PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

Very fine weather to-day—your readers have probably seen and heard the storm we had yesterday and last night but time is too precious now for discussing this and kindred matters.

The Government delegate, Mrs Greer, the Women's Institute delivered an address to the ladies in basement last Thursday informing them how to vote (when such privilege is offered them) intelligently not for party but for principle.

The waste paper, rags, rubbers (3500 lbs in all) expresses in no small measure the good will of those ever small towards Red Cross Work. Last year this quantity would have netted about $3 this year the price given is only about half yiz $16.21 the freight on above being $6.69. Thank you ladies and keep up this good work. Do not waste or burn any thing unless unsanitary that can be turned to money.

The sincere sympathy of the whole community is expressed for little Stewart Muir, only son of Peter Muir, who had to have an operation performed at his home, was assisted by Dr McLean and Nurse McDonald has charge of the little patient who is only about 6 years of age.

The family of Mr Thos Harrison mourn the loss of their 10 months old baby girl who passed away very suddenly from what appeared to be mumps—funeral to-day.

Fathers and mothers of boys who are in the trenches for nearly two years are longing to see some movement towards reinforcing the boys or better still having others fill their places in defence of homes and country.

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

Gaelic communion will be held in the Presbyterian church here on the first Sunday in July at the usual hour 11 in the forenoon.

The weather is beginning to look summer like—good growth now. The showery weather suits the hills fine, but flat ground not so well.

Rev Mr Bowes is leaving Priceville Methodist congregation and a Rev Mr Jones, an aged gentleman, is coming in his place. However age is not to

On Route Marches in England

Pte. Hector McDonald writes home

Dear Father;
We just got in about 14 hours ago from a brigade Route march about 16 or 17 miles, the first of the kind we have had since coming to this country and I guess about the hardest we have ever had but nevertheless we all stood the strain very well and next Monday they figure on having a march of about 22 miles.

We left here at 8:20 this morning and got home about 5:30 and of course stopped a couple of hours for dinner under the shade of some large spreading oaks. The roads here are great for marching on. Nearly all of them are paved or macadamized and the majority of them over which we passed to day had nice trees on both sides so that the sun did not have a chance to strike us very much. It is certainly about this time of the year that we would prefer to see and then the amount of buildings and places one runs across on his travels are wonderful. We crossed one stone bridge to-day near Eshing P O which they say is over 800 years old. Even older than the first buildings in Canada or even Priceville!

We are having fine weather these days but it is plenty warm especially for marching. We are still sticking together as the same battalion as when we left Toronto but do not know if we will remain together till we go to Flanders or not. We never know what is ahead of us. I think I told you before that we had been transferred to the 5th division and are under much the same organization as when at Camp Borden Major General Garnet Hughes is Commander in chief of the division, a son of the well known Sir Sam and so far as I can learn, he seems to be pretty well liked and is no doubt as clever as his noted Father.

Yesterday, the 24th, was a holiday for the Canadian troops here so they had a celebration at Gidalming, a small town about three miles from here, which consisted of sports of different kinds and tug of war and baseball match and altogether was much like the field days held in Canada on such days. Of course there was a large crowd there.

Yes it will be quite lonely for uncle Donald and aunt Christy now. It was all the harder on account of their coming so close together. I got 5 Reviews and some Globes from Aunt Flora Wednesday so they were all read early supposing they were over a month old. We have not had very much mail since coming to this camp and no letters yet in answer to the ones I wrote since coming here but I am sure there are some held up some place.

I got a letter from Mr Matheson and answered it soon after. I also wrote to uncle Donald not long ago. Trusting you are all well, as I am. Kind regards to all from Hector.

EDGE HILL

Messrs Arthur Greenwood and W. J. Ritchie, Misses Nora Williams and Maggie Edge and Mrs Jno Firth took in the S. S. Convention at Ebenezer on Tuesday.

Miss Lavina Mortley is a visitor at Mr Thos. Greenwood's.

A Red Cross sewing bee was held at W. J. Ritchie's last Thursday when quite an amount of sewing was completed. The collection was $1.10. The next meeting will be at Misses McFayden's on Thursday of this week.

