Buy Farm Property Now

It is bound to increase in value. Men in a position to judge say that no farmer living today will ever again see cheap land. This certainly means an early increase in the selling price of farm lands.

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

Dear common flower that grows beside the way, Fringing the dusty road with harmless gold,

And while we gaze across the fields already growing green, let us send up a prayer of thankfulness that this beautiful Canadian land of ours has not known as yet the ravages of schrapnel and shell or soldiers' trench-coats.

The Rev. Mr. Coburn, of Toronto, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here on the Sabbath in behalf of the Dominion Alliance, giving us a splendid soul-stirring address on the evils of the drink traffic and making us feel that the time has come when something should be done to put away this terrible vice from our land and while we listened these words of the writer came to our minds very forcibly;

Vice is a monster of so frightful mien, As to be hated needs but to be seen, But seen too oft we grow familiar with his face,

Mrs. Deas and family, of Markdale, are visiting with her father, Mr. C. C. James.

Mr. and Mrs. Dobson and two children are staying at a while with Mrs. Dobson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McArthur.

The W. H. and F. M. S. met as usual on Wednesday in the basement of the church. Quite a number of ladies were present and splendid papers were given by Mrs. D. Campbell and Mrs. D. G. McLean, also our summer bazaar arranged for.

The next monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will meet at the home of Misses Edith and Bertha James on May 6th.

Outside of Priceville The Past, the Present and the Future

This week for a change we will endeavor to write something on these three headings. The past is gone and numbered with far gone events.

A good old lady was telling us some years ago of the manner of the people in olden times away back in the 30's or 40's, as for instance at a funeral the body would be carried by six strong young men, perhaps 10 or 15 miles to the cemetery.

What the future will be in the next 100 years nobody knows, but if improvements will continue as in the past 100 years, there will be some marvellous invention that cannot be thought about at the present time.

The Rev. Mr. Coburn, of Toronto, preached temperance sermons in the Presbyterian church in Priceville last Sunday morning and a regular sermon at night.

John L. McKinnon, from Queen's University, Kingston, is spending this week at his old home, south of Priceville, before leaving for Saskatoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of McWilliams, attended service at the Presbyterian church, Priceville, last Sunday and gave Mrs. Brown's old home a call on their way home.

The sick people are getting better again and are fit to take their share of the spring work.

that dogs ever engaged in was the result till they broke the lid of the coffin all to splinters and the old woman was exposed to the weather.

This is a true story, for the good old lady's husband was one of the company. We feel inclined not to tell where the above happened, but we are sorry to say it was in the highlands of Scotland.

The Price of Success

Big business is not an accident—it is a result. It is the fruit of purpose, energy, persistency and ADVERTISING.

You know the story of Rip Van Winkle—the man who went to sleep for 20 years and who, when he awoke, expected to find the world the same as it was when he entered slumberland.

There are men today very much like Rip Van Winkle—their point of view and their practices are those of a generation past. They do not believe in advertising. To succeed in these modern days one must be in accord with the spirit of to-day. For a merchant this means that he must advertise, if he would prosper.

A WORD TO THE PUBLIC

Where are you served best and most pleasingly? The answer is almost sure to be—'Where we are invited and made welcome. At those shops which prize our custom enough to seek it, and who ask for it every week through the medium of advertisements in the Review.

Shop where you are invited to shop.
