PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY Amid "Whirlwinds of Shot and Shell"

Some have messes in this locality, but not bad. We heard Finley McConaig of Top Cliff bought Mr Dan McDonnell's fine farm in Bontineck lately at a good price.

The funeral of the late Mr Blakiston took place from his son-in-law's place, Old Durham Road, on Monday afternoon, October 22nd.

We had heavy showers of snow on Monday, Oct. 22nd, but it did not last long. Quite a lot of potatoes, to take up yet and lots of threshing to do too.

Mr and Mrs Blakiston accompanied the remains of the former's father from Stratford. He was laid aside in the new cemetery and many here will remember him as a respectable gentleman, a good, kind neighbor and friend.

Those who moved the remains of friends here not so long buried and some of the monuments are Donald and Alex McLean, Alex Muir, Mr and Mrs Alex McNeill, father and mother of the donor of the cemetery, Dr Hugh McNeill of Chicago; Mrs Alex McLeod; Don McMillan's son and daughter; Donald Matheson, son of Rev. Mr Matheson, Mr and Mrs Neil McCasland Sr; Neil McLean, who died in Montana, and others.
