We are also glad to know that Pte Clarence Ross, at present in Etimont Hospital, England is not seriously wounded. We hope both he and Jack will come home safe and well to see the young brother recruit.

Notice to the Public The undersigned wishes to inform the public that after November 13th, he will not accept any stock that is not bought on account of the uncertainty of knowing the amount of stock that will be brought in to complete a load, and will reserve the right to ship whatever day in the week he choose. GEO. SCHRAM

Our sympathy and our admiration goes out at the same time to Pte Roy Eccles, who has been seriously wounded, doing his duty so nobly for his Country while so many are being favored with exemption. It is to be hoped that none of the latter have emerged with the reputation of being "fibbers of the purest ray serene," and that Roy may be fully restored to health. In sympathizing with the Exemption Board in their very responsible position, 'tis a pity that so many should have sought exemption under the strenuous circumstances which our country is confronted with. The opprobrious term of shirker or slacker, can never be applied to Roy, or any of the others who have gone so willingly and so fearlessly to the front. We join also with the many friends of Mr Wm Davis of the 2nd con. in sympathy with the loss of his son Cecil who has made the supreme sacrifice. Mrs Jos. Lawrence is recovering slowly from her attack of pleurisy and pneumonia. Mrs P. Muir is at present on a visit to her sister Mrs Jos. Moore.

ORCHARD Mrs Ruttle and family are visiting Mr Brown's near Mt Forest. The Orchard Annual S. S. Xmas tree will be held on Dec 27th. Mrs J. Blyth left Wednesday morning to visit her daughter in Galt. Prayer meeting will be held at Mrs Robt Robertson's on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Mr Wm Nelson and sister Lizzie visited their sister Mrs Jno Dickson on Sunday. The Red Cross Society sent away nine boxes last week to the boys and left from here. Mr and Mrs Nelson Carmount of Glendon visited the latter's brother Mr Jno. Kirby the end of the week.

Gen. Maude, leader of the British forces in Mesopotamia, died last week after a few days' illness. The German rush into northern Italy has been checked. British and French men and munitions have no doubt helped. Lord George announced that Saturday five enemy submarines were destroyed. Submarine losses for last week were the lowest since this warfare started.

Mr and Mrs Thos Tucker of S. Glensh is lately installed a fine piano in their home, a Classic design. The Auction sale of Mr Crawford Harrison passed off fairly successfully on Friday last, realizing good prices. Some not coming up to expectations were held in reserve. It fell to the lot of Mr Jas Banson to see the wild cat referred to last week, or else a close relation of it. It kept on the path ahead and even "fizzed" at him we are told. Anyone could almost face a savage hun after such an experience. Now you hunters!

Messrs Wm Martin and Alex Darroch of Minto Tsbp were good enough to bring home Miss Louisa Ramage on a visit to her old home on Saturday last. Mr and Mrs Wm. Moore and baby, Durham and Miss Edna Ritchie visited at the home of Mr and Mrs D. Hamilton, Sunday. Miss Sadie McEachren, the popular teacher of S. S. No. 13, visited her mother who is ill, last week end and resumed her duties again on Tuesday morning.
