THE WHITE FLAG AGAIN.—William John Dunsmoor, son of Mr. William Dunsmoor, died at Sault Ste.
Marie, Ont., on Wednesday last week at the early age of 18 years, 7 months and 16 days. Death was due to consumption after a few months' illness. Deceased was a bright, popular young fellow and his early death is greatly regretted by a wide circle of friends. He was born in the township of Bentinck and went to Owen Sound with his parents when but a child. They lived there for several years and then went to the Soo. The remains were brought to Hanover for interment, the funeral taking place on HONORED ST. PATRICK.—The basement of the Presbyterian Church was decorated Friday night last, the occasion being an Irish Social prepared by several young ladies of the congregation for Red Cross work. The chairman, pastor Rev. S. M. Whaley, who is a true son of Erin, was in a genial mood, and first arranged the audience in groups of months, according to the birthdays of each, called on one from each hand to contribute to the program. Mr. Thos. Moffat, one of the speakers, brought out that St. Patrick was originally a Scotchman, being born in Scotland! The judges deemed Mrs. McGirr, in a speech lauding the month of May, gave the best number and awarded her the prize. The regular program followed, Mrs. Corkill giving an Irish solo and encore, Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Stonehouse a duet, Miss Vivian Crawford a reading of Irish humorists, Mrs. MacFarlane and Miss Lyla Kelsey, and Misses Margaret Hunter and Alice Ramage piano duets and Miss Marguerite Hutton a thoroughly enjoyed. A dainty Irish lunch, in which shamrocks played a part, as well as in the decorations spanning the basement, closed the evening, followed by the National An-Presbyterian Red Cross work. The girls responsible for its success were Misses Ethel and Grace Hunter, Jean McGowan, Alice Ramage, Vaddie held the other half. This over, "The Maple Leaf" song by the audience opened was unable to be present. Pte. Edwards

THE ROLL CALL.
CUNNINGHAM ECTOR
Relatives here of the above well-known gentleman received the sad news on Monday that he had died at Arcola, Sask., on 16th March, after only four days' illness from pneumonia. He spent the winter from Christmas to last March in Durham and vicinity and little did anyone think that so soon the strong man would be laid low.

Deceased was a son of the late James Ector, born in Glenelg over 53 years ago. He married Maria, eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Lawrence of Durham, who survives him and their family consists of one son James, who is deputy clerk of Co. Court, Arcola; three daughters, Ella, Mrs. Shaver; whose husband is dep. Sheriff, Saskatoon; Belle, Mrs. Taylor, Arcola, real estate; Annie, Mrs. Rieley, Arcola, husband, wholesale butcher. Two brothers, Wm. at Welland, James, Pige, La Prairie, survive him as also four sisters: Maggie, Mrs. Jno. A'lan, Cal.; Kate, married in Alta.; Mrs. Alex. Firth, Orangeville and Mrs.
R. Edge, Glenelg.

Deceased, who went west 12 years ago and was very successful, was an industrious, well-doing man and a good citizen, and many besides immediate relatives, will mourn his untimely removal. All his family were with him at the end and his brother James was presiding, the funeral and a member of the I. O. F.

MRS. JAS. HOPKINS
On Sunday last at her home, 3rd Con., Bunting, death relieved the suffering of the above lady after a lengthy illness from tubercular trouble she having been for the last 8 or 9 weeks in bed. Besides the sorrowing husband she leaves in his care a little daughter Mary, four years old. Others who will mourn her untimely decease are her mother Mrs. McDonald, her brother James and a sister Janet at home. Her marriage to Mr. Hopkins took place about five years ago. She was a member of the Methodist church and her pastor, Rev. Mr. Meyer, conducted appropriate services at the funeral to Durham cemetery on Tuesday, which was very largely attended, nearly 70 vehicles being in the procession.