Mr Jos. Cook, of near Hanover, visited his niece, Mrs T. Greenwood, on Tuesday, while returning from the funeral of Mrs Robt Cook of Ceylon.

The friends and neighbors of Mr and Mrs Thos. Greenwood met at their home on Monday evening to honor them before leaving for their new home in Durham suburbs. They were presented with a handsome address card and an appreciative address read by the chairman, Mr Dan Edge, to which Mr Greenwood appropriately replied. Short addresses were given by the chairman, Messrs Jno Moffat, Jno Firth and W. Ritchie, Durham, recitations by Messrs T. J. and Wm. Morrison, and with music and social commingling, a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Baptists Meet in Durham

The 30th Annual meeting of the Baptist churches of the Owen Sound Association was held in the Durham Baptist church on June 12, 13 and 14. The session opened at 2 p. m. when the Moderator, the Rev. W. W. Wylie, pastor of the church, took the chair. Addresses were given by Rev. M. Neilson of Paisley, Mr. W. E. Senior of Toronto, and Rev. J. C. Brown and Rev. T. T. Shields, both of Toronto. A splendid representation from different Churches were in evidence right from the start. Dr. Shields and Dr. Brown gave very stirring messages. Dr. Brown dealing with the missionary enterprise among the Telegus. Dr. Shields held a conference in the afternoon on Home Mission Work and in the evening gave an excellent exposition on the "Elder Brother" as told in the story of the prodigal son. The Rev. V. L. Shantz of Chesley, also favoured the congregation with an address. Not the least of these addresses was the address of Welcome given to the Delegates by the worthy Mayor, Mr. Wm. Laidlaw, and we heard one of the pastors say, that "the Mayor has given us the privilege of visiting every public institution in town, but the Saugen, perhaps he is afraid we might go fishing." Rev. McIntosh responded to the Mayor, and Rev. Leopold responded to the greetings from the Churches brought by Rev. Mr. Whaley and Rev. Mr. Moyer. Wednesday, the ladies had first place, the men going to the Methodist church for their conference, which had been kindly lent to them and which they appreciated very much.

Addresses were given at the ladies meeting by Mrs. Rev. Wylie, "Our Task conducted" which was very much appreciated also, Mrs. McIntosh, Owen Sound, on "Systematic Giving" a very timely message. Mrs. C. Brown of Durham gave the address of welcome and all were delighted with it, nothing lacking as regards courtesy and good will in her address. Mrs. Pickard of Warton replied in her own happy way. Addresses were given also by Mrs. Thompson of Owen Sound, Mrs. Rev. McEwen of Warton and Mrs. Solman, returned missionary. Special music was rendered very sweetly by Rev. Mr. Shantz of Chesley, and also Miss Lottie Day of Owen Sound. Wednesday night service suffered in numbers through the storm, but the program was a splendid one, Rev. C. C. Anderson of Meaford, giving an address on "Christ and our Helplessness," also Rev. W. Daniel B. A., of Toronto giving an address of the work in the West.

The Rev. Judson McIntosh of Owen Sound, preached the annual sermon, an abstract of which follows. He took his text from 1 Chron. 12:36 "Men that had understanding of the times to know what Israel had to do; experts in war; all these came to make David King."

It was difficult he said to discover the heroic quality of our own times. We live in a new age, in a time of upheave dwarfing the great revolutions of the past. Woe to the Christian leader who is content to abide by the standard that was considered adequate up to 1914. The shadow of change is upon us, good or ill and an unprecedented demand is going to be made upon us for reality, for efficiency, for sacrifice and for the delivery of a vital message. What new and better world will rise out of this world catastrophe we know not, but one thing is sure, changes are at hand.

Given such men as the text records: skilled, fearless, energetic, capable, loyal and united, they are irresistible, no danger can frighten, no difficulty appal, they were fixed with a mighty purpose to make David King, and this clearly should be the purpose of Christians of today to make King, Great David's greater Son. This is our purpose, if not let us stop praying "Thy Kingdom come."

