The Jubilee of Confederation 1867-1917

YOU will surely want to know much about the beginnings and history of Confederation at this time of national celebration.

MACLEAN'S MAGAZINE for JULY

This Magazine gives you the finest and most interesting survey of Confederation you will find in any periodical.

Portraits of the Fathers of Confederation—the statesmen who launched Canada on her career of brilliant destiny.

Statements from the Premiers of Canada's provinces interpreting the meaning of Confederation and defining the outlook, in regard to their respective provinces.

A story—"The Draft" by A. C. A. L. A. dealing with the part that certain courageous and adventuresome Canadians took in the American Civil War, just before Confederation.

The story of the C. P. R.—told by C. N. McIntosh, a man who knew intimately the men who initiated and built and developed the Canadian Pacific Railway—the cord of Confederation.

The Industrial and Business Development of the Past 50 Years—by W. A. Craik. A wonderful story of progress.

Conditions Before Confederation Contrasted with Those of Today—by Frank Yeigh. An enjoyable study of contrasts.

Beyond these special Confederation features of the July MACLEAN'S will be the customary provision of fine, short stories, and the departments which make MACLEAN'S Magazine so enjoyable and valuable to good Canadians everywhere.

The Durham Review

JUNE 28 1917

DOES ADVERTISING PAY?

The following is from the Meaford Express, and is applicable to conditions in Durham just as well as in Meaford:

Many of our exchanges are considering the advisability of accepting advertising from the departmental stores as a means of bringing their business up to a better paying level.

Years of merchandizing with some men have not changed their minds apparently and their businesses are beginning to look the part.

As for prices we find the merchants of Meaford are quite ready to pay for results and judging from the users of these columns our advertisers are surely getting the results.

In Brampton and Newmarket the local merchants have now a new battle to fight and that is branch offices of Toronto's big stores.

MULOCK

Next Sunday, Dominion Day, will be observed in the Church here with a special service of Repentance and Prayer.

The Children's Service held last Sunday was a splendid success. The children responded to the invitation of the Pastor to bring some object, with a written text attached.

Mrs Jno McGilivray is visiting Gensel and Priceville friends this week.

Mrs Andrew Hastie and son Douglas attended the funeral of the late Archie McDonald of Port Elgin last week.

Miss Sadie McDougall, Hamilton, is holidaying with her many friends.

Miss Catherine Wyhe of Durham is spending a week's holiday with Misses Jessie and Flora Clair.

Mr Aaron Jacklin, Miss Fursman and Miss Mamie Bott were visitors at Mr Geo Brown's on Sunday.

STEEL BRIDGE

Garden parties and picnics are the order of the day.

Mr and Mrs Wm Willis Sr. and Miss Blanche Sumption spent an afternoon with Mr and Mrs John Hudson.

A number from this burg attended the Red Cross garden party at Mr Eph Martin's and all report a good time.

Those from a distance who attended the Jones-Hudson wedding were, Mr and Mrs George Peart and Miss Mary Peart, Mr and Mrs John Peart and Master Willie of Traverston.

Jones - Hudson Nuptials

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr and Mrs John Hudson, Bopitok, on Wednesday, June 20th, at 5 o'clock when their eldest daughter Mary E was united in marriage to Leslie Jones of Toronto, eldest son of Mr and Mrs James Jones of Brandon, Man.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl sunburst, to the bridesmaid a pearl bar pin, and to the groomsmen a pearl tie pin.

DORNOCH

Rain is the order of the day. If it keeps on, we will all be web-footed.

Mr and Mrs J Dargavei and son motored out and spent Sunday with the former's mother and sister.

Miss Ella Barber spent the week end with her friend Miss I Dargavei.

Mr Alex McIntosh has purchased a fine new McLaughlin buggy.

Mr Jim Vasy had the misfortune to have four young cattle killed by lightning Monday eve.
