WATCH US GROW!—We mean good old Upper Town. During the last two weeks the Stork has called at no fewer than five homes leaving little pledges behind that have not yet got onto the Assessor's Roll. Here is the list of happy fathers up to date: Colin Kennedy, Allan Cameron, Newell Falkingham, Jack Noble and John A Graham, the three last named having boys. Let us know if we have missed any.

CEMETERY IMPROVEMENT.—Friday last some 15 or 16 citizens gathered at the cemetery, dug post holes for a new fence in a grueling gravel bank, pulled off old wire, erected new posts leaving everything ready to string the wires on, and didn't feel a bit the worse for it. There is still easy work to do and Friday afternoon, 8th of June, is the time to do it. Hammers and saws will be useful, a few shovels and crowbars, and if any one has a pruning outfit useful work can be done on some of the trees. Dear reader will you go? Thank you.

LOST TWO TONS.—If all the freight train was going to the turntable at the G. T. R. Monday about 11.30 a. m. Horace Elvidge, station clerk, stepped on the back of the engine after setting the switch. The engine was going very slowly and he swung a little aside to allow the brakeman also to step up, when his foot slipped off the step on the rail and the wheel of the tender caught his toes on right foot. The crush on his shoe, caused it to split open on opposite side, thus fortunately releasing his foot and saving his large toe and two next to it. The engine was stopped in going 6 inches. It was a most painful accident and the sufferer was at once taken to Dr. D. B. Jamieson's where the foot was dressed, thence to his home. The pain was somewhat lessened in a day or two, and it will be a couple weeks before he can move around, we hope as briskly as ever.

MAID WANTED.—Apply to Mrs. Finley Graham or at Central Drug Store. A few days of middings and heavy chop for sale at once.

Deceased was Miss Mary McArthur and leaves two sons to mourn her loss, her husband having died some 12 years ago. She was 55 years of age. The funeral was delayed for a day to allow of the arrival of a brother from the West.

Tuesday to Thursday of next week will be stirring days in Baptist circles here. The 30th annual meeting of Owen Sound Association will be held in the Baptist Church and 80 to 100 delegates are expected. Rev. Mr. Wylie is Moderator, Mrs. J. A. Graham, Secy-Treas. Some brilliant speakers are expected and the evening meetings will be of general interest. Mayor Laidlaw gives the address of welcome on Tuesday night. Rev. W. L. McKay, L. L. D., Prof. Campbell, McMaster, Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, M. A. and Mr Senior all of Toronto are famous men.

A NONAGENARIAN PASSES.—There was laid to rest in Durham cemetery on Saturday last the mortal remains of Abraham Knisley who died at his home in South Egremont, two days previously. He had reached the great age of 92 years and survived his wife by over 20 years. For a number of years past he has lived with his two daughters near the old Robb post office, coming there from Creemore where he was well known. A large family of eleven children were born to deceased and his wife of whom five sons and four daughters survive. Two of the sons are well known here. Jesse in Durham and Ab. in Bentinck, the other members being widely scattered.

How Lance McGill was wounded
Mrs. Thos. McGill was gratified last week to receive the following letter from a chum of Lance's, which explains itself:

France, May 7, 1917
Dear Mrs. McGill:
No doubt you will be rather surprised to hear from me, a perfect stranger to you, but since I have heard to-day that Lance had been slightly wounded I thought you might appreciate a line from me.

Lance and I have been very good pals since we were in Galt and were on leave to Scotland together hence I felt sorry in one way to hear that he had been hit and in another way I felt glad that he would be out of it for a while at least.

I was speaking to some of the boys of his battery and they were telling me about it. Apparently he was walking through an old town that the Germans shelled considerably when one big shell fell some 200 yards away but a piece of flying shrapnel or brick hit him on the nose causing considerable blood of course, but not much of a wound and he'll get just a nice little rest out of it.

I wish for his sake that he would make England on it but I guess it is not serious enough for that. I expect to hear from him in a day or two.

Well I must close and get to bed as it about 2 a. m. and I have just got in from a night's work. Although the enemy were shelling pretty heavily, it was fine in the moonlight. Hoping that you are not worrying about Lance for he is better where he is than in the line here.

I remain, Yours sincerely,
Lieut. Mel Wilson,
16th Can. M. G. Co.,
B. E. F., France.

