SOUTH BEND

Now June skies are blue and lovely, Scents of blossoms fill the air, Birds are warbling their praises, Nature is so fresh and fair.

Miss M. Walton, of Mt. Forest, formerly of the Bend, called on some of her friends here recently.

Inspector Campbell visited our seat of learning some time ago and of course found everything alright.

Mr George Eawn, accompanied by Mr Everard Mant, O. S. R., motored to the Queen City Saturday.

Mr and Mrs Greenwood, of Edge Hill, visited their niece, Mrs J. Durant lately. Mr and Mrs Durant received a letter from their son Gilbert, who is a member of a recruiting band who are touring the country and having a nice time. Gilbert can tell of the wonders he has seen when he returns, which we hope will be soon.

We were sorry to hear some time ago that our old friend, Hartly Leflar, now of Calgary, was ill, but we hope he is alright again.

Mr and Mrs Durant attended the presentation party at the home of Mr McLachlan, baseline, on Friday. We look toward the sky on a gloomy day.

When the laden clouds hang low, And we know that beyond the clouds the sun Is casting a brilliant glow.

May the clouds roll away and the brilliant sun smile on us. Since writing the above we learn with deep regret that Hartly Leflar died about a week ago. We know the many friends of the family join us in extending sympathy to the bereaved.

A Peterboro soldier admitted at a local police court that he got drunk because, when he arrived at the church to get married the previous day, the bride did not turn up. She was in fact missing from the altar when she should have been altering from the miss.

The concert given by the Presbyterian Choir last Friday evening was in every respect a musical treat. The choir, of which Miss L. Brown is now leader, was in charge of Mr John Marsh, who was formerly director, and the excellent rendering of their several numbers was a tribute to the training received, the opinion being expressed that the music rendered was equal to that of any city choir concert. They were ably assisted by Mr Taylor, baritone and Miss Zeta Black, contralto, of Clifford, both vocalists of wide reputation and who added in no small measure to the enjoyment of the evening from a musical standpoint.

Presentation to Pte Robt. Keith

Expecting him over the week end, many of the friends and neighbors assembled last Saturday evening at the home of Pte Robt. Keith on the 11th con., to honor him on his enlistment. In addition to the boys present the address which follows, Wilbert Ross and Harvey Groat assisted in organizing for the presentation, the latter intending to read the address. A pleasant social evening was spent but Robt. did not arrive on the evening train as looked for and at 12 p. m. the gathering dispersed, leaving a fine wrist watch and fountain pen for him, along with the address. He had missed the C. P. R. train in Toronto and taking the C. P. R. which left 30 minutes later to Durham drove the 12 miles home, reaching home less than an hour after the gathering had dispersed. The address reads:

Holstein, June 10, '16

Dear Rob,-

To-night many of your friends and old schoolmates gather in your parental home to show our appreciation of your decision to help the Allies in the terrible conflict in progress. We trust that all our Canadian boys before going forth to fight for King and Country will enlist under
