TOWN TOPICS

Mr Peter Reid has about completed the sale of his house and lot to Mr John Stewart, the price being $875.

Fresh Fish, Fresh Fish—Always on hand. At the freezer, south end of the town.

Miles Wilson

In a postcard we received from Cecil Wolfe, Lieut. A. V. C., from Alexandria, Egypt, he says "Don't know how long I will be here. Lots of heat and sand here and very little water."

Is this May? Cold chilly weather with sharp night frosts is delaying vegetation and not tending to improve the fruit prospects. Has been a splendid spring for the farmers getting 'through work.

DENTAL STUDENTS SUCCESSFUL—The results of Dental College exams appeared Saturday and in the list are P. Harold Aljoe and Thos. Holt (a former Durham boy) who have now completed their third year and Fred Laidlaw who has successfully made the first year. Congratulations.

Dr Burt, 130 W 10th St., Owen Sound Specialist in Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, will be at the Grand Central Hotel, Dundalk, for consultation, Wednesday, June 2nd. Eyes, tested and glasses supplied. Appointments for Durham patients made to suit C. P. R. trains.

The annual telephone picnic will be held in Robt. Brigham's grove, Allan Park, on Thursday, June 3rd, the King's birthday. Allan Park and South line will play football and a baseball match may also be staged. Everyone welcome. Ladies kindly bring refreshments.

KEEP THE FLAG FLYING—Mr. Colin McDougall, caretaker of the Armouries, has instructions to keep the flag flying as long as the war lasts. "When worn out another will be furnished." Our town has not gone in for much flag flying, though its patriotism is marked, but a little more color would not be amiss.

MOVING TO TORONTO—Conductor P. J. Scanlon of the C. P. R. passenger train here is leaving with his family at the end of this month for Toronto, where he has secured a passenger run between that city and North Bay. He is a courteous and capable official his removal from the Durham branch is regretted.

Beginning on Monday next, say 21, a new time table goes into effect on the C. P. R., though only slight changes are made on this line. The morning train east leaves Durham 7 min. earlier, at 7:00 instead of 7:17 and afternoon train at 3:55 p. m., 3 min. earlier. The noon train westbound arrives 2 min. later, at 12:08 p. m., and night train as usual 8:59 p. m.

A SANE 24TH—Mayor Hunter and Constable Arrowsmith, anxious to prevent the excesses in the use of fireworks that marred the 1914 celebration, had bills issued of a cautionary nature. The result was a very satisfactory and on Saturday and Monday our streets and public places were as orderly as one could wish. The small boys and his bigger brother in backyard and out-of-the-way places, enjoyed themselves of course with crackers, thunderbolts and rockets.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr and Mrs John Marshall over the sudden death of their 13 month old baby boy which died on 18th inst., after about half a day's illness from convulsions. The little form, angelic in its beauty, was interred in Durham cemetery on Friday. Rev. Mr Whaley conducting an impressive service amid many mourners and sympathizers. Mr and Mrs Marshall desire to thank many friends and neighbors for help and sympathy in their sorrow.

MORNING G. T. R. TRAIN NOW—A change in time-table on the Grand Trunk Railway goes into effect on Sunday next, May 30. The morning train leaves here at 7:05 instead of 7:15 10 min. earlier, while the incoming mixed due at 12 noon, is to be a passenger and mail only, arriving 40 min. sooner—at 11:20, which will be a decided advantage. The afternoon train in will henceforth be the mixed, arriving at 2:30 p. m. The afternoon cut-bound will still leave at 3:45 and the night train arrive at 8:58.

