"I always look forward for the Review every week says Mrs. Jos. A. McNeil of Walpole, Sask., in renewing her sub.

No show in Gushp this year. So the Directors have decided, thinking the people have enough calls on their liberality these strenuous times.

A meeting of the Liberals of Durham will be held in Calder's Hall on Friday evening, June 4. All adherents of liberal principles are requested to attend.

The following are the purchasers of Ford cars since last issue from C. Smith and Sons: Rev. T. W. Mills, Dornoch; Wm. McGowan, Durham; Wm. Hazlett, Allan Park; Rev. J. A. Matheson, Priceville; R. J. Wilson, Boothville.

June, the month of weddings is at hand. If you are a prospective bride, or interested in such an event, see the REVIEW regarding your invitations or announcements. We carry the latest in Wedding Stationery and print same in your choice of the newest type faces.

For practice purposes, an exhibition lacrosse game was pulled off last Thursday night between the regular line-up exclusive of two or three absentees, and a picked team of other players and the latter captured the game 11 to 7. The regulars' blood was roused and they challenged the second team to another game on Monday night, when they turned the tables, winning by 5 to 2.

Under the auspices of the Varney Grange, an up-to-date picnic will be held in Mr. Wm. Carson's bush on Friday, June 18th. Mr. J. J. Morrison, secretary of the Farmers' Co-Operative Co. of Toronto, is expected to be present to give an address, which will likely be along Co-Operative lines. A live committee are making full preparations for a jolly good time. Admission free. Kindly bring baskets. Everybody welcome.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Annual Sunday School Convention for the Association district composed of Glenelg and Durham will be held this year in Burns Church, Rocky Saugeen on Wednesday, 24th June. R. T. Edwards is President, Thos. Allan, Secy. There will be sessions afternoon and evening and an interesting program, the outside expert being Rev. Aquila Lucas, International Secretary for the West Indies and Central America. Sessions open at 2 and at 7.30 p. m.

ROYAL WELSH LADIES' CHOR.—This band of eight young ladies with their conductress, Madam Hughes Thomas, appeared here Tuesday night and while all were pleased with the numbers it was felt they were trading on the good impression left while here a few years ago. The soprano artists had voices of great range and power but quite too much of the same timbre and quality to make a varied program. The deep contralto tones of one of the party were used with excellent effect in the part songs and this same lady's rendition of the prison scene, "Le Miserere" from Il Trovatore, Verdi's famous opera, was well rendered behind the scenes. Their choruses showed close training and the quick staccato time was much admired, also the humming chorus of "Killarney" with obligato. The Presbyterian church where the concert was held was well filled and the Ladies' Aid netted $70 as a result, half of which goes to the Welsh choir.

CHORAL APPRECIATED IN HANOVER.—From the Hanover Post: "The Hanover Boy Scout Association is to be congratulated on its good fortune in securing for the evening of Empire Day, the Durham Choral Society in the rendition of "The Nautical Knot." From heroine to chorus girls, the entire company showed careful training and no mean ability. Mrs. Lauder (Julia) and Miss Zeta Black (Nance) in widely contrasting solos, with their lucky "lovers" Messrs J. L. Stedman (Barnabas Lee) and Mr. J. H. Harding (Joe Stout) deserve perhaps special mention, and yet one cannot pass the catching acting and singing of the Burnside girls, Misses M. Hunter, V. Caldwell and L. Walker, whose soft sea swains looked well in white and blue. The artists' efforts to show off their wares were as laughable as they were unsuccessful. To Mr. J. A. Cook, whose stiff leg and nimble tongue kept the audience in roars of laughter and who so ably performed the exacting duties of stage manager and conductor, and to Miss Rita Irwin, who uniformly pleasing and sympathetic playing gave the important finishing touches to a successful concert, are due special congratulations. The encore accorded the junior artists for their splendid horripops was indeed well deserved. Their intense earnestness was only equaled by the finished quality of their performance. All through the operetta, strong and snappy choruses lent an added effect to this really creditable morocash."

The Girl Guides in uniform attended the Methodist Church in a body last Sunday morning, when a special service was held by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Prudham. 46 of the 63 members were present.

GOOD SALES.—Messrs Andrew and Wm. Derby disposed of ten fat cattle on Tuesday, the latter realizing $203 for two steers, while the first named had eight averaging about 1195 each, which at 8 cts a lb. runs into some money. Mr. Jas. Wilson is the buyer and he is certainly turning over some money for the farmers this season.

