PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

On Thursday night of last week there was a Patriotic Mass meeting held in Watson's Hall, in the interests of the 248th Bn. Rev. T. H. Ibbott of Holstein gave an illustrated lecture on the present war adding many personal touches, which made it the more interesting. The Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond" sung by Rev. Bowes was beautifully illustrated on the canvas. The audience joined in the singing of other songs, among which was "The Maple Leaf Forever," this latter being also heartily sung to the words: "Its Colonel Rorke, our Command- dear, Its Colonel Rorke forever. God save our boys And heaven bless Colonel Rorke forever."

cause for which the money was given and Mr O'Neil's marvellous patience held out till the last in spite of the great number of boxes to be sold. There were also a number of donations which helped to swell the funds. A chart (the clever idea of Mr Miller's) which registered each sale as it was made, kept up the enthusiasm of the crowd and when the objective, $500 was reached, great cheers filled the hall, and again when all expectations were exceeded and the chart registered $600 and over. The total receipts were $628.95 included a donation of $10.00 from Mr C Ramage of Durham. Leave it to Priceville to come out on top!

DEAD.—John McLean died at his home in Chicago on Sunday, March 11th, 1917, from the effects of a paralytic stroke. He left Shelburne on February 12th last after spending six months with his sister, Mrs R Morimer. He had been in poor health for nearly two years and early last spring he had a paralytic stroke, from which he never fully recovered. He came to Canada in August, 1916, with the hope that a change of air might be beneficial but it proved futile. Deceased was a native of Priceville, being the eldest son of the late Donald McLean, one of the pioneers of that village. Deceased when here last fall had the pleasure of attending the Priceville fall fair and meeting a number of old friends that he had not seen for forty years. He left Priceville when he was and this was his first visit back to his old home.—Shelburne Free Press.

The Wealth of England.

We take the following extracts from a letter received from Corp C C Ramage, dated 12 February, which give a glimpse of the part finance is playing in winning the war and some other matters:

"Our weather is loosening up again and once more we have the rain and slush and mud. For two weeks England revelled in a spell of fine dry weather which was also very cold. It was a new experience for the natives but it was perfectly natural for us who have come from overseas. The English whined about the cold but we only laughed at it and enjoyed it all.

You will notice the efforts to boost the big victory loan in England. Lloyd George is getting Parliament to give him a vote of credit for £550,000,000 or thereabouts, to finish the war, and if things are going the way they are planned for, Kitchener's three years may yet come true. The war loan is playing a very prominent part in every part of English life. Everybody is buying it but a few badly financed soldiers like myself. Some Canadian soldiers who have spent time in France and thus their wealth accumulated while abroad, have taken out the balance, in some cases as high as £700 0 and invested it in the stock. National appeals of every description have been thrown out to the people to purchase and in most cases they are certainly able to do so. The wealth concealed in some of these English homes is marvellous. Every kind of luxury and comfort is displayed and for solid comfort and a rest, give me the English country house every time. Few native Canadians realize what money is lavished on self, possessions, and estates in this country. I don't wonder that the govt to the elderly person is a commiseration here, for English people certainly know how to live well and do.

Tratlar Square is a strange sight at present. The monument is fully placarded with immense signs to induce people to part with their money and purchase the War Savings Certificates. The column itself is only outdone by the four walls of the square which is boarded also with patriotic messages to the people at this critical stage.

You ask about our routine: My offices like ours have entirely abandoned the ledgers as the Pay card system is very complete and much more practical. Every man is served with a Pay Book on arrival overseas, and this is his dearest treasure

WOMEN'S NERVES

Women, more than men, have excitable nerves, because tiring work and physical strain tax their more delicate nervous systems and bring premature age and chronic weakness—unless treated intelligently.

Drug-laden pills and alcoholic concoctions cannot build up a woman's strength, but the concentrated medicinal food properties in build strength from its very source and are helping thousands of women to gain control of their nerve power—overcome tiredness, nervousness, impatience and irritability. SCOTT'S is a liquid-food—free from drugs.

and he carries it continually about him for if this is lost, he can draw no money until a new book is issued and his balance entered in it and issuing a new book requires red tape. Money that is paid to the soldier is entered in his book which is supposed to be a correct record of payments. On pay day, the soldier's receipt (signature on Acquittance Roll) is opposite the amount he is paid, and these Rolls should be returned to the Head Office on that pay day. But here is where an error frequently creeps in, as some Paymasters do not comply with regulations as promptly as they should and thus a man's balance cannot be entered up to date. The ledgers in London are the official records of accounts though, though the Pay book is a good judge. These ledgers, (4 feet wide) are kept for the whole expeditionary force.

You will be pleased to read of the American attitude toward the Germans, though at this writing no official proclamation has been made but I suppose this is only a matter of time. England is very pleased to have the Americans on her side, even if she does not send an army overseas. American prestige and wealth counts a lot, though the American swank will boast "We had to finish it up for you," after the fighting has been done. However the fact that Germany is willfully bringing the USA into the struggle, gives self-admission that he is a beaten Kaiser and the only purport he can have in this is to be able to excuse himself to his people with the statement "We can't fight the whole world."

War office has now published orders that all Canadian women must return to Canada. This means the women who have come across the sea to be near their husbands, sons, brothers, etc., and it is stated that there are over 40 000 Canadians in England. The reasons for this step is more than one, 1st. The war might end suddenly and it would be a terrible task to transport a vast army back and this number of women as well, so it is their intention of having the wives all back in Canada to receive their husbands when the latter arrive. 2nd England is struggling hard enough to commissariat for her own population without caring for a large floating population. 3rd. Putting it strongly, as many do here, the women are proving a "d—n nuisance" in war time. Tendancy is to take men from their regimental duty and causing many desertions, etc.

Keep up the Food Supply and Help Make Victory Sure

"I AM assured that my people will respond to every call necessary to the success of our cause—with the same indomitable ardour and devotion that have filled me with pride and gratitude since the war began."

HIS MAJESTY KING GEORGE

OUR soldiers must be fed; the people at home must be fed. And—in spite of Germany's murderous campaign to cut off the Allies' Food supply, by sinking every ship on the High Seas—an ample and unfailing flow of food to England and France must be maintained.

This is National Service—Not to the Farmer only—But to YOU—to everybody—This appeal is directed

WE must unite as a Nation to SERVE—to SAVE and to PRODUCE. Men, women and children; the young, the middle aged and the old—all can help in the Nation's Army of Production.

EVERY pound of FOOD raised, helps reduce the cost of living and adds to the Food Supply for Overseas.

PLANT a garden—small or large. Utilize your own back yard. Cultivate the vacant lots. Make them all yield food.

WOMEN of towns can find no better or more important outlet for their energies than in cultivating a vegetable garden.

Be patriotic in act as well as in thought.
Use every means available—Overlook nothing.
