Sam Hughes' Successor

Hon. A. E. Kemp, M. P. for East Toronto, who has been minister without portfolio in the Borden cabinet since its formation in 1911, is Canada's minister of militia and defence, succeeding Lieut. Gen. Sir Sam Hughes. He was sworn in office by the Duke of Devonshire at Rideau Hall at 5.30 last Thursday.

A by-election will be necessitated by Mr. Kemp's acceptance of an office of emolument under the crown, and it will be held immediately. Nomination day will be December 14.

Nickel

The question of Nickel will not go down. The mere supposition that it is possible our nickel is finding its way to Germany to make munitions to shoot our boys is exasperating. Here are some opinions dealing with the question.

Sir Wilfred Laurier at Ottawa was most emphatic that in view of the statements that the "Deutchland" on her second trip to Germany was again carrying Canadian nickel, more thorough assurances than had been given up to the present should be given by the Government on the point.

Mr. Rowell at the meeting of the General Reform Association, as well as in Tilsonburg, showed how the Ontario Government had been remiss in the matter on two fundamental points. First, they had voted down the Opposition proposal that the production and sale of nickel in the province should be under government control, and secondly they had voted down the Opposition's resolution that the International Nickel Company should be taxed in accordance with the law and not allowed to escape with a paltry sum.

Mr. Dewar created a sensation by reading letters which he said showed that the International Nickel Company on their own admission in a letter written by their General Manager of Sales stated they were handling all their export business of metallic nickel through their London agents and Mr. Dewar showed that this London agent company had been dealing with the enemy, quoting a judgement of the Admiralty Prize Court in proof of his statement.

The Toronto World (Conservative) commenting on Mr. Dewar's speech said, "The startling charges of Mr. Dewar must be proved to the satisfaction of the flow of Canadian nickel to Germany munition works must be stopped. The men responsible for it must be punished and all the nickel plated Cabinet ministers must be required to private life. Hon. Frank Cochrane has close affiliation with the men who control the nickel trust and Mr. Hearst and Mr. Ferguson are his appointees."

The largest and most successful annual meeting of the General Reform Association of Ontario which has been held for years, was the one on November 24th. Concentration on winning the war, criticism of the government for its failure to handle the war adequately or even harmoniously within its own Cabinet and the Nickel question were the principal features of the day's discussion. Mr. E. M. McDonald, M. P. of Picton, N. S., Hon. Geo. P. Graham and Mr. N. W. Rowell were the leading speakers. Mr. Geo. Gibbon presented greetings from the Liberal Club Federation of Ontario. Mr. A. J. Young was re-elected President of the Association.

THE "ISTS"

Mother is a suffragist— She states the fact with pride; A motorist is father, And travels far and wide; Big sister Julia laughs at care, An optimist is she, While Brother Will's a Socialist— He's for Equality. Wee sister's a sonnambulist— She walks 'round in her sleep; And Cousin Nell's a futurist— Her pictures make you weep My Uncle Jim's a pessimist, Whose creaking never ceases; And Uncle Ike's a specialist In brain and nerve diseases. I guess I'm 'bout in all the list; But when I've grown I'll write my name "Ted Jones, a farmerist."

In Memoriam

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ANNIE NIVEN Beloved wife of G. H. Miller, who died December 4, 1915.

Just one year ago you left us Never shall your memory fade Loving thoughts will always linger Round the grave where you are laid We loved you yes no tongue can tell How deep how dearly and how well Christ loved you too and thought it best To take you hence with him to rest Yet again we hope to meet you When the day of life is fled When in heaven we hope to meet you Where no fare-well tear is shed FATHER AND MOTHER.

—Mr. Wm Munroe, a Montreal man, in an article in the Presbyterian points out that "according to official figures French Quebec has contributed to our overseas forces some 12,000 men and English Quebec about 25,000 men. Or, to put it in a still more striking way, French Quebec has recruited only four-fifths of one per cent of its population and English Quebec has recruited nearly eight per cent. The loyal province of Ontario has contributed only five and a half per cent."
