Kaiser and his forces when duty demands of our country to do so. Although many of us feel sad and sore at heart for our brave boys enlisting, yet we ought to feel proud of their actions, for they are exposing themselves to dangers seen and unseen.

And so we determined to seize this opportune occasion to say to you both for once how much we value you as friends, as neighbors and as good citizens and to ask your acceptance of this gold, which may stand to you for the sterling depth of your neighbors' regard for you.

Donald McKinnon gives Racy Experiences. The following racy extracts from a long letter by this Priceville boy will be read with interest. More is to follow. Donald is in his glory, but the atmosphere of Priceville never leaves him.

Hector McDonald Honored. One of those events that always leave pleasant recollections took place at Mr. J. A. McDonald's, south line, recently. Hector, Mr. McDonald's son, who has been in Montana for ten years, was on the eve of leaving for Toronto to train for the defence of principles which are to him dearer than life.

After friendly greetings A. McCuaig was appointed chairman and a long impromptu program placed in his hand. It would take too much of your space to enumerate, suffice it to say that it was a pleasant time, well enjoyed, and abundance of good things to eat and drink.

Quite a number of the youth of the locality spent an enjoyable evening of night, we should say, at the home of Mr. Robert Fisher, south line, Glenelg. The object was in honor of his sister, Mrs. McMillan, who is going to her home soon at the Soo, after spending the winter with friends in this part.

We welcome Mr. Angus McDougall and family, of Egremont, to our town. He has taken up his residence at the house recently vacated by Mr. Cross at the town line, south.

Mr. James McDougall and family will be moving to the house bought from Mrs. McLachlan lately, near the old cemetery, Priceville.

We were sorry that we were absent on the evening of the gathering of the friends of our dutiful boy, who was made the recipient of presents, as will be seen elsewhere in a well composed address written by Mr. Arch. McCuaig of Top Cliff, whose ability as a compiler is hard to excel.

It was Gold, not Tin. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bothwell, of Islay, Alta, recently passed the 10th anniversary of their wedding.

We are met here, many of us your schoolmates, some older, some younger, all so desirous of conveying to you our esteem and admiration of the success you have had in practising the Golden Rule.

As a small token of our goodwill for you we present you with a wristwatch and fountain pen as a remembrance. While we love our war we are confident the greatest crime against God and humanity and inspired by the evil one through man as his tool, we hope to be delivered from co-operating with him.

We admire the stand you are now taking, knowing it is a sense of duty that impels you and not from inclination. While we love our war we are confident the greatest crime against God and humanity and inspired by the evil one through man as his tool, we hope to be delivered from co-operating with him.

Signed on behalf of many friends: Norman McIntyre, Chas. McKinnon, R. B. Fisher.

Denham Camp, near Uzbridge, Bucks Co., England. This is Friday evening, just 8 o'clock wearing on to 'Lights Out' I am going to make a beginning on this letter.

Well I did not think that this letter would be this thick. Here it is now Sunday, Jan. 23, more than four weeks since I started, in a different camp, and under somewhat different conditions. I very much fear that even to-day I will not finish, but now that we are in a somewhat settled routine, I will have more opportunity of writing.
