THE DURHAM REVIEW, DEC. 14, 1916

BEAVER CREEK

Well here we are again. Many are gossiping of what kind of weather we are going to have, we say that the storm on Monday night is a sign there is going to be a mild winter-

Mr and Mrs John McNally of the sixth concession were taken by surprise when a large crowd gathered heavy thunder storm on Monday to make a presentation, as they are moving to town to live. The meeting having convened at an appropriate time Mr RT Edwards called sheep pen. Mr John O'Donnell is order and read a suitable address to working at it. Mr and Mrs McNally and Miss Ena, The presents being a large table to Mr McNally, a beautiful setee to Mrs McNelly and silver knives and forks to Miss Eus. Mr McNally replied in a fitting manner. Chairman then called a program as follows : speeches by Geo Peart, Wm Cook, H Williams, R Martin, songe, recitations, ets, filled up a pleasant hour or two and following this supper was served and everybody ate a hearty meal. They then wended their way home wards. We wish the departing friends all happiness in their new tamily.