There is coming, he said, a new reverence for God and for sacred things, signifying that the world is keenly conscious of its need of God. Not only a reverence for God but a vital belief in the personality of Jesus. He lived and died in obscurity, but strangely, when the world thought they were rid of Him, His personality still impressed, and continues to impress in a manner and measure equalled by no other personality. His personality is becoming more real, He gives comfort on the battle field as well as in the home, and to find Him is to find God.

There was coming also a new reverence for Democracy. It was seen among the nations to-day: an enthusiasm for humanity, and race antagonism must yield to the spirit of Christianity which is essentially democratic. This furnishes an opportunity to the churches, especially our Baptist church with its democratic leanings and its insistence on vital union with Christ.

Christianity has not failed. We see to-day an outpouring of sacrificial sympathy for the wronged, the suffering the bereaved. Men deliberately choose the hard place or the obscure place of helpfulness, and parents bravely and silently give their sons, sustained by the living Christ. So times like these constitute a call for men who will recog-

War Notes

The Capture of Messines Ridge

After a carefully rehearsed plan of attack in which the details of the region to be assailed were reproduced in miniature and studied by the troops to be employed, General Haig, on June 7th, made another successful drive against the German line.

The whole bombardment preceding the infantry attack on Messines Ridge eclipsed anything in the history of the war. Imagine if you can the effect of an explosion of twenty mines containing six hundred tons of explosive far stronger than dynamite. The positions won are most important and besides the great numbers of Germans killed, more than seven thousand were captured along with twenty guns. The British losses were surprisingly small.

The Messines Ridge is not as high as Vimy Ridge but being the only high ground in a large sweep of territory it is recognized as the key to the northern part of the western front and the enemy had hoped to hold it indefinitely, so strongly was it fortified. With it in our possession we may look for other great advances in Belgium.

Russian Affairs

The Russian situation is still a worry for the Allies. Sometimes the news is reassuring and sometimes alarming. The rebel organization that had taken Kronstadt has surrendered to the Provisional Government. Two Ansirian generals have visited Kisenoff with offers of a separate peace to the Committee of Workmen and Soldiers' Council. Their arrest was ordered by the Government. The bankers and business men of the country have passed resolutions pledging loyalty to the cause of the Allies and protesting against mob rule, and the Congress of Poles called upon the army to submit to discipline and defend the country against revolutionists. The situation while grave is not helpless, though as she is now Russia will not fight, says one correspondent.

United States at Work

Our esteemed ally and neighbor is losing no time in lending aid to our common cause. Money, wheat, munitions, equipment and men are being forwarded to the overseas centres. Last week a cargo of 13,500 tons of wheat was safely taken to France and 100 aviators arrived in the same land.

General Pershing, chief of the United States forces in Europe, accompanied by his staff of 57 officers, arrived in London and received a formal and hearty welcome.

nize the fact of God, who are dominated by the Spirit of Christ's personality and who are impelled to extend the Kingdom of Heaven. "Of such a life death will be but an incident on the way home."

Thursday was a great day for great speeches and what a lot of Durhams were conspicuous by their absence and what a lot they missed. "Christ and our hunger" by Rev. J. Leopold of Hanover, "The Sermon that the World needs" by Rev. E. J. McEwen of Warton, "Emphasizing our Distinctive Principles" by Rev. W. S. Buckborough of Port Elgin, "Christ and our Deadness" by Bro. Buckborough, "Christ and our Fruitlessness" by Rev. Bilton, Strathavon.

Professor F. S. Campbell of McMaster University spoke on the Value of Education and "Essentials for a Revival." Rev. W. W. Wylie on the Problems of the day. Problems "Of pain," "Fallen heroes," "Church Life," "Education," "Of Wealth in its relation to Poverty" Political Problems, "Conscription," "Problems to be met with 'The Word of God,'" "Spirit filled Life" and "Our Work directed by the Spirit." The Rev. P. K. Dayloft of Toronto also spoke on behalf of the Young People's work and held a Conference on Sabbath School work. The whole session was filled with inspiration and blessing. Every delegate went away feeling that this gathering had been one of the best in every way, and much appreciation was expressed for the splendid hospitality and kindness that was shown to them by people of Durham and their Baptist friends. The list of officers follows for 1917-1918:
