QUOTA IS GROWING.—The number of soldiers now in training in Owen Sound continues to grow day by day, and there are now about 275 citizens of Grey county who have enlisted to fight for King and Country. A short march was held on Saturday and every advantage of the fine weather is being taken to drill out of doors.—Owen Sound Advertiser.

We no longer hear of the teacher famine, and the prospects are that the supply will equal the demand. There has been an increase of 460 in the number of students in attendance at the Normal schools this year, the figures for 1914 and 1915 being 1,209 and 1,600 respectively. The number of male students has risen to 212 as compared with 128 last year.

HANOVER HELPING.—The Adult Bible Class of the Hanover Presbyterian Church distinguished itself recently by a patriotic effort in presenting a fine play in the Town Hall, called 'The Minister's Bride.' No fewer than 20 performers took part, among whom were Miss Janet Marshall and Miss Grace Petty, of Durham, at present attending Model School in Hanover, and Mionnet on the performance is most flattering. A sum of $40.02 was applied to Red Cross work. Not bad for amateurs.

DISTINGUISHED NURSE.—A recent issue of the 'Sun', Springfield, Ohio, contains a large photo of an old Normanby girl, Miss Ellen Gadd, daughter of Mr. Chas. Gadd, now of Rainy River, Ellis, as we called her when a pupil, has distinguished herself along nursing and other lines. For years she has been head of the Welfare Department of the International Harvester Co., her services being always highly honored. The occasion of the photo is her appointment to the responsible position of Secy. Treas. of the Ohio State Association of Graduate Nurses. Miss Gadd is a niece of Jas. and Robt. Eden of Varney and of Miss John Carson of town. Hearty congratulations from her old teacher and many friends.

OPHREUS CLUB CONCERT.—Thursday night last the talented group of 14 men from Owen Sound gave one of the best concerts Durham has had the pleasure of hearing for some time. In the group were four choir leaders and two organists of Owen Sound churches and the aggregation under the leadership of Mr. Oberle, went to show what a male chorus can accomplish in musical lines. Mr. Geo. Fleming was leading tenor and the vim he put into the selections, both in solo, obligato and chorus was most marked. Messrs Newton Large and J. L. Yule each contributed solos and received generous accolades. Their combined efforts in choral work though perhaps were the most appreciated and from the tenor section to the deep bass, all were in good form. Mr. D. B. Patterson shines also as an entertainer of no mean merit and his amusing skits took the house. The proceeds amounted to $85 which goes to the purchasing of a field kitchen. The Grey Co. Recruiting League are providing. At the close of the concert, a delectable supper was given them in the Library basement for the company before their long drive home.

Mr Wm Atkinson has sold his Ford car in Toronto and delivered it there this week.

An iron railing has been placed up the middle of the Presbyterian Church steps, which will prove of timely assistance when the snows of winter arrive.

We omitted to mention in last week's issue a contribution of $23.92 from the Business Football Club to the Canadian Patriotic Fund, which was remitted by Mr. Chas. Kennedy.

XMAS PHOTOGRAPHS.—Please fifteen of your friends Xmas with a photograph of yourself or family. Three extra photos with every dozen. Make your appointment now.

John Weichten, an aged resident of Walkerton, wandered away from his home Thursday morning and was not found till about 2 p. m. Saturday morning, under a railway bridge near Hanover. He had spent almost two nights exposed to the weather and without food. When found he was without a hat and had only one shoe on and was picking grass to cover himself. He is a wealthy retired German farmer and has lived several years in town, but of late his mind has been weakening.

Constable Arrowsmith a few days ago received a telegram from Chicago stating that Thos. Mighton was under arrest there, they understood he was wanted in Canada and if so, send for him, signed by a Chicago Police Official. Our constable at once wired to County Constable Cook of Ceylon who wired to Chicago that he was coming and accordingly on Tuesday of this week, Cook and his prisoner arrived in Durham, he was looked up for the night and on Wednesday he went to Owen Sound in charge of his captor.

It will still be remembered that almost two years ago, Mighton, in his treatment of wife and family and in other ways, brought himself under the law and managed to evade capture. Not long after a wire from Winnipeg informed authorities here that he had been spotted there. Constable Cook went west, secured his man, handcuffed him, but somewhere in Northern Ontario wilds, he jumped from the car among the snow and that was the last seen or heard of him till the telegram came.

Constable Cook, no doubt said, 'now my man, you won't escape me this time.' He will likely stand his trial at next assizes on several counts.

There is a supposition abroad that tiring of the hunted life, he made his name and deed known to the Chicago police. Another cause of the effectiveness of the 'Long Arm of the Law.'

Obituary.