SHARED WALKERTON HOSPITALITY.—The Choral Society received a most cordial reception in Walkerton last Friday evening, both in the presentation of their operetta "A Nautical Knot" and in the hearty welcome accorded by the Daughters of the Empire, under whose auspices the concert was given. The members were met by several of the ladies on arrival at the town hall and sat at one extended table in the large dining room of the hall, where the I. O. D. E. served a splendid supper. After the entertainment all were again entertained to a dainty lunch followed by a dance in the main hall, which was enjoyed by the young people of the town and other visitors, as well as the Durham company. The members much appreciated their visit, affording as it does opportunity of fraternizing with the young people of sister towns. The proceeds of the concert were over $80, of which the I. O. D. E. will have over $40 clear to devote to Red Cross purposes.

ZION CONCERT.—A grand success throughout was the Zion Women's Institute concert held last Friday night in the T. P. Hall for patriotic purposes. Mr. Jno. Neil made an able chairman, and Messrs George Binnie and R. T. Edwards delivered addresses. The ladies of the institute rendered an Institute song, "The Maple Leaf" was sung by the audience in opening and splendid recitations were given by Misses Bessie Smith, W. Greenwood, Miss Annie Robertson of Molesworth and Mr. McArthur of Priceville. Thos. H. Binnie favored with a couple of his popular songs, while the feature of the program outside of the sale of the quilt, was a humorous play "Ma's new boarders" given by Misses Bna McNally, Mary Pearl, Jennie Cook and Mina Edwards, Messrs Stewart McNally, Thos. Cook, Wm. Wallace and Emerson Pratt, which was cleverly presented and aroused much merriment. The autograph quilt, with over 350 names, was bought by Mr. R. T. Edwards for $6, and the total proceeds amounted to $61. The members of the institute wish to thank all, and especially the outside talent, who took part in making the concert so successful.

Rev. Dr. Farquharson sends us the following letter, dated 6th May, written from hospital in Rouen, France. Many friends here will rejoice with the home at Agincourt that Jim is again "fit," and hope he may long be able to say "Why should I worry?"

Dear Home:
Was not in the battle at Ypres, as I was sent to hospital the night before, with bronchitis. Am now at Rouen where the doctors have pronounced me fit, as I start back to battle to-morrow. First of all I have to go to the Canadian base to be fitted out with new kit and it may be several weeks before I reach the battery. I have no doubt bronchitis saved my life, as the chances were rather against coming out of that death trap alive. The papers have rather underestimated our casualties. I think, but it will be months before the public will see the true lists, at the rate they are publishing them.

Bill Baker, my best chum, is killed after being made a corporal for bravery. In fact our regiment was almost completely smashed. It did its work and kept the Germans back till reinforcements came up. The battalion was almost completely surrounded, owing to the hurried retreat of the Algerian troops. They went back at the double, leaving our left totally unprotected. People in Canada can laugh at the first contingent just as much as they please, but it can fight as well as any troops living. Our officers showed lots of pluck and a fair man was awarded. The brigade chaplain, Canon Scott, charged with the 14th and stopped only when some wounded claimed his attention. The hospital at Ypres where I first went, was shelled out and we were sent further back. At that time Ypres was a shambles and they say I saw lots of men suffering from gas. It is a new disease, but you can scarcely imagine a more horrible one. It looks like a case of slow drowning and quite a number of chaplains died from its effects. Why the British won't allow the use of turpentine I don't know, as the Germans have violated every human law.

Well I go to our base to-morrow and will probably get back in time to get into another battle. So long as I am not made a prisoner and bayoneted as some fellows are, why should I worry?

On Goes the New High School.

H. McDonald and Ed. Kress are the Contractors.

After many delays, chiefly owing to the methods of Education Department to whom plans have been submitted three times, authorization came on Saturday last and on Monday the Board met and opened tenders. Three of the tenders were very close but the lowest came from our townsmen and the matter was at once settled. The Board in a body visited the grounds, roughly outlined the site of the building and Mr. Telford will make exact measurements to-day and excavation may begin forthwith.

The school will be an imposing structure, even though certain modifications from the original plan—which proved too expensive—have been made. Its construction is in the hands of men who will take a pride in giving the town a first-class job, and when the building is up and grounds laid out citizens will have something to be proud of.

To Rouse Public Opinion

Mr. Chas. N. Cochran, Professor of Greek and Ancient History in Toronto University was in town Tuesday as an advance agent of the Provincial Patriotic League. His purpose was to get an organization here affiliated with the larger organization and to take charge for one thing of a meeting in the near future to be addressed by one or more prominent publicists.

He has a large list of 50 or 60 names to select from amongst them being Canon Cody, Hon Wm Mulock, J. L. Hughes and other prominent men. The purpose underlying the efforts of the Patriotic League is to educate and to rouse public opinion to the gravity of the war situation in the Empire.

Mr. Arthur Jackson is provisional Secy, and due announcement of meetings will be made. The League asks only that the transportation and entertainment expense of the lecturers be met locally.

