The late John Tolmie, ex-M. P. for North Bruce, was a great friend of the late Hon. Dr. Lauderkin and he used to tell of a "good one" that the Doctor "got off" on him once. It was after the election of 1896. Mr. Tolmie had been a widower for several years and the Doctor one night at dinner pointed to a woman seated at another table and said: "John, that woman is a widow and she is worth four hundred thousand. I think I can get her for you if you will give me a reasonable commission." Mr. Tolmie told him to go on with it and if he succeeded he could name the commission. For two days he inquired how the Doctor was getting on and the Doctor was able to report progress. On the third day the following conversation took place:

"Well, Doctor, how are you getting on with that fair widow?" "Oh, it's all off, John." "Why, what went wrong?" "She saw you."

Mr. Tolmie, who was able to appreciate a joke at his own expense, took pleasure in telling this one.—Ex.

The supper which had been prepared and served by the ladies was all that could be desired and fittingly demonstrated their ability to appeal to the inner man. At the commencement of the program, Dr. Sneath was elected to the chair and after everyone joined in singing "The Maple Leaf Forever," delivered a fine address dealing with the urgent requirements of the various patriotic funds and pointed out the extreme sacrifice which our boys were making which should set as an incentive in our contributions towards the cause.

Spencer, Richardson and Allan, of O. Sound, the latter an Egremont boy and well known in the vicinity, were present and gave instructive addresses. Mr R. Renwick eloquently spoke of the Honor, Liberty and Freedom, for which our boys are fighting and dying to uphold the cause of the British Empire.
