

Production & Thrift

Produce More and Save More
42. Make Your Labor Efficient
Save Materials from Waste
Spend Your Money Wisely
It is War Time

The Durham Review

War Measures

FIGHT PAY PRODUCE SAVE
It is War Time

With which is incorporated Holstein Leader

VOL. XLI NO 15

DURHAM, THURSDAY APRIL 11, 1918

Published Weekly at $1.50 a Year
SAMAG & SON PUBLISHERS

OWNERS OPICS

Mr. N. W. Campbell has purchased a home in Toronto, not far from where her sister, Mrs. Lennox, resides.

The regular monthly meeting of the I. O. D. E. will be held in the High School on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Commencing on Monday of this week the Durham rural mail couriers leave about 1 p. m., after the distribution of the noon mail.

FARM CHANGE - Mr Campbell, Dundas-moor has sold his fine farm on the 2nd con. Bentinck, to Mr McKill Grierson, the purchase price being $6,400.

Will have a supply of Coal during April and May. Leave your orders at Central Drug Store or phone No. 29

Season tickets for the Chautauqua Festival in Durham April 18, 19, 20, are on sale at Variety store, drug stores and J. H. Harding's.

Although officially announced missing, Lieut. Stewart Wilson, the popular young Hanover officer of the 147th Battalion, has called home that he is in a hospital with a slight wound in the head.

A Review subscriber writes from a small town in the Canadian West as follows: "I notice Durham is having a Chautauqua Festival and as this is no doubt a new thing to many, I am pleased to state it has been a decided success here so much so that the people were unanimous in endorsing the return of the Festival for another season."

Mr George Leslie of Eden Mills, has a pure bred Durham cow, that has a record that is deserving of special mention. In two months less than two years this cow has given birth to no less than seven calves and four of the youngsters arrived in the last 11 months plus two days.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

Entire Change of Program for each Chautauqua Concert

April 18, 19, 20 - "Three Joyous Days" for Durham. Six entirely different programs, 3 afternoon and 3 evening, with entire change of talent each day.

FOR SALE - A quantity of Turnips. Otto Konold, R. R. No. 1, Pricewille.

FOR SALE - Pure Bred Barred Rock eggs $1.00 per setting. Apply to Neil Clark, R. R. 2, Durham.

Dog owners in Niagara Falls, Ont. and some other places have to keep them chained up from May to October because "gardens are more important than dogs."

The ladies of the Bunesan Red Cross Society wish to extend their most hearty thanks for the donation of $50.50, the proceeds of Topcliff Box Social.

Pte. A. C. Hopkins, a former editor of the Chatsworth News, died of wounds, being at first reported seriously wounded, as he enlisted in the 147th batt., and leaves a widow and one child.

The fine Towner residence on Bruce street, sold to Mr. J. Levine two weeks ago has been again sold, Mr. J. P. Hunter being the purchaser. Mr. Hunter has not decided when he will vacate his residence in Upper town.

A Review subscriber writes from a small town in the Canadian West as follows: "I notice Durham is having a Chautauqua Festival and as this is no doubt a new thing to many, I am pleased to state it has been a decided success here so much so that the people were unanimous in endorsing the return of the Festival for another season."

Mr George Leslie of Eden Mills, has a pure bred Durham cow, that has a record that is deserving of special mention. In two months less than two years this cow has given birth to no less than seven calves and four of the youngsters arrived in the last 11 months plus two days.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

On April 2nd, the Saugeen Red Cross workers met at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Meisosh. 12 towels, 2 d y shirts and 2 hospital robes were made, and one pair of socks started. 1 comforter was quilted which was donated by Mrs. Donald McKechnie Sr. and a collection of $3.55 was taken.

What the Chautauqua is

These Festivals are intended for the entire community, town and country, and their great purpose is to stimulate an atmosphere of community development.

They are inspirational, educational, uplifting, combined with amusement, providing the highest character of entertainments. The West, where Chautauquas are well known, is enthusiastic over them, and people come distances of twenty to thirty miles there for the privilege of attending them.

Thursday afternoon, April 18 - After an address of welcome from our local committee, responded to by the Festival Superintendent, the Hampton Court Singers will present a "How-do-you-do" miscellaneous musical program that promises to be a rare treat.

Thursday evening - The Hampton Court Singers will present their famous Elizabethan program of motion songs and sketches, in the beautiful costumes of Elizabeth's Court, ending with the amusing Irish sketch, "Kerry Courtin'."

Friday afternoon, April 19 - The Lyceum Arts Club Orchestra of Chicago, six beautiful and talented young ladies will present a lively, popular program, featuring Miss Beulah Truitt, reader and entertainer.

Friday evening - After a grand concert by the Ladies Orchestra, Samuel W. Grathwell, a fascinating and instructive speaker, will give his lecture entitled "Getting By Your Hoodoo."

Saturday afternoon, April 20 - Capt. W. H. Hindley, of Winnipeg, one of Canada's most noted preachers, will lecture on "The Nation's Needs."

