

May Be Had Through
Red Blood Dr. W.
Pink Pills Actually

A girl's complexion is more than a matter to vanity. It is an indication of her health. A growing girl means a taste for the blood. Parents are wretched of their daughters and should see these danger signs are when a girl in her teens pale and sallow, if she has inclination to tire easily, and inattentive to her studies, she needs Dr. Pink Pills, a tonic which cures off poisons.

What a Million Mothers Avoid

More than a million mothers have intuitively known the dangers of poison. Many of them have been told that such preparations contain arsenic in deadly quantities. They are given to the world to little children that accompanies these off poisons. But for those who have no knowledge of these dangers, we quote from a recent issue of the Children's Journal, which comment upon thirty-five cases of children being poisoned last year.

The danger to children is great, and the danger to adults is by no means inconsiderable."

In the December issue of the Michigan State Medical Journal, calling attention to the statistics of cases and goes on to state:

"Arsenical fly poisons are as dangerous as the phosphorus match. There are as efficient and more sanitary ways of controlling flies than fly poisons. If used at all, should not be used in homes where there are children, or where children visit."

Delin. Arsenault, U.P.L., is one of the three anemic girls restored to the use of Dr. Williams. She says: "I was attacked with anemia, and was in a sad condition that I had to see a doctor, and was under treatment for several months, but getting better. I was thinner every day, had to lie around my eyes. I could sleep at night, but got up in the morning with black anticipation of miseries before me. I was bothered with headaches in the back and limbs. I was poor and I vomited what I did eat. I feared that I would not recover. I often seen Dr. Williams advertised, and decided to try him. I gathered nine boxes, and am as well as ever I was."

Life. All the pains and appeared; my appetite could sleep soundly at night. The color returned to my face. I also gained seventeen weight. I am now always for this happy condition thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these Pills dealer in medicine or by 50 cents a box or six $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Co., Brockville, Ont.

Slow Fathers.

"Mamma, I'm afraid papa was pretty slow when he was a young man."

"Perhaps he was. He always paid his debts and used good English and knew nothing about cigarettes and never saw a taxicab and hadn't any clubs, and was able to support a wife before he married. I guess he was pretty slow."
