KARSTEDT BROS. Brander's Old Stand, PRICEVILLE, Ont.

We are sorry that Mr. C. C. James is not feeling very well for some time past, on account of weakness caused by heart trouble.

David McLeod, son of Alex McLeod of this town, who spent the last two years in the west and enlisted there for the army.

Mr. Neil McLeod, who spent the last year in the west, is back and is staying with his friends, the Miller's, south line, Arden.

Mr. Arch. McMillan, who spent the last six or seven weeks at his brother's Alex McMillan, who is sick, left for his home in Montana on Friday evening of last week.

One by one the aged pioneers are passing away. Those who braved the forests of this County of Grey some 60 or 65 years ago are passing swiftly by.

The subject of our sketch came to the south line, Arden, 63 years ago, when a young lad of some 18 years of age, being John McMillan.

Donald McKinnon (Hugh's) who spent since harvest in the west, arrived home a few days ago, looking as though the west agreed with him well.

Surveyors are surveying the new cemetery in plots, south of town, presented lately by Dr. McNeil, of Chicago.

P. F. McArthur took a drive to Markdale one day last week to bid his mother farewell, who was at her son's, Dr. John McArthur, during the last few months, as she left for the west again a day or two ago to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Dixon, formerly of this place.

Miss Laura McKinnon, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs N. McKinnon, of the post office, is organist in the Presbyterian church since Miss Sackett left for Toronto some time ago.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Matheson, of the Presbyterian church at the house and grave.

Mr. McMillan leaves a comparatively young widow and family of sons and daughters. Two of the family who are in the far distant west, were unable to attend the funeral and to them the news of a dutiful father's death will be received with sadness.

SWINTON PARK

The weather continues to be mild and warm for this line of the year. Sleighing was good at the beginning of the week, but the snow has disappeared and now there is lots of mud.

Messrs B. Knox and J. Fox, recruits training at Owen Sound, spent Sunday at their home here. They speak highly of the Owen Sound people.

Some of our farmers attended Mr H. B. McLean's sale.

Mr J. Wilson spent Sunday with his friend, Mr Fred Knox.

Mr Geo. Wright has returned from the west.

Mr B. Haw gave a party to his many friends last Wednesday.

We hear the distant sound of wedding bells at Boatville.