MRS PHILIP EVA At the home of her son Philip in Bentinck, there passed away on Thursday last, 4th Nov., 1915, Mrs Philip Eva, at the advanced age of 93 years. She survived her husband, who died thirteen years ago at the age of 81.

Mrs Eva was a native of the Channel Islands and was married there. Shortly after the young couple crossed the ocean and before long found their way to Durham where they took an active part in the life of the town in that early day. Three sons and two daughters grew to manhood, two of whom are deceased: John who was drowned many years ago, and Albert who died in 1907. The others are Philip in Bentinck, to whose home she moved about a year ago after a long residence in Durham, Mrs Collier, Guelph, and Mrs John Lawrence, N. Brompton.

She was a member of the Church of England and in days of her health and strength took delight in its services. The remains were brought to Trinity Church on Sunday and after an impromptu service by the Rector, were taken to the English Church graveyard for interment.

MARY ELLEN KENNY After an illness extending over a few weeks, Mary Ellen Kenny, third daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm. Kenny, 2nd con., Glenelg, near Dornoch, died on Monday of this week, at the age of about 28 years. The deceased was an attractive and most industrious young lady, though in recent years had never been in robust health. Besides her sorrowing parents, she leaves to mourn her departure three sisters, (Maggie) Mrs Nicholas Melosh, (Johanna) Mrs Jas. Vasey and Miss Kate at home, and two brothers Joe and Will, also at home. The funeral service was held on Wednesday at the Dornoch Catholic Church, interment taking place in the cemetery adjoining.

GEORGE DOUGLAS A bright young life came to a close at noon last Friday, when George Woods Douglas passed away at the promising age of 18 years. For the last year and ten months he has been in poor health, but was able to be around till three months ago when his condition became more serious. He was a most patient sufferer, bearing his illness bravely and without complaint. The deceased was the second son of Mr and Mrs Robt. Douglas of town, spent his school days here and at the close of them, grew very rapidly, being 6 feet 2 inches tall at his death. For a few months after leaving school, he was employed at the Furniture factory and later in a Hanover factory, till the family went west to Prince Albert about three years ago. They returned about ten months later, owing to Mr Douglas's poor health and have since resided in this town.

Among his companions, George was a popular lad and the large attendance at the funeral on Sunday, with the many beautiful floral offerings, testified to the hearty sympathy of the town on his demise. Rev. S. Moyer and Wyllie conducted the services, while six of his boy friends acted as pall bearers, Anson and James Lloyd, Wm. Browning, Frank McKay, Roy Vollet, Wm. Watt. The casket was crowded with flowers, wreaths being given by the Durham Furniture Co., National Portland Cement Co., P. Hill and sprays by Mr and Mrs Geo. McKay, Mr and Mrs Mel. McKay, the Methodist choir, Fred Laidlaw, Mr and Mrs A. Brocks, Mrs Willoughby. Interment took place in Durham Cemetery.

The deepest sympathy of the town goes out to the sorrowing parents, their remaining son Robt., and two daughters Mrs White, who is ill in Toronto, and Miss Gladys at home, in their hour of bereavement.

MRS SCHRAM The above lady, whose passing away on Thursday, 4th November, we briefly mentioned last week, came to Canada from New Castleton, Scotland, with her parents, Mr and Mrs David Murray in the year 1856. Some years later she was married to Mr Adam Douglas and settled in Dumfries, near Galt. Six years later, Mr Douglas bought a farm in Normanby, and there and near there the greater part of her life was spent. She was a true helpmeet and had her full share of the toils and the triumphs of the pioneers, and won the respect of the community, and always retained the love and regard of her large family of nine children, of whom seven survive. The old farm is now occupied by a grandson, Mr Adam Douglas. After leaving the farm Mrs Schram and her daughter, Miss Carmount, lived in Orchard until five years ago, when they moved to Durham. Besides her five sons and two daughters surviving, she will be mourned by 34 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

The funeral took place on Saturday to Maplewood cemetery, many friends and neighbors paying the last tribute. Appropriate services were conducted by Rev. Mr Wyllie, assisted by Rev. Mr. Wm. J. McCrie, of Sask Landing, who acted as pall-bearers.

Floral offerings covered the coffin of the donors being Miss Jackson, Berlin, a niece; Dr. Gun; her son in British Columbia; Mrs Osborne, Shallow Lake, a sister; Mrs Curran, Port Arthur, a niece; Mr and Mrs Alex Grierson; Mr and Mrs Wm. Black.

HARRY VOLLETT At the age of 82 years, Harry Vollett, of Normanby, passed away Tuesday evening last week, from pneumonia. From infancy he has been an invalid, being unable to walk, but was frequently seen in town with his horse and rig. He was an interesting conversationalist, and being incapable of usual labor, occupied much leisure time profitably by knitting, in which he was expert, disposing of his work to merchants here.

