COUNTY COUNCIL

Deputations for and against retaining Chatsworth High School had a warm time before the County Council. Those desirous of having it made a Continuation School claim that expense is being incurred and that it is too close to Owen Sound. Opponents point to steady growth in attendance and the undesirability of stepping backward. The Council took no action and High School it remains. On the petition requesting discontinuance were the names of 100 hachelors and 100 men who had no children to read.

Warden Cordingley's address gave thanks to Providence for the peace and prosperity of our country. In the midst of turmoil he requested the illness of two veteran servants of the County. Treasurer S. J. Parker and J. G. Miller, rejoiced that the prospect for good crops was so promising, touched on Finance and Assessment requirements on Roads and Bridges, rejoicing that in spite of frost, some damage had been done. His reference to war help we commend and quote in full:

"The great conflict in Europe is still raging with no apparent end in sight. Our country is still motivating and training men to go overseas to help the Motherland. You will no doubt be considering further grants toward patriotic schemes. Would it not be wise to appoint a special committee to deal with all such schemes as may be brought before us? Let us at any rate deal on the large broad and square plan with grants for the cause that will be helping us as men and citizens of a christian nation and for which the County of Grey has been noted in the past? That the disastrous results of this horrible war, the pain and suffering resultant therefrom may be relieved and the consumption of our plans brought to an early realization.

The Co. financial statement for the year was presented by Mr. John Parker and was "very satisfactory."

A deputation from Toronto made impressive appeals for the Red Cross and Patriotic Bazaar. The meeting a levy of 3 mills on the equalized assessment, apportioning 25 per cent to Red Cross, the balance to Patriotic Fund.

The County in response has done nobly by making grants of $90,000 to the two funds and practically unanimous. Payment will be made monthly and extend over two years. The levy required will be one and four-tenths mills, a rate of which no one can complain.

A grant of $900 was made to the recruiting league and $1200 to the 147th Battalion Fund.

England in Gloom

night acquired from me upon his arrival, if all nationalities were accepted as patients in the Ontario Hospital. Upon an affirmative answer, he remarked that he was very glad, for he had been shifted three times since being wounded for the reason that some hospitals keep only a certain class of patients. The Ontario Government has erected a free to-day hospital here and it takes second place to no institution of its kind. After to-night there will be nearly 400 patients in the hospital and it won't be long until the complement is reached now.

I have received several letters from home lately and am sure you are pleased to hear all that has been going on. All you say about motoring, gardening, house-cleaning &c., &c., interests me greatly and frequently the boys interchange family news though others are unaware of the persons concerned. Some of the fellows here are from London, Stratford and Listowel and have much in common with me. One of the Corporals here who is a first contingent man, and wounded last September, though recovered from injuries now, has been told that he is to receive the D. C. M. shortly for distinguished services in the field of action. The boys have another name for D. C. M. which is District Court Martial, but it does not apply in this case.

.....I want to get to France soon and when the opportunity comes I'll certainly grab it. I've been here two months now.

[From a letter received here same day as the foregoing, but dated 15th June, we quote the following:]

Saw Dr. Gun yesterday. He tells me that Gordon is transferring to the Mechanical Transport section of the Army Service Corps and as soon as the papers go through, he will be training at Shorncliffe Camp, where the headquarters of the Service Corps are. He saw Cecil in Perth but for a few hours one evening and that was on the eve of the great naval battle. While in Perth, Cecil received a message, demanding his instant return to the Osprey, as scout of the enemy was in the air. He returned but his vessel did not engage in the very much. He was especially delighted with Edinburgh. Passing north, he saw the Gr and Fleet, but on his return there was not a vessel in sight. At that time the fleet was nobly doing battle with the Huns.

Strange to say I haven't been in London for nearly two weeks now. We have received 3 convoys of patients within the past week and there are now 350 patients in the hospital. Many are convalescent. Several have only been 3 days outside of the trenches and can tell some thrilling tales. There are Australian, New Zealand and Imperial troops as well as our own. One of the New Zealanders is a Maori, the original natives of New Zealand. He resembles our Indians in appearance. One of the Australians told us of the landing at Suvla Bay in the Gallipoli. He was slightly wounded in that engagement. According to his story, the accounts in the papers you have read of this bloody episode are all very true.

Good-bye in the meantime—Charlie.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and marguerites. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of blue silk with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses. Her travelling dress was a French made gown of champagne shade with shoes to match.

Mrs Mesnard received many beautiful and valuable gifts which shored the high esteem in which she is held by her many friends both in Holstein and other places.
