Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS MARTYR TO PAINS IN THE BACK

Halifax, N.S., Jan. 15, 1916. About eight months ago I read your advertisement in one of the Halifax papers offering a free sample of Gin Pills for the kidneys. I had been a martyr for years to intense pains across the back and decided to try Gin Pills. Before I had finished the third box I found myself free from pain.

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

Pres. Harry and Albert Hassard of the 24th were home over the week end on their last leave. Their mother accompanied them to Owen Sound Monday morning.

Pte. Archie Whyte left Monday evening to join his battalion (255th) in Toronto. They leave for overseas all a safe voyage and that they all may be spared to return to their friends and loved ones.

Mrs Matheson went to Toronto on Tuesday for a few days. Garric McTaggart is spending a while at his home here.

Mother's Day was recognized here last Sunday morning when a good address of children and parents was present and Rev. Matheson gave a good address on "What we owe to our Mothers."

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS Fine cool weather during the past week but no growth in any account. A large acreage of ground was seeded during the week and a lot to do yet.

Fall wheat in some places is not very promising on account of so much frost. Flour away up to $7.50 a hundred and prospects of going up higher.

Last Sunday was Mother's Day in all the churches. In the Presbyterian Ch. in Priceville a large crowd of old and young and middle aged were there and a good and profitable service was given by the Sunday School children doing their part and a good address by the pastor.

Our county is calling for aid, more soldiers needed and while we sympathize with the good mother, the poor father must be taken into consideration.

Two young boys who enlisted lately identified themselves by becoming members of the church before going away this Monday morning.

In a letter received from Pte Hector H McDonald from Otterpool Camp England, he states that the life of soldiers there are not the best.

BOOTHVILLE

Our correspondent has been silent for some time but the spring has wakened him from his long winter nap. Seeding is the order of the day.

Mr and Mrs Brathwaite of Durham visited at Mrs Noble Wilson's Sunday evening. Two boys of our burg were seen driving north Sunday.

Mr and Mrs W. J. and N. G. Wilson visited at Mrs F. Clark's recently. Mr G. Johnson and Dromora friends were seen passing through our burg Sunday evening.

Wedding bells are ringing. Sorry to learn of Mary Cameron's illness. Some of our young folks attended the presentation at Mrs Jas. Knox's home on Friday evening.

SWINTON PARK Mr and Mrs R. J. Porter visited last week in Hanover. Mrs Stoenham has returned to the city.

HOPEVILLE Farmers are more than busy seeding. The potato problem seems to be rather serious in this vicinity.

Mr and Mrs H. Watson spent Sunday at Mr Geo. Lepards at Hatherton. Quite an excitement here last Tuesday morning, when an aeroplane passed over.

It is rumored that Geo. goes out to Artemesia to look for potatoes on Sunday. Pte W. J. Knox and Pte F. Knox were home over the week end on their last leave before going overseas.

GLENELG CENTRE Seeding is nearing completion, the weather of the past week was all that could be desired and the land in excellent condition for cultivation.

Mr Frank Ryan of the 6th after an absence of several months is home from Detroit. Miss Aggie McRae, an employee of the Bell Telephone Co., Toronto, is home on a visit.

Mr and Mrs Jno. McVicar were in hospital in France in which he says his wounds were in his arm.

There are thousands of children who are bright but frail—not sick but underdeveloped—they play with their food—they catch colds easily and do not thrive—they only need the pure, rich liquid-food in

SCOTT'S EMULSION to start them growing and keep them going. Children relish SCOTT'S and it carries rare nutritive qualities to their blood streams and gives them flesh-food, bone-food and strength-food. Nothing harmful in SCOTT'S.