JAMES DUNSMOOR
There died in Hamilton on Friday last a gentleman known to many in South Grey, Mr. Jas. Dunsmoor. He was but a short time ill, a severe cold ending in acute bronchitis. His wife was Miss Jean Greenwood, sister to John and Thos. Greenwood of Glenelg and one son Albert of Hamilton and two daughters, both married and in Hamilton, survive. A son William died some years ago. Mrs. Arch. McKelvie, Rocky Saugen, a sister of deceased and attended the funeral on Sunday last. She is now the last of her family.

Considerable business was shown in horse buying last Fair Day, and some good sales were made, ranging from $80 to $185.

Sergt. Lenahan is going to Toronto to act as Sergeant Instructor at the Divisional bombing school being held there.
At the recent course in Toronto, Sergt. Lenahan passed an excellent examination and so impressed the officers of the school that the G. S. O. asked that he be loaned the staff for work in the divisional school.—Owen Sound Advertiser.

Pte. Jack Weir in the Lime Light

Won Distinguished Conduct Medal?

This community was deeply stirred last week when it was noised abroad that Pte. John Weir had won a D.C.O. for bravery. The story originated on this side in a letter received by an O.
Sound family, one of whose members is at the front and knows Weir. The writer mentions Weir as having trained in O. Sound, came from Durham and named John, so the identification is complete. The circumstances were that he had carried a wounded officer from a point of danger at risk of his own life and in the doing of it was wounded himself. The tone of the letter hasn't a hint in it of doubt, yet he has a word of confirmation, though having no letter from John dated two days previous to the O. Sound letter and another from him dated a week later.

He makes no reference to the honor, which may be due to modesty, nor to being wounded which may be due to thoughtfulness to avoid anxiety of friends. We offer hearty congratulations anyway to a brave lad who has reflected honor on his community, and hope to see him return some time after the bright morning of the Allies complete success.

Mr. Pte. Gormish, of Orchard, sold his farm to George Schenk of Ayton and intends to have an Auction Sale about the middle of April.

On our Holstein page will be found a sympathetic write-up of Mrs. (Rev.) Marsh, whose sudden taking off has called forth deepest sympathy with the bereaved ones.

WON'T LOSE JOB.—The manufacturers of County Grey have issued a signed enlisting men the restoration of their patriotic action.

Address and Presentation

The home of James Ledingham, Glenelg, was invaded by a host of his friends and neighbors on Saturday evening, March 18th, when it was known that his eldest son George A. had enlisted for overseas service. Rev.
T. W. Mills was appointed Chairman and an interesting program was given consisting of addresses by D. Smith, Robert Hay and Wm. Smith respectively, made and singing by his companions and schoolmates and patriotic selections from gramophone managed by Martin Murphy, after which the following address was read and the accompanying presentation made, to which, Private Ledingham made a response, showing his sincere convictions directing his step.

To Private George A. Ledingham: We, your companions, friends and neighbors, take this opportunity of making known to you our appreciation of your decision to enlist for overseas service.

As one of the boys of our church and community, we have noted with pride and pleasure your success in school and Business College and that pride and pleasure in your career has been increased when you are now making the supreme sacrifice of offering your life at the call of your "King and Country" and in the great world combat for freedom and justice.

As one, whose ancestors were the leaders in the struggles and hardships of our pioneer days, we are all personally interested in you and feel that you are, in a special sense, our representative, and we know, as character is the true test of nobility, that you will acquit yourself nobly and well in the work you are now entering on.

We would now ask you to allow us to present to you this shaving outfit and purse, as a slight acknowledgment of our indebtedness to you in taking up the fight for our freedom and as a link to call to your remembrance your Durham friends, who all unite in heartfelt wishes for your success and safe return.

Signed on behalf of Durmoth friends:
John Morley, John Rvy
Geo. Alexander, Edward Simpson Mr. Thomas Turnbull, councillor of Glenelg, then in a few well chosen words, expressed his municipal appreciation of the recruiting in Glenelg and presented a wrist watch on behalf of council to the young recruit.