Good-Byes to the Searches
After about 17 years in Durham, Mr F. Search left on Tuesday for Georgetown, where he has profitable employment and his family leave to-morrow. During these years they have made many friends and will have life-long memories of Durham associations. On Friday evening last their home was invaded by a crowd of well-wishers who gave them a piece of their mind as seen below, accompanied by a clock and some cut-glass ware. Durham is sorry indeed to lose such good citizens, but best wishes follow them. Here is the address:

Dear Mr and Mrs Search:
We, your friends and fellow associates in Church life and work have heard with sincere regret that you are leaving us for another sphere and field of service. We have therefore come to spend this evening with you and to express in a practical way our appreciation of your worth.

You, Mr and Mrs Search, have been closely associated with the church for upwards of seventeen years and your family have grown up in this relationship. The breaking of such a long and closely welded tie must therefore cause grief and sorrow to one and all.

You have given your services heartily and earnestly for the furtherance of God's work in the church and we are confident that such faithful and devoted services will bring a higher and greater reward than any that man can bestow.

We shall miss you from our fellowship but we believe that the devotion and constancy so evident here in Durham, will be faithfully given to the town and church of your adoption.

We all wish you success and prosperity in your new home and work and it will be a joy to us to know that "God's blessing that maketh rich and addeth no sorrow," is upon you and yours. We now ask you to accept these presents as token of our esteem and respect.

May God bless you and keep you and unite us all in that endless life in which there will be no separation.
Signed on behalf of the Church:
W. W. WYLIE, Pastor

Full House Enjoyed "The Nodding Mandarin"
Though the local Committee were forced to cancel the day's sports planned for June 4th, owing to difficulty in securing leading attractions, they went ahead with the evening entertainment and with almost all seats at 50c, drew a crowded house.

The Hanover Ladies Gymnastic Club comprising about 30 young ladies of that town, supplied an excellent program, the play being the main feature and several of their exercises being given on its conclusion. "The Nodding Mandarin" is a Chinese opera and the costumes were appropriate to the occasion, gorgeous in design and hue. Throughout it is full of action, contains fine musical numbers, a vein of humor and even some vocal local bits. It culminates where the Emperor Hsiao (Miss I. Witthun), suffering from various ailments, threatens to behead the three doctors whose various cures have failed to benefit him. The Magician, Chang, (Miss A. Schaefer) offers for "muche money" to save them by causing him to laugh and very well did the cure work. On the doctors' reluctant consent, she brings into their presence "the nodding mandarin," which creates such merriment among all, even the indisposed Emperor, that he withdraws his decree and all ends happily.

During the presentation of the play, solo parts were well taken by Miss Dorothy Armstrong and N. Greetzner, the latter as "Britannia" also rendering a splendid patriotic number in the second part of the program. This was mainly folk dances, and Russian, Welsh, Swedish, English, and Irish Jigs were shown. The girls were most adept in these, the Russian being especially strenuous, and the audience were most appreciative of their exhibitions, many of them new here. An interesting fencing bout between two of the girls, judged by points, showed much dexterity, and followed by the "King" closed the program.

To the instructress, Mrs. Wm. Ruttle, special credit must be given for the thoroughness and attention she has freely spent on the Club's training. Her reward is in the public approval and support of their efforts, the Gymnastic Club having raised over $800 for Red Cross from their concert. The proceeds Monday night were $144, which goes to the Durham Red Cross funds.

The players came at their own expense in a fleet of nine McLaughlin cars, and after the concert, all the visitors, with several of the local committee, were entertained at the home of Dr. Jamieson M. P. P., by the local Red Cross ladies, light refreshments being served.

This will be your last opportunity to see them. Nearly three hours steady show. Admission 25c. Come.

We call attention to the stirring lines on page 8, "Where are God's Recruits?" Mr Ferguson has much latent poetic instinct and his latest effusion enhances his reputation as a poet.

WAR NOTES.—No striking developments in the war situation. A Social gathering at Stockholm is taking attention, encouraged if not planned by Germany. A possibility of naval activity is proving valuable. On assistance in the United States took place throughout the United States and 10,000,000 men registered. Russia, though still a weakness, seems to be stiffening up. Submarine destruction is being greatly lessened.

The Store where Quality Reigns Supreme

Tommy
By Joseph Hocking

This, our new serial story, is one of the very best written on the present war. The first instalment will appear in an early issue. You'll like Tommy; it is a strong, soul-stirring tale of the great world war that everyone in the family will enjoy. The hero is a Lancashire lad. He didn't want to go to war—not at first. "Let 'em as wants to fight the Germans fight 'em" said Tommy. Then one day he heard the cry of suffering Belgium; he heard the call of his own motherland—he gave up the best job he ever had and enlisted. He went to France; he fought a good fight—against himself as well as the enemy; he won the D.C.M. and—the best girl in the world. A splendid story splendidly told. Watch for the first instalment.
