June Weddings.
NEWELL-WEIR
 In the presence of only the immediate relatives, a quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized at 5 p. m. Wednesday, June 27, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Weir, Glenelg, when their daughter Miss Ethel Irene, was united in matrimony to Mr. John Newell of Durham son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Newell, also of Glenelg. Rev. S. M. Whaley, her pastor, officiated and Miss Lizzie Weir, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride's dress was of satin de chene, and she carried a bouquet of maiden hair ferns and roses, while her suit was of navy, with hat. The popularity of the young couple was attested by the many valuable gifts received. They will take up residence on Countess St., Durham, north of the C. P. R. station. The Review joins their many friends in extending good wishes, on the inception of their trust, a long and prosperous wedded future.

GILLIES-McCREERY
 The marriage was solemnized at Dunn Ave. Presbyterian Church, of Edna Leonard, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCreery, Toronto, to Mr. D. Gillies, also of Toronto. The bride, who was unattended, wore a suit of green broadcloth and large, black hat. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Gillies left for a trip to Owen Sound and on their return will reside in Parkdale.

COOK-CORRELL
 A pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday at the home of the bride, 348 Bartlett ave Toronto when Alva Muriel Lucilla, eldest daughter of Samuel K. and the late Eliza Correll, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Thomas Cook, son of Mr. W. J. Cook, Eborvale, County Grey, Ontario. The bride, given away by her father, was unattended, and was becomingly gowned in white silk, and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Her veil was arranged in Juliet cap style, with orange blossoms and pearls. Rev. I. B. Wallin, pastor of Westmoreland Methodist Church, officiated. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Edith Hudson. Miss Sarah Correll, sister of the bride, was hostess of the evening. Some of the out-of-town guests were: Miss Jennie Cook, Eborvale; the Misses M. A. and E. E. Edge, of Edge Hill, Durham; and Rev. F. G. and Mrs. Stotesbury, Holland Centre. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will reside at Eborvale, Ont.

Bilingualism and Imperialism
 Owing to no advertising outside of pulpit announcement, the lecture by Rev. H. A. Fish, Crange organizer, in the Town Hall Monday evening on the above subject was slimly attended. Messrs Wm Ritchie, James Lloyd, and A. Bell, officers of the local lodges, were seated on the platform. The meeting opened with "Onward, Christian Soldiers" and prayer by Rev. Mr. Dymond, after which Rev. E. S. Moyer, the chairman, who newly joined the Order, gave a brief address.

In an hour and a half's splendid discourse, Rev. M. Fish held the rapt attention of his audience. His talk strongly brought out the peril to Canada of allowing bilingualism to spread. He had been an Orangeman for 20 years, been speaking for 5 years, and stated that if the R. C. Church would keep out of politics, the Orange Association would cease activities. One of the first things taught Orangemen is to keep peace with R. C. people. A few of his points were: Many French-Canadians had migrated to Ontario from Quebec to get away from the parish system, where in Quebec many places one-fifth the size of Durham had churches worth $50,000 to $100,000; once these immigrants seemed the balance of balance of power in a school section, they had the French language and religious services taught in the public school, which the Govt. had now done away with by making English the only language; the French-Canadians were urged to raise large families were doing so and thereby gradually gaining influence in Ontario and Canada; old France had not been so milarily increasing in population, was now being bled white for men, and would give millions for them; the Orange order was strongly represented in the Canadian forces at the front; the Roblin government was defeated by the Orange vote in Manitoba and the present Norris govt. had enacted good school regulations,—every child must attend, and English the only language taught, though 58 are spoken. Space does not permit of further detail. In his peroration, he appealed to the ladies here to organize lodges, and for support of four homes of child orphans kept up by the Orange Society, as well as for increased membership in the local lodges. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the speaker at the close.

The Store where Quality Reigns Supreme

This, our new serial story, is one of the very best written on the present war. The first instalment will appear in an early issue. You'll like Tommy; it is a strong, soul-stirring tale of the great world war that everyone in the family will enjoy. The hero is a Lancashire lad. He didn't want to go to war—not at first. "Let 'em as wants to fight the Germans fight 'em" said Tommy. Then one day he heard the cry of suffering Belgium; he heard the call of his own motherland—he gave up the best job he ever had and enlisted. He went to France; he fought a good fight—against himself as well as the enemy; he won the D.C.M. and—the best girl in the world. A splendid story splendidly told. Watch for the first instalment.