SAMUEL CALDWELL In addition to the brief notice last week, announcing the death of the above gentleman, we add the following: He was born in Apsala, Simcoe Co., over 50 years ago and came to Normanby with his parents in the 70's of last century and he was 34 years a resident of Knox settlement, where he received most of his education. He married first Miss Ellen McNeice, but after a few months death robbed him of his companion. Over 12 years ago he married Miss Lizzie Fee, who survives him with two young daughters and a boy a few months old. Their eldest daughter died in Normanby, before they went west to Wardsburg, Saskatchewan.

As we stated last week he was a pushing, hard-working fellow and was informed it was his very energy and exposure that brought upon him the pneumonia and typhoid, with hemorrhages, that proved fatal. Two nurses and best medical skill were employed, but the end came on 30th October. His brother-in-law, Mr Wm. McCalman, Lumsden, took charge of funeral arrangements, and accompanied the remains to deceased's brother's home in Normanby, from whence the funeral took place to Maplewood cemetery on Tuesday, 2nd November. Mrs Caldwell was unable to come and her many friends here will feel for her deep sympathy in her lonely widowhood.

He was an intelligent young man, Conservative in politics, Methodist in religion and a member of the Orange Order which officiated at the funeral, also Rev. S. Moyer of Durham and Smith of Dornoch. The pallbearers were four Crown brothers (consins) Andrew Toronto, James Southampton, George Preston, John of Durham, John Morris and Wm. McCalman, brother-in-law. Wreaths were presented from Varney Orange Lodge and the two brothers Will and Rev. Harry Caldwell, near Hamilton, and many friends paid the last tribute of respect by attending the funeral.

Tuberculosis Day

In Churches and Schools On Sunday and Monday next, 14th and 15th November, respectively, Churches and Schools are expected to aid in the great work of spreading knowledge of the dangers of tuberculosis and available means of prevention if not of cure. Teachers at receiving a Departmental circular and a small pamphlet 'Tuberculosis, what it is,' will be sent them and this with the inspiration of Sunday references is expected to aid them in giving information that will benefit their young charges.

Teachers in this district would be well advised to use the questions already handed out, instead of spending time on that, emphasize the important points about which they are still ignorant.

Teachers should also ascertain what are the local conditions? If 10 per cent of all deaths are due to T. B., what does this mean to our community? What is actual Tuberculosis situation? What is being done to remedy it?

Teachers should endeavor to carry out some of the ways suggested in the material supplied to them, of giving the children some practical way of cooperating with the Anti-Tuberculosis Association, to emphasize in the minds of the children that their own active help is one of the most important weapons in combating this deadly disease.

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Matheson. It was decided to send a delegate to the W. I. Convention in Toronto this week. Mr. Matheson read a splendid letter direct from the seat of war, written by a Presbyterian minister to the Presbytery, telling of his work out there and thanking the people of Canada for their help. Mrs. McKinnon gave a splendid Scotch reading. Quite a lot of knitting was done and yarn distributed amongst those wishing to knit.

The W. I. have sent their contribution to the Grey Co. Ambulance fund $40.00 $25.00 of this amount being contributed by the Red Cross girls from the proceeds of their booth on Show Day.

Our Red Cross girls are deserving of great praise for their untiring efforts ever since the beginning of the war. They have made quite a large amount of money at different times, selling buttons, flags, hammocks, socks, and all other ways as well. We are glad that our young women are patriotic, for we are told that the girls of to-day are the women of to-morrow.

Mrs. N. McKinnon will attend the W. I. Convention as delegate.

The Prieville ladies held their first Red Cross Tea this week. These Teas are for the purpose of making money to keep up the supply of yarn as well as other material, and in the making up of same and as they do not belong to any organization, society or sect, an opportunity is provided for all women who wish to help. It has been decided to try and arrange to have them in different parts of the surrounding country, one each week. The North line held theirs two weeks ago, Prieville last week. South line will hold one this week at the home of Miss Christina McKinnon next week we believe O. D. R. intends to fall in line and the week following that, perhaps the people of Southtown or some other portion of the community round about and in this way all will be able to do their bit.

I might say for those who are not familiar with these teas that the different women in the various neighborhoods offer their homes. The afternoon is spent in knitting, etc., a light lunch of sandwich, cake and a cup of tea or coffee is served and a 10 cent collection is taken up.

Let us women of Canada get to work and do our best; the need for socks especially will be tremendous for all the soldiers Canada has sent out. Then, when this terrible war is over, be the outcome what it may, we will feel that the commendation of the Master is applicable 'she hath done what she could.'

The ladies of the South Line will please remember the meeting at Miss Christina McKinnon's on Friday, November 12th. All ladies are asked to co-operate in this good work.