Obituary.
JOHN FALLAISSE

Away back in the far gone year of 1825, John Fallaisse was born in Jersey, one of the Channel Islands, near the coast of France and thus at his death in King township last Thursday, 27th May, he had attained the patriarchal age of over 90 years. He was ill for nearly three weeks from an inward growth and his removal cut another name from the lessening list of those who did pioneer work in this country.

He married in 1846 Elizabeth Fewens and shortly after came to Canaan, living in Hamilton for some years. 55 years ago he came to the 4th con. of Glenelg, settling near the present Township Hall site. He was a bricklayer and mason and he it was who built the present English church, the MacFarlane block, the old Post Office and other town buildings. Twelve years ago, shortly after his wife died, he moved to King Township to be near his daughters and at one of their homes he died.

To this couple were born four daughters and two sons one of whom, Mrs. Wellington Banks died in 1881. The others are Mrs. J. S. Boakes and Mrs. Robt Boakes in King Tp. Mrs. Redferne, Muskoka. Their two sons are well known. Wm in Glenelg and John in Durham. Deceased was an adherent of the Anglican communion and was Conservative in politics. His remains were brought to his son John's place and from there interment took place on Saturday to Zion cemetery where his wife lies.

AN ARZO RUNAWAY.

While returning from Ayton one day last week Mr Clarence Golder, John Brown and Dobson, of Halstein, had an experience they would not wish repeated.

They passed a party on the road who were looking over their car, and Clarence stopped and got out to offer help if necessary. Brown and Dobson, left alone, thought they would try a little run themselves and managed to start it, but found no doubt to their horror, they could not stop it. On it went, in the excitement very likely the wrong levers were used and it flew on, Clarence and the other parties gave chase to the runaway, but failed to overtake them. A sharp turn in the road was ahead, but the machine went straight ahead, struck the fence and turned turtle, hind and foremost, wheels in the air and still going. Brown got off safely, Dobson was caught under the car but was soon released, not much the worse. Damage of about $40.00 was done to the car, and the incident should be a warning for all novices to keep "hands off."

Saunders—Clark

At the residence of the bride's parents Mr and Mrs. Zenas Clark, a quiet wedding was solemnized at 6.45 a. m., Wednesday, June 2nd, when the only daughter, Eva Florence, became the bride of Mr. Albert James Saunders, third son of Mrs. T. Saunders of this town. The young couple were unattended, Rev. W. W. Wylie, her pastor, tying the nuptial knot, while Miss Evelyn Coulters rendered Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus." Only the groom's mother and the bride's parents were present. The bride's suit was of fawn faced goods with large white hat with tulle trim.

Amid a shower of confetti and good wishes from a number of friends who had gathered, the happy couple left by the morning G. T. R. for a honeymoon in Toronto and Buffalo for a few days after which they will reside here. With their many personal friends the Review joins in wishing this popular young town couple much joy and happiness throughout their wedded life.

More Hospital Cot Contributions

We must congratulate S. S. No. 9, Glenelg, for the very liberal response they have made to the appeal from the Red Cross Society for Hospital Cots. This section has now contributed the magnificent total of two hundred and thirty-five dollars and fifty cents, besides sending one of their gallant sons to the front, which is a gift that cannot be measured in dollars and cents.

The South Line, Bentinck, the Edge Hill section and S. S. No. 9, Glenelg, are the only country sections that have as yet made a systematic campaign to do their cotting. By their efforts have met with a very hearty response in all cases. We understand a canvass is at present being made around the country by the Red Cross Society, you are helping Britain to defeat her enemies and bring the war to a speedy conclusion.

Mr. S. Hughes, Manager of the Royal Bank, is treasurer of the local branch and contributions may be given to him or forwarded to him by mail at any time.

Twice as Many Street Lights

Town Council met on Monday night as a Court of Revision and as a special meeting of Council as well. The former body sustained the appeal of Mr. S. Hughes in regard to assessment on income.

The Council took up the question of Hydro street lights and adopted a scheme submitted by the Company with some variations as to the sites for street lamps. There are to be about 60 lights on the streets about double the number at present in use. This surely is a generous supply and should prove satisfactory.

A Metropolitan Daily and your favorite local paper at a special Clubbing Rate

Since the opening of the great European war last August, the cable service of the Globe, Toronto, has attracted attention from one end of Canada to the other owing to its completeness and reliability. Every day the cable news is condensed and interpreted on the front page under the title of "The War Summary." This feature makes plain and intelligible what would otherwise be confusing to the reader. The Globe maintains its position as "Canada's National Newspaper," as is proven by the fact that its circulation of 87,000 is much larger than that of any other morning paper in the Dominion.

Elsewhere in this issue appears an advertisement of the Globe, offering the paper sent to any address in Canada for $3 per year. A special clubbing offer of the Globe, Daily and the Durham Review one year for $3.90 is now made thus ensuring the best metropolitan daily and the best local paper at a cut rate.
