The military police at Owen Sound on Wednesday last arrested some of their comrades for drunkenness. Militia orders from Ottawa announce that the way is now open for every man serving in the Canadian forces to secure for himself a homestead, the time spent on active service to count as residence duty on land. Homesteads thus secured will be protected against cancellation, and in event of a man receiving wounds which result in disability so he cannot complete his homestead duties on return to civilian life, he will receive his patent without further effort.

DROWNED AT PARRY SOUND.—A lamentable calamity occurred last week, when Capt. Alex McNab of Owen Sound met an untimely death. He was going aboard his boat and in some way fell from the gang plank between boat and wharf and though soon recovered, all efforts to restore life were unavailing. He has resided in Owen Sound since a child, was highly respected and was one of the most efficient captains on the lakes. The opinion of marine men at Parry Sound was that he had been overcome with heart failure or had suffered a paralytic stroke. His wife is a cousin of Miss R. McCormick and Mrs. McCormick, Benincan, and the McCormick brothers, formerly of town. Mrs. McCormick and Angus McCormick of the Eskey, attended the funeral in Owen Sound on Sunday. Besides his wife, one daughter 18y, 12 years of age, is a mourner. A brother Angus is Supt. of fish hatcheries, Port Arthur and a sister, Mrs. (Capt.) Jno. McNab, lives in Sarnia.

The annual meeting of the Durham Branch Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. N. McConnel on Thursday, May 4. Thirty ladies were present. The Secretary's report showed a splendid year's work—$188.00 was raised throughout the year with only $8.00 cash on hand. Nine meetings were held with a total attendance of 391. Mrs. McConnel, the retiring President, then gave an account of the work done for patriotic purposes. This showed good work, considering the fact they almost all the members work steadily at other Red Cross work. $100.00 was given to the Grey County Women's Institute ambulance, $5.00 to Red Cross, $13.00 spent on yarn and 81 pairs of socks were knit. A number of meetings were held, at which sewing was done for the Red Cross in Durham. $5.00 was also sent to Muskoka Free Hospital. Throughout the year 16 papers and addresses were given, which were interesting and instructive. Business over, Mrs. Graham read a most interesting paper on "The Women of Russia," followed by Mrs. Knisley with a paper on "Our flag and what it stands for," which was excellent, giving the history of the flag in full, and each one realized as never before, why we rally round and so willingly fight for our flag. The following officers were elected: President—Mrs. J. S. McKeith; Vice Pres.—Mrs. S. Patterson; Sec. Treas.—Miss M. J. McGirr; Directors—Mrs. McConnel, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. McComb; Auditors—Mrs. Hepburn, Mrs. McLean.

GLENELG IN 1916.—We give considerable space this week to Assessor McEneaney of Glenelg, whose reminiscences of a twelve months' changes comes lovingly and kindly from his hand. Much of his write-up has historical value and from his vantage point of 60 years or more he is well fitted to impress us with the flight of time. Some day away on in this century we will have to give him up, but may the day be distant as the doctus agnus qui rugit sibi aosis mhor. The sentiment of the following lines will be appreciated by our Priceville correspondent: "Is toigh leinn a' Ghailig, A b'ardach 's a' ceal: 'S i' tric'hu' I n'oid sin 'Nair bhith' m'aid se leon: 'S i' d'ionnsaich sunn trath 'Ann an laithean a' n-orig, 'S'ach treig sinn gu brath 'Gus an laith sinn n' fhod."

Battalion Day in Owen Sound

In spite of the very unfavorable forenoon last Wednesday, several thousand people gathered from various parts of the county to see the 17th Battalion at practice before leaving for the Niagara Camp. Lt.-Col. McFarland was in command, the fine new band instruments presented by Mrs McFarland, were in use for the first time and the new field kitchen, the gift of the Male Orpheus Chorus, was conspicuous in the parade.

At 1.30 p. m., when the Battalion formed up on the Market Square, the throng was so dense that the soldiers had difficulty in making their way to their places in their platoons. When the parade started the whole route to the streets along the whole route to the hill were lined with spectators, who followed with all haste to the Exhibition Grounds.

