,125,000 bushels of wheat from August 1st, 1913 to July 31st, 1914. Russia exported 163,267,000 bushels and Roumania 45,642,409 bushels in the same period. How much will these two countries export this year?

Great Britain imported from Aug. 1, 1913, to July 31, 1914, 54,207,000 bushels of oats. Russia exported 34,750,000 bushels, Germany 25,077,000 bushels and Roumania 17,196,000. The last three countries in 1915 will hardly export a bushel. How is the deficiency to be made up?

Great Britain from Aug. 1, 1913 to July 31, 1914, imported 46,169,000 bushels of barley, Austria-Hungary 8,064,000 bushels and Roumania 18,941,000 bushels. How much is Canada going to do to make up the large shortage?

Bacon and Hams

In 1913, Great Britain imported 5,440,387 hundredweight of bacon. Canada supplied 272,745 hundredweight. Russia, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands furnished 3,120,570 and the United States 2,019,776 hundredweight.

In 1913, Britain imported 957,595 hundredweight of hams, of which Canada supplied 100,892 hundredweight and the United States 851,895. In 1910 Canada only supplied 42,136 hundredweight.

There is some improvement in hams, but a sad falling off in bacon. Britain took 689,704 hundredweight of the latter commodity from this country in 1911, but as previously stated, only 272,745 hundredweight in 1913, a decrease of 415,959 hundred weight in two years.

DORNOCH

The home of Mr and Mrs James Allan, north of the burg, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday last, when their youngest daughter Ellen was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to the man of her choice, Mr Albert Jangblut, of Hanover. The bride was handsomely dressed in blue trimmed with point lace and carried a bouquet of carnations and maiden hair ferns. She was assisted by Miss Mabel Davidson, of Williamsford, who wore sand crepe and carried a bouquet of daffodils, while Mr James Allan, brother of the bride, supported the groom through the trying ordeal, the R.-V. Mr Tubholdt, of Hanover, officiating. The happy couple left for Hanover and other points. We wish them every success.

Mr John Smith, of Muskoka, is visiting his brother, Dr. J. L. Smith. Dr. and Mrs Smith were called to Arthur one day last week to see his mother, who is very low at the present time.

Mrs T. McKnight has not been as well the past week, but hopes when the fine weather comes she will improve.

Mr and Mrs Ware and two sons left on Wednesday for Toronto, after a month's visit with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs T. McKnight.
Mr Neal Wilson is laid up at the present time with a sore throat.
Mr and Mrs Will Smith spent a couple of days with friends in Elderslie.
