J. J. PATTISON, Manager

use two better. Rev. Mr. Bowes commended the people on their recognition of work well done. Mr. N. McKinnon said some very complimentary things about Mr. Miller as teacher of the day school as well as S. S. Mrs. Matheson then extended a warm welcome to Mrs. Miller in behalf of the ladies and hoped that their stay among us might be a happy one. Mrs. McKinnon spoke of her faith in the work of the S. S. in the training of the young and paid high tribute to Mr. Miller's exemplary walk and conversation in his every day life among us. Mrs. Sackett complimented the people on the unity of the two congregations in the S. S. work, saying that while the S. S. was carried on in the Pres. church and under the jurisdiction of the Pres. church that in spirit it was union and that members of both churches worked in perfect harmony and that although not depreciating the high calling of ministers, recognized the privilege as well as the responsibility of the S. S. teacher.

Miss Walker sang two beautiful solos, then the young people played games while the older ones prepared lunch and the gathering dispersed with the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds." Mrs. Little and Miss Elie are spending the holiday with Miss Little, daughter and sister of same.

Mrs. Sackett and Miss Edna are taking in the exhibition this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and family have returned to their home in the city after quite an extended stay with us. Welcome back next year.

Mr. W. Sackett and Mr. P. F. McArthur are busy erecting a stable for Mr. S. Wright.

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

The harvest is progressing slowly, as it is hard to do on account of the grain flattened down in many places, lots to do yet, more than will be done this week. There will be lots of threshing this fall. Away back some 30 or more years ago when threshing was done all by horse power, a good-natured Scotchman's turn came to have the threshing late in the fall. The grain was good and turning out well, Scott was attending boxes alone, those on the straw stack began to complain that some grain was going out amongst the straw and as all at the threshing were highlanders, some one yelled to Hee, in gae that the grain was going out amongst the straw—Ma the bibeadh a tha geur a tighan an so Oheh or if it is, let it, there is enough of it coming here anyway. The one box would be overflowing before he would empty another. So it is this year—the binders will leave a lot that cannot be cut and as we were asking a good farmer if he would cut what was left with the scythe, he said "No, I have plenty this year without gathering what's left." We had heavy frosts two nights last week and this Monday night, the 30th Aug., 1915, feels like as if we would have another taste of frost before morning. Corn and tender stuff are pretty well scorched by last week's frost.

The Rev. Mr. Matheson and family are back again from their summer vacation up Muskoka lakes. They enjoyed the vacation well and we are glad to see them back again. Hector and Donald McKinnon, who are training at Valcartier with the soldiers, spent from Saturday night till Tuesday evening at the old home with father and mother and the rest of the family. It was a source of comfort to father and mother to have all their family with them sitting in one pew last Sunday in church. There is many a slip between the cup and the lip. Who knows, but the Author of all Good, if they will be all privileged to sit again, but the prayers and well wishes of all those two young men's friends is that they may be protected from danger seen and unseen and that they may be privileged to return to the old home again in future.

Gaelic will be preached next Sunday morning by Pastor Matheson in the Presbyterian church, Priceville. Let all lovers of the old language show that they appreciate listening to their old mother language when they were "wee."

The Gaelic seididh far an nial leatha cha neal fiosa agan eho as thanig i no cait am bheil i dol, san mar sin a tha gaelic, ged thos agan eho as a thanig i cha neal fiosa agan eho an deachaidh i oir thig i fadna a bhas, or, the wind bloweth where it listeth and we do not know from whence it came or whither it is going; so it is with the old Gaelic language: although we know where it sprang from we do not know where it went for it's dying fast.

Donald McKinnon (Hugh's) and Thos McDougall from the South line left on the harvest excursion a week ago for the West and Duncan Sinclair from the North line left same time.

Miss Jean Walker of Toronto is visiting her aunts here and at Ceylon for some time. Mrs. McKinnon, Priceville and Mrs. Muir, Ceylon.

Mr and Mrs Walker and family, of Toronto, who spent some two months holidaying in Priceville, are leaving this week. Mrs. Walker made many friends during her stay here. Mr. Walker spent only one week here and became quite well acquainted.

Mrs. (nee Jamima Stothart) is spending a while at the old home west of town with her brother and sister, John and Miss Minnie Stothart.

We welcome Mr and Mrs Angus Kennedy back again from Toronto, where they spent the last few years.

We are pleased to hear that Alex. McMillan, south line, who has been suffering with internal trouble for some time is improving and all wish him speedy recovery.

John Stothart shipped a car load of mixed stock to Toronto on Monday forenoon.

Arch McLellan sold two Massey-Harris binders in this vicinity lately, one to Wm McLeod Jr, and one to Donald and Norman McDougall, all of the South line, Glenelg.

Miss Lizzie McCraig accepted a school at Kemble in Keppel township, 10 miles west of Owen Sound.

HOPEVILLE

Beautiful harvest weather is ours at last. Cutting is nearly done and reports excellent, but showers are a gain threatening.

Mr John Mills had a narrow escape of his life a week ago Wednesday.

While driving on the 10th concession, the horse got scared, but how, or why or at what, will never be known. When first seen it was running and John caught between the shaft and the wheels. Fortunately the horse stopped in about a mile and John was able to free himself. Aid was soon at hand and Mr Hookridge was phoned for to help to convey the sufferer to his home. Dr Martin was at once summoned and found no bones broken but the patient badly bruised.

Miss Edith Glenister went to the city on Friday.

Messrs Albert Haw and William McDonald were at the exhibition last week.

Mrs E. Hookridge was in the city last week for millinery and fall supplies.

Mr Alfred Dell, returned Missionary from Argentina, S. America, is visiting at his parental home. A welcome is extended.

Mrs Cavanagh, Sorby, Algoma, returned home this week from visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr and Mrs G. H. Gilkes and Mr and Mrs E. E. Hookridge motored over to Mr J. Troop's, Holstein, on Sunday.

The Bible Society Meeting will be held Wednesday, 15th September, at 8 p. m., in Bethany Chapel. Mr Cosins will address the meeting. Every body welcome.

Epiphany Harvest services will be held on Sunday, 3rd October, with fowl supper on Monday following. A good time is promised. Particulars later.

The People in and around Durham Want to Spend Money

MONEY is for use, not for hoarding. Most of us want what money will buy more than money, so we are always spending our money. Also, most of us do not make enough money to keep or hoard it—we must spend it on necessities.

Much Durham money is spent with firms outside of this community—with the big city mail-order houses; money that ought to be spent at home.

More money would be spent in Durham if more of our merchants would advertise, and if those who do advertise would advertise more.

To the People in and about Durham

Spend your money at home. Sending money out of this community makes the community poorer for you and everybody else. Building up outside businesses won't help you any.
