MARCH 16, 1916

Second Week in Legislature

Temperance Deputation;

What the government promised the deputation—a majority vote on the proposed prohibition referendum.

What Mr Rowell said about the deputation; "I congratulate the Committee of One Hundred and the 35,000 workers on the magnificent results of their efforts. I was also gratified at the frank statement of the premier that when the vote is taken it will be on the majority basis."

No Refererdum Now?

There seems to be a growing tendency in public opinion that there should be no vote on the prohibition question at present, but that the Legislature on its own responsibility, should enact prohibition, followed by a referendum at the close of the war as to whether prohibition is to be continued or not. This solution for example would solve the difficulty about the soldiers' votes.

The "World" (Con.) "If the Government intends to enact a prohibition measure it does not seem wise that a campaign should be inaugurated either for or against the principle. He (the premier) would lose nothing by taking the step he proposes as a war measure without delay or the agitation which will accompany a referendum

Toronto "Telegram" (Con.) also says "Every objection that can be urged against a vote on federal issues in war time is applicable with multiplied force and fervor to a provincial vote in war time. If the Hearst government feels that Ontario has given the rulers of this Province a mandate to accept the N. W. Rowell-Committee of One Hundred policy, let the Hearst government legislate in fulfilment of that mandate and spare Ontario that affliction of a war time election on the license issue."

Mr. Rowell's views on the matter were expressed as follows; I hope the Premier and his colleagues will see their way clear to provide in the bill that it shall go into effect at the earliest practicable date as a war measure, not to be repealed except by a majority vote of the electors after the war is over.

NOTES

Hon Dr. Pyne has returned from England.

The Government refused to pass the resolution submitted by Samuel Carter, Liberal member for S. Wellington, demanding the creation of a non-partizan civil service commission and the purchasing of all supplies for the public service by tender in open competition.

Provincial Treasurer McGarry estimates a surplus of $271 000 on current revenue and expenditure. Mr Bowman, financial critic of the Opposition on the other hand claims that actual conditions of affairs shows a deficit of $2 209.000. not including war expenditures. Not much difference between them, is there?

Mr Bowman also pointed out that since 1904 under this government, the public debt of the Province had increased four fold from $11,000.000 to $49,600.000. During the last year the debt has increased by $9.000,000

The Government announced that the one mill war tax would be continued during the coming year.

—Villa, the Mexican insurgent, with a band of marauders crossed into the States and in a skirmish killed a number of U. S. citizens and soldiers. The States has asked leave to follow them into Mexico, but Carranza wants an equal privilege, It is freely asserted that German machinations and money are at the root of the trouble.

"MADE IN CANADA"

The Wagon Shop That Became the Largest Automobile Factory in the British Empire

Back in 1903, the town of Walkerville, Ont., was possessed of a concern called the Walkerville Wagon Co.

If on some day when business was not rushing, the general manager, Gordon M. McGregor, wished to take a little stroll he could walk around his shop in about 2 minutes by the factory clock.

Nobody would have believed at that time that this shop would, in a few years, develop into the largest plant of its kind in the Empire having a floor acreage of over 435,000 square feet and making 3 times as many cars as any other automobile factory in the British Empire.

This shop has been turned into the great Ford plant at Ford City, Ont., where a new Canadian Ford car is born every three and one-half minutes.

Ford Runabout $480; Touring Car $530; All prices are f. o. b., Ford, Ont. All cars completely equipped including electric headlights Equipment does not include speedometer. Cars on sale at C Smith & Sons, Durham, Ont.
