To Our Friends

Nearly three hundred homes in

South Grey have free telephone connection with The Review. When you have an item of news call us up and give it to us. This invitation is not to Durham people only, but to all our many patrons throughout the surrounding country. The Review has the valued help of a large corps of District Correspondents, but even our correspondents cannot be expected to get all the news. If anything happens in your home of public interest, telephone to No. 6 Durham, and give us the privilege of passing it on to our readers. We want our paper to be a week of what is going on in South Grey. Officers of local organizations of every description are especially urged to take antage of this invitation.