The Battalion formed up in close column of Companies on the Exhibition Grounds and punctually at 2.15 as arranged, Lieut.-Colonel G. P. McFarland, the Commanding Officer of the Battalion, arrived and was received with the general salute.

The program consisted of a general salute and march past; an exhibition of signalling which, says the Sun, proved a highly interesting part of the proceedings; a bomb-throwing contest at thirty and twenty yards, first prize going to Chas. Miller, of Meaford, second to M. Atcheson, Owen Sound; an exhibition of machine gun drill; an exhibition of bayonet exercises, but owing to the bad weather the exhibition of trench warfare had to be cancelled. A football match between teams from the ranks closed the program.

A splendid concert was given in the evening by the Battalion Minstrels who pulled off some really new and extremely funny Minstrel stunts.

The arrival in England of the 76th battalion, which was stationed at Barrie, is officially announced. Three Durham boys, Ernest McGirr, Alex Bell and Geo. Lloyd are in its ranks.

The neighbors and friends of Pte. Jas. Coutts, of the 92nd Highland Battalion, Toronto, met at his father's residence, north of Vickers on Monday evening and surprised him by presenting him with a shaving set and purse containing $11, accompanied by the following address: Pte. Jas. Coutts, 92nd Overseas Battalion, Dear Friend,—

As you go forth in this awful struggle for the right, we will be proud to have such a noble young man to assist in bringing a treacherous and dangerous foe to terms of lasting peace. We ask you to accept this little present from your many friends who all join in wishing you a safe return. Signed on behalf of the neighborhood.

Jas Alexander Harry and Geo Reay. The address was read by Mr. Herb. Hunt and presentation made by Mr. Harry Reay. An impromptu program was arranged and in this and the dancing which followed, a most enjoyable social night was spent.

Recruiting Urgency

Beginning Tuesday of this week the County is being combed for 200 recruits to complete the 17th Grey Battalion before going to Niagara Camp. The County has been mapped off into districts and officers and men assigned to each to interview likely prospects. Major Fleming and Lieut. Thos. Allan are in charge of Durham, Glenelg and Egremont and with a number of local recruits and occasionally a civilian, preferably the father of an enlisted son, are out every day in three or four volunteered autos to present and press the claims of the 17th and of the country to all young men who are reasonably free from

A story is being circulated, which smacks of enemy origin, that the recruiters' activity is stimulated by a cash payment of $2 or more for each recruit! The story is a lying slander on earnest men.

Graduated at Fergus Hospital

We congratulate three South Grey young ladies who have just graduated as nurses from the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Fergus: Miss Lottie Daniels of Durham, Miss Sadie Connelly of Holstein and Miss Lillian M. Damm of Aytou. The Graduating Exercises were held in the Town Hall, Fergus, on Tuesday May 2nd. The News-Record says: "The hall was packed to the doors and many friends of the nurses from a distance were present. The building was splendidly decorated with the hospital colors, purple and gold, showing in curtains, large artificial flowers, and the date 1916 in large figures at the back of the stage. Great banks of flowers, white, pink and red, were to be seen at the front of the platform, which were gifts to the graduates. Roses, carnations, lilies and daffodils, in great profusion made the air fragrant"

It is a non-transportation company. UNVEILING HONOR ROLL.—A very interesting function took place Sunday morning last when before a large congregation there was unveiled the honor roll containing the names of 51 young men who were or are associated with the church, through themselves or their families. Rev. Mr. Whaley presided and made a brief and impressive address, such as sorrow and suffering, consecration, the honor of heroism and the heroism of honor, and would always link it followed at more length seeing in Germany's efforts to win the world the process of losing her own soul. While we are doing this we should think what they are doing, are enduring, are preserving for us. "War is said to bring out the heroic virtues, it can do this only if men are free." A resurrection has come to France and Belgium who will be perfected by suffering. Mr. Wm. Calder followed briefly with some pregnant thoughts. Events had followed thick in the 21 mos. and there would be no honor roll if it was thought the boys had simply gone on a trip. They believed it was a righteous cause and where opportunity had been given they had done their duty, they would ever have clean lives. The music throughout was of an appropriate character and the day will long be remembered. Loving hands had decked the church with flags, pennants and bunting and the effect was fine and a credit to the Guild.