ATTACHED TO THE CONSTABLE—Our ever vigilant constable had the unpleasant duty on Tuesday evening to run a stranger, Wm. Higgins, one of the 'Hydro gang, into the town lock-up. He had been imbibing too freely of something stronger than local open beer, and was advised to go to his room but instead used abusive language to the constable. The latter promptly seized him and placed him under arrest, and on showing resistance floored the offender where he continued to struggle. Mr Arrowsmith promptly swore in special constables, who assisted in taking him to the lock-up. This brazen violation of law will we hope lead to the strengthening of the constable's hands, and he should receive every encouragement possible from the authorities and citizens generally. Later—at a Police Magistrate's court held next day, only the one charge of infringement of the local option by-law was pressed, and the minimum fine of $20 and costs imposed, $28 in all.

The Zion Branch of the Women's Institute will hold a Patriotic concert in the Township Hall, Glencol, on Friday, May 28th, commencing at 8 o'clock. A program consisting of songs, recitations and a play will be given. Also the autograph quilt will be sold. Admission 10 cents.

The Midsaugh House front has been improved by the installation of a large plate glass window to the south of the main entrance, and with the removal of a partition between the rooms, a fine commodious sitting and waiting room for travellers and guests has been formed with abundance of light.

CAPT. MUGROVE WOUNDED—A wire from Capt. Mugrove received by his wife in Hanover Sunday, stated that he had been wounded. It read as follows: "Nasty wound but not dangerous." A Hanover man, Pte. Herman Monto, recently reported wounded, has since died from his wounds, according to a message received in Hanover Monday.

CHESLEY HAD BIG DAY—Big crowds were present at Chesley's annual day of sports Monday, the day's entire proceeds going to the B-L-ist Relief Fund. Several from Durham accompanied the Lake to undergo a broader training than is possible in Owen Sound. From there they will go to the front.

That Pointing Hand

During the week there has been a slackening of the number responding to the statements we sent out asking for a settlement of arrears of subscription. We regret that not quite 50 per cent of those reminded by letter have remitted or even made mention of it.

This cannot go on. We have no wish that the other half should incur costs, but as we announced this will surely be the result if placed in the hands of the Adjusting Association.

We look for action this coming week from all who received our letters. If not convenient to pay now talk it over with us.

Hospital Gifts Still Coming

Over $2000.00

We asked last week when announcing 32 coats at $20 each provided for, to "make it 40." We are glad to say that this number is assured and the interest is by no means wanting. This means that over $2000 from Durham and neighborhood will be sent to provide comfort and comforts to Canadian soldiers wounded in the great struggle for justice, liberty and righteousness.

We announce again that Mr S. Hughes of the Royal Bank is Treasurer. Don't wait to be asked. "He gives twice who gives kindly." The need is great. It is Canada's war as well as Britain's, and our giving all tends to make surer that the Union Jack shall continue to fly over our fair Dominion. All of us feel like Mr Daniel Knechtel that "the flag of Germany flying over Canadian soil would be a catastrophe affecting the freedom and privileges of every citizen of the Dominion."

The receipts this week are as below: Mrs Beggs and son and daughter Guy and Annie Kearney, $80 00

Mr and Mrs Thos. McGirr, Sr., and family, $50 00

Edge Hill Gifts totalling $180.00 or three coats are as follows: Harry Williams $10 Jno. G. Firth $10 Dan Edge, $10 Herb. Edge, $10 Mrs Robt. Edge 5 Arthur Edge, $5 John Moffat, $10 Jos. An Evening of Pleasure and a Help to our Soldiers

Hanover! Holstein! Neustadt!

Shall we Re-name Them?

A proposition, emanating in some brain not overly well balanced, has been made to change the German names of some Ontario cities, towns and villages, because of the barbarism shown by the Kaiser and military mad Germany. That the proposition has fallen flat speaks to the good sense of Ontario. Certain it is the names of old world places reproduced here carries with them the old associations nor is a German name in Ontario more likely to produce disloyalty than would be London, Dublin or Edinburgh. Come to think of it some English speaking people objected strongly when ex-Postmaster General Pelletier tried to change the name of Blind River to a French one. Why! Egrement, council and citizens, would dare you to meddle with 'Holstein' even though Germans are few and far between? To how many does 'Durham' suggest the Durham of England, or 'Dromore' the Irish village?
