Press Men Meet in Toronto

Entertained by Exhibition Directors—Subscription Price may be Increased.

The holding of the Annual Meeting of the Canadian Press Association in Toronto last week during Exhibition season was a timely idea, bringing together the largest gathering of the members of the Fourth Estate in the history of the Association. Editors were there from Nova Scotia to Vancouver Island, to attend the sessions held on the 19th floor of the new Royal Bank skyscraper, a pleasing feature being the large attendance of Western editors. From this district there were present Messrs Wright and Lambert of Mt Forest Confed and Rep. O. M. Seim, Holstein; J. R. MacLure, Dundalk Herald; G. H. Mitchell, Hanover Post; G. E. Hudson, now of Beamsville Express; and W. Irwin and P. Ramage of Durham.

In general the proceedings would be of little interest to our readers. One of the most serious questions up for consideration was the increasing of the subscription price of weekly newspapers to $1.50 per year. Since newspapers were established in this country prices had remained constant at $1.00 while the cost of paper and of almost every paper has been greatly improved and every requirement of the publisher,—machinery, type, paper, inks, food and clothing has soared, in many cases doubled or tripled in price over that of a score of years ago. With this general increase in the cost of production and living, combined with decreased revenues from advertising and other sources during war time, the publishing industry has been hard hit, and though no definite action has yet been taken it is felt that the $1.50 per annum rate must come in the near future.

The publishers were favored with an address by Major Chambers of Ottawa, chief censor for Canada, who lauded the press for the assistance and patriotism displayed during the present war crisis and who issued a note of caution as to what should or should not be revealed. The principal speaker was Dr. Talcott Williams, Professor of Journalism at Columbia University, New York, who addressed the regular session and excelled himself in his dinner address at the luncheon tendered the press men at the Exhibition grounds on Saturday, Press day. Dr. Williams has a splendid command of rhetoric, is a man of vision and a strong supporter of and believer in the justice of the Allied cause. One of his remarks was, "At this hour when the scales of battle quiver and the great struggle rocks the world, it is impossible to see clearly and to judge with history's unprejudiced eye, but forty or fifty years hence the German nation will look upon the issue of this war as best for them as well as for the world."

Not only were the journalists treated to an excellent luncheon by the Exhibition Directors when ex-Mayor Oliver, President Canadian National Exhibition presided, but they and ladies also were given a supper in Naismith's restaurant under the Grand Stand and also reserved tickets to the Grand Stand performance in the evening. The exhibition authorities realize the value and assistance of the Press in the success of their National Fair and are generous in showing their appreciation thereof.
