To the Panama Pacific Exposition via the Canadian Rockies

At the present time a great many are beginning their annual tour. Considerable numbers visit the popular California Resorts, while many prefer the unsurpassed Resorts, Palatial Hotels and magnificent scenery of the Canadian Rockies. This year why not combine the two by a visit to the Panama Pacific Exposition?

Numerous people in comfortable circumstances, well able to afford a trip have the mistaken idea that a journey of this nature is most expensive. Not so; thanks to modern railway facilities, an extensive trip, both interesting and educational, can be made with speed and comfort at a comparatively small cost.

Those contemplating a trip of any nature will receive full information from any C. P. R. Agent, or write Mr. G. Murphy, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

The Late John Leith.

Saturday last, 15th May, at his home, con. 20, Egremont, the above gentleman passed the bourne at the patriarchal age of 86 years 6 mos. He was ill for only a few days and in his long life had very little sickness. His wife predeceased him about 13 years. His death removes one of the band of pioneers now almost gone who in the 50's of last century entered "the bush" and wrestled from nature the wherewithal to make a home.

Deceased was a native of Duleton, Haddingtonshire, Scotland, one of the prettiest villages in the kingdom. He met and married Jean Nisbet and shortly afterwards the young couple faced westwards and after the usual experience of the trials of those days, found their way to Egremont and bought the farm whereon both died. By industry and perseverance the forest gave way to smiling fields and they made a comfortable competence. His partner was a true helpmate. The family was a family of six sons and two daughters grew up around them and all but two remain to claim their blood. These two were Alex., who died 42 years ago, and Maggie (Mrs Knox) the eldest daughter who died two years before her mother. The family now consists of Geo. P., merchant of Holstein David in Normanby, Peter near St. Marys, John, a doctor in Tribune, Sask. and Wm. on the homestead; Jane, Mrs. Thos Knox near Guelph. All were at the funeral but John.

The remains were interred in Swanton Park cemetery on Monday last, Rev. Mr. Matheson, Pricewille, conducting appropriate services. The attendance was large and sympathetic pall bearers were his four sons, his grandson and namesake John (son of David), and Mr Koenig, David's son in law. To the writer Mr Leith's death is a break with the past. He and his wife (next to relatives) were the first to welcome us almost 48 years ago, and it was always a pleasure to meet with him and discuss affairs, persons and places of our common country of East Lothian. "One by one."

Fatal Accident near Holstein.

Jno. Ed. Wells Instantly Killed by circular saw on Wednesday.

A number of long poles of wood were standing built in wigwam fashion and were being removed one by one to be cut.
