UNION GOVERNMENT OR?

The Military Service Bill passed the Senate with a larger majority than expected and the impetus thus given should surely have led to action of some kind to advance conscription. I read we saw the other day the bill laid aside and the attention of the government and the House given to the proposed purchase of the

Liquor Advertising Barred

Ontario and other prohibition Provinces get the right, through their Legislatures, to put the ban upon liquor advertising. The mails are denied to circulars and letters soliciting orders for liquors. The publication of liquor advertisements within those Provinces may be made a punishable offence; moreover—which is the most radical provision—any prohibition province may prohibit the entrance of any newspaper published outside its territory, which contains liquor advertisements.

The new "temperance bill" making these provisions went through committee and received its third reading in the house on Saturday.

Letter from Pte L. G. Bovington

The following letter was recently by Mrs J. Vassie, Rocky Sausage, from an old Rocky boy, at the front, which we are pleased to reproduce:

France, July 8, 1917.

Just a few lines to let you know I am well and that I got your letter and was glad to hear from you. You talk of a thunder storm; we had one last night and it was a good one. What with the thunder and the big guns I tell you it was some noise. I didn't know about Alex. Wallis, he was not with our bat. Fred Torry is well and healthy. Give my respects to all. Sorry to hear Walter has been sick. You hear so much about people getting killed, but watch the papers. Well, this is some country—just a wreck. My address is Pte L. G. Bovington, D Company, 13 Platoon, No 888028, 4 C. M. R., B. E. F. France. Be sure and put this address on as lots of letters go astray because the Company is not on them. This is some life; it can quit anytime for mine but I think it will soon be over. Say save a piece of pumpkin pie for me when I get back—all you get out here don't kill you, Well I must close as the bullets they whistle and the cannons they roar. By-Bye
L. G. B.

He immediately ran for the barn to save some of the contents. Upon entering he saw there were three calves had run into the shed. These were saved along with the harness, buggy and outfit.
