HYMENEAL

PLUME-BURROWS. A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mr George Walmsley, Egremont, when his niece, Miss Jessie Burrows, became the bride of Mr Geo. Plume, of Holstein. The ceremony which took place at the hour of 5.30 o'clock, was conducted by Rev. T. H. Abbott, of Holstein.

The bridal party was unattended and during the reading of the solemn rites, the wedding march was sweetly played by Miss Della Reid. The bride was becomingly gowned in a dress of Copenhagen blue silk.

The wedding guests numbered about 75 and about 6.30 o'clock all partook of a well served supper. Four tables in all were served, while the presence of a 4-story wedding cake enhanced the bountiness of the repast by no small degree. After the wedding supper, the guests enjoyed themselves in many social ways and the evening passed pleasantly away.

The wedding gifts were numerous and costly and the bride was the recipient from the groom of a beautiful gold watch and locket.

Guests from a distance were Mr Percy Plume, Toronto; Miss Davis, Egremont; Mrs Ballantyne, Mr and Mrs Wallace and Miss White, Stratford; Mr and Mrs Cunningham, from Guelph; Mr and Mrs Benjamin Dally and two children and Mr Bert Calise from Stratford.

Mr and Mrs Plume are making their home with Mr T. R. Tribe in the village and much joy is being meted out to them by their many friends here.

Messrs Wilkin Bros., proprietors of the Chesley Woolen Mills, have received an order from the Canadian government for 1800 blankets. The blankets are to be completed by Oct. 1. This firm also has an order in hand for 48,000 pairs of socks and is turning out 400 pairs per day.

Lost—On Friday, Aug. 6, in Glenora, between Malino, Sharp's and W. Range's side road, Egremont, a Glenora townie, a lady's satchel, black, containing a small purse with money and railway ticket to Toronto, a baby's pinature and small drink cup. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning same to REVUEW OFFICE.

Another Victim—A citizen of nearby municipality was fined $5 last week for being drunk in a location townie. An expensive lesson but a salutary one and a warning to others. Constable Arrow-smith has been in his mind's eye and that is glad town and if council, courts at community bank him up we'll all be acquitted.

The water was let on the Egremont pipe-line last week and everything was found to be satisfactory. The wood pipe line at first threw sprays of water twenty feet high from the cracks. These soon swelled out and now everything is as tight as a drum. The pipe house is approaching completion and it is expected that next month will see the lights turned on.—Egremont Advance.
