PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

Miss Mather desires to announce that she will do trimming at the house this fall, and will endeavor to give satisfaction to patrons old and new at reasonable prices.

Messrs John Stothart and Harnie McLean shipped a carload of stock on Tuesday of this week.

Bohs McKinnon is at present engaged in one of the offices of the O. N. R. in Toronto.

Miss M. Wright is visiting in Durham for a while. The school children are still in temporary headquarters but the old school will soon be completed and will be much more comfortable for the coming winter than in previous years.

A would be orator was once pouring forth his eloquence to the disgust of his audience till finally getting exhausted, said "What more shall I say?" Some one down in the crowd shouted out "For goodness sake, say 'Amen' and sit down."

How many poor mothers boys are numbered with the slain is more than tongue can tell. In the Presbyterian Ch. Priceville, Sunday last, was Rally Day for our Sunday School.

The ladies always remember their meetings in making necessities for the boys preparing for war and those at the front. Many have contributed largely, one venerable old lady, Mrs. Jno Campbell, 1 1/2 miles from Priceville, making and sending 58 pairs of stockings since last January, besides what she sent before that time.

The Misses Sadie and Julia McKinnon of the S. Line, Glenelg, left a few days ago to spend some time in Toronto.

Mr Neil McConnell of Durham put up a fine monument in McNeil's cemetery at the town line in memory of his departed friends whose remains he intends to remove from Smellie's cemetery, Durham Rd, Glenelg.

Gaelic will be preached in the Pres. Church, Priceville next Sunday at 11 a.m.

Dr Lane met with an accident some time ago by getting a sprained wrist in some way but is now getting on fine. So physician beat thyself quickly for thy service is always in season, be it at noonday or midnight.

Wood cutting was the order on the south line last week by Mr Porter of Swinton Park. Threshing is pretty well done in general and there will not be much to do after the first week of October.

Geo. Watson, the mill man, made a good job of his mill dam. He is again at the business chopping every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Water is somewhat low yet.

School Days

Are close at hand. Don't forget that we carry a complete stock of all requisites. Give us a call.

Ernest McGill writes of his furlough in Scotland

Went Sandling Aug. 17 Dear Home Folks: I left Camp on Saturday forenoon just twenty hours before my pass began, but the M.P. didn't bother me.

Almost the first person I saw in Orling Cross Station was Charlie Hamago. So we went up to see Jim Farquharson but he wasn't in. When we were coming back from there we met two of the old 76th chaps who were attached to the Army Pay Office in London now, I guess they and the signallers are about the only ones left in England now.

I left London for Edinburgh at 11.30 and reached there at 8 o'clock next morning. Of course I found all the Binnies in bed but I got in all right. On Sunday afternoon the girls and I went out to Fortobello summer resort and got caught in a good shower of rain. In the evening we went to St. Giles Cathedral. It is quite interesting place, built entirely of stone.

WAR War is the science of destruction. —John S. C. Abbott War is a crime which involves all other crimes. —Brougham The law is silent during war. —Cleora If Christian nations were nations of Christians there would be no wars. —Somme Jenyns Battles are never the end of the war, for the dead must be buried and the cost of the conflict must be paid. —James A. Garfield

PEACE They shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. —Isaiah A PEACE is of the nature of a conquest For then both parties nobly are subdued. —Shakespeare And neither party loser. —Emerson But the real and lasting victories are those of peace and not of war.
