Pretty North Egremont Wedding
McNALLY—LEE

A pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wm. Lee, North Egremont, on Wednesday, 8th October, 1915, when her daughter, Isabella Margaret Jane, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur John McNally, of Gieneg. The guests number no fewer than 125 relatives and friends of the contracting parties and the ceremony being at 4 p.m., a very pleasant afternoon and evening was spent in felicitations and good wishes to the happy young couple and neighbors chat and reminiscence.

The wedding dress was of white ivory satin, trimmed with Toulon lace and shirring and homemade roses. She wore a bridal veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of maiden hair fern and white asters, the whole outfit adding to the charm of the fair young bride. The traveling suit was a navy blue serge and she wore a white plush hat.

The groom's gift was a gold watch to the bride and a gold brooch to the organist, Mrs. Queen. The English church choir sang a chorus after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Morris, Anglican minister, the bride's pastor.

Guests from a distance were: The Misses Lee, Orangeville; Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McNally, Zion, Gieneg; Mr. and Mrs. Kingston, Meaford.

The evening however was not all chat and ceremony. At an appropriate time a handsome repast was served and conspicuous among many good things was a four storey wedding cake.

Many good wishes and more substantial things were bestowed on the happy young couple, who after a brief honeymoon, will begin housekeeping at the groom's home, near Zion. The happy jells in felicitations to the happy lovers.

Rural School Fair

The School Fair at Holstein on Friday last was highly successful and judging by the interest displayed and enthusiasm aroused it bid fair to have a career of usefulness, which is of course the intention.

The Prize List is a lengthy and ambitious one, and we regret the department officials at Markdale were not furnished with the list of prize winners, for no doubt many of the young folks will be pleased to see their name in print.

Ambitious? We should say! Fancy 17 prizes in Oats for 1, Care of Plot, 2, a gallon of oats from the plot, 3, a sheaf from the plot. In the same way 14 prizes for barley, 32 for potatoes, 4 for Yellow Dent Corn, 16 for sweet corn, 16 for carrots, 16 for mangelis and 14 for sweet peas. Then there are 20 prizes for Barred Rock chickens, 5 for best pair, 6 for best male coop made by exhibitor and must contain chickens, 5 prizes for best named collection of weeds, 5 for weed seeds, 5 for insects, 10 for hand sewing by girls, 20 for bread, cake and biscuits, 10 for best halter-broken spring colt or calf and 3 for five minute address by the young contestants on any subject.

Then there are races for the boys and girls, for the teachers and even for the trustees. Given good weather there is always the making of a splendid afternoon and the consciousness that an interest has been developed in the work of the farm and home during the summer that will make better and useful citizens of the boys and girls.

The officers are—President, Campbell Grant; Vice Pres, Clinton Rice; Secy., Arthur I. Kerr, Holstein; Treas., Mary McEachern. These with a Board of Directors are the Executive.

SOUTH BEND

Now the frost has changed to crimson
The leaf of the maple fair,
And the yellow leaves are sweeping
O'er the uplands brown and bare.
Memory recalls the vanished days
Of sunshine, birds and flowers,
And we think of hopes that have passed away
Like the fleeting summer hours.

Mrs. J. Orchard, of London, is visiting her niece, Mrs. John Durant, also Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, of Edge Hill, were recent guests of Mrs. Durant.

Crops here were abundant, but wind and rain made them difficult to cut and house in good condition. But Mr. McDermid came with his threshing outfit and made short work of the stubborn sheaves, threshing the contents of seven barns in less than five days. He is a hustler and does the work well.

We received a letter from Mrs. John Hunt (a former respected pioneer of the Bend) dated Calgary, Sept. 19th. Her many friends will be pleased to hear she is well and enjoys life in that western city.

Mrs. Frank Hunt received a letter recently from her only brother, who is in Shorncliffe, England. Mr. Robb resigned a good situation in the West to go and fight for the meteor flag. We wish him success and a safe return.

On Wednesday p.m., 6th inst., a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Ira Rawn, when her only daughter, Rowena Azolia, was married to Mr Wm. Stevenson, of Normanby. The handsome parlor was beautifully decorated with wreaths, flowers, etc., and while Mrs. Stm played the wedding march, the groom took his place under a beautiful arch. The bride, who looked lovely in a dress of grey silk and carrying a bouquet of white roses, entered leaning on the arm of her brother George. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Stewart, of Lester Breen, and after receiving congratulations from their friends, a sumptuous repast was served in the dining room to over seventy guests. The presents were numerous, handsome and useful. We join their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life. Through this world of care and sor-
