Come on, All Together, Everybody

Boost your favorite. Put her at the top of the Honor Roll and keep her there. Don't be satisfied with Second. Anyone could be Third. It will be a Battle Royal from now on. A fight to a finish. Do your bit. It's up to you.

The next list will show you not only the position of each contestant, but also the number of votes each one has to her credit. You will then know how far your favorite is behind and what she will have to do to get up to the top. Right now is the time to help her. Double votes from now until Christmas day. Two votes for each cent you spend. Produce counts the same as Cash.

Look them over:

- If you are not helping anyone, pick your favorite from this list. They all want your support, and they deserve it. Do your share.
