"The Glittering Lure" is the title given by Bonnycastle Dale to a story of before-the-season fishing in the opening pages of June Rod and Gun which is published at Woodstock, Ont., by W. J. Taylor, Limited. "Honest Weight" is an amusing tale of two rival fishermen as related by one of the French Canadian guides who accompanied them on their outing after "de beeg wan." "Three Swedes there were" is also a humorous story relating the experiences of a "vulgar, rambling trio," showing how everything turns to ashes to those without

'The Customer is Always Right'

THIS is the text or motto of a great and famous department store in Chicago. It is an assertion of the customer's place of supremacy in the relation between buyer and seller.

Any retailer who slights his customer is committing business suicide. The customer wants those who serve him or her to use the newspaper as a vehicle for their announcements of goods or service. This is the modern and right idea. Newspaper advertisements give desired business news in the right place and at the right time. To ignore your customer's wishes in this matter is to commit a costly mistake—far more costly than newspaper space.

To the Merchants of Durham

Keep your eyes on your customers and humor them. It pays to do so. Keep very close to them—by means of advertisements in the Durham REVIEW, reaching 1750 homes weekly.

FOLLOW LEADERS

Advertisement rates in this paper are the lowest in the province. Write for particulars to the Editor, Durham Review, 1750 Yonge Street, Toronto.