Saturday evening - One of the most unique and worth while attractions in the world - an extraordinary entertainment by J. H. Balmer and his wonderful singing Kafir boys, assisted by Miss Elsie Clark of Rhodesia, South Africa.

Section Tickets for $1.50 - All six concerts for $1.50 if you buy a Section ticket at once. Buy them early for only 30c will be sold, and after noon of first day, if any should be left, the price will be $2.00.

Reserve your Tickets - For only 50c for the six concerts, or 10c per single concert, you may secure a reserved seat. The reserved tickets are going fast - plans are at Harding's store.

Speaker Avoids Frills and Remembers Soldiers - One of the real war-time economies of the last Legislature was the saving made by the Speaker, Hon. David Jamieson, in doing away with the many functions which were common in ante-bellum days.

Women's Institute - The monthly meeting of this body was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Dan McAuliffe, and it was one of the most interesting and enjoyable for some time.

Educational Parliament

A thousand or more educationists assembled in Toronto last week at the O. E. A. annual gathering. Agriculture in schools received much attention and may become a compulsory study.

D. Walker of Peterborough spoke of the necessity of rural schools educating the children to remain in the country. We don't know what support he got for this fallacy, which is possible for it to succeed would starve our towns and cities of much of their best blood.

Mr. A. A. Catton left for the West last Saturday. Mrs. Finley Graham is visiting with relatives in Montreal and Toronto.

Mr. Wm. Lake enlisted last week in the Brantford Depot Band, (Home Guards) as drummer. Frank Bunde, a former Durham bandsman, is already a member of this band.

Mr. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Messrs T. Allan, A. S. Morton and J. A. Graham, formed the substantial delegation from the town to the O. E. A. last week. The last named is one of the three representatives of Rural Public Schools on the Advisory Board of the great Educational Institution and is also convener.

Mrs. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Mrs. Moore McFadden left on Friday last to spend a week with Toronto friends. Pte. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Messrs T. Allan, A. S. Morton and J. A. Graham, formed the substantial delegation from the town to the O. E. A. last week. The last named is one of the three representatives of Rural Public Schools on the Advisory Board of the great Educational Institution and is also convener.

Mrs. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Mrs. Moore McFadden left on Friday last to spend a week with Toronto friends. Pte. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Messrs T. Allan, A. S. Morton and J. A. Graham, formed the substantial delegation from the town to the O. E. A. last week. The last named is one of the three representatives of Rural Public Schools on the Advisory Board of the great Educational Institution and is also convener.

Mrs. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Mrs. Moore McFadden left on Friday last to spend a week with Toronto friends. Pte. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Messrs T. Allan, A. S. Morton and J. A. Graham, formed the substantial delegation from the town to the O. E. A. last week. The last named is one of the three representatives of Rural Public Schools on the Advisory Board of the great Educational Institution and is also convener.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Kate McDougall went to Owen Sound on Saturday to spend a couple of weeks with relatives there.

Mr. Young of Orangeville, was the guest over Sunday of his niece Mrs. J. H. Harding.

Pte. Jas. Smith of the mechanical department of the Aviation Corps of Toronto, visited his home here this week.

Mrs. T. McGirr went to Toronto last week to attend the Graduation Exercises of her daughter Miss Margaret, who has completed a two years' course at the Deaconess Training School.

Miss Margaret went to Alliston Saturday where she will supply on the High School staff for a few weeks during the illness of one of the teachers.

Gunner Eddie Burke of Guelph, former Glenelg boy visited with Mr. Dan McAuliffe and other friends last week. He is in the artillery and expects to cross soon.

Miss Julia Weir spent Easter holidays with friends in Alliston. Miss Agnes M. Ramage left on Friday last for her school near Cayuga, and was accompanied to Toronto by her sister Alice who spent till Tuesday with friends there.

Miss Mary Scanlon left Monday for Chicago, after spending some time with Miss Lauretta McAuliffe and other friends. Mr. A. A. Catton left for the West last Saturday.

Mrs. Finley Graham is visiting with relatives in Montreal and Toronto. Mr. Wm. Lake enlisted last week in the Brantford Depot Band, (Home Guards) as drummer.

Frank Bunde, a former Durham bandsman, is already a member of this band. Mr. Lake has two sons on active service at the front, so is the third of the family to do the khaki.

Mrs. Moore McFadden left on Friday last to spend a week with Toronto friends. Pte. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Messrs T. Allan, A. S. Morton and J. A. Graham, formed the substantial delegation from the town to the O. E. A. last week. The last named is one of the three representatives of Rural Public Schools on the Advisory Board of the great Educational Institution and is also convener.

Mrs. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Mrs. Moore McFadden left on Friday last to spend a week with Toronto friends. Pte. Jno. L. McDonald lately teacher in Ottawa now in training in Toronto was married lately to Miss Nettie Bice also an Ottawa teacher. Congratulations.

Messrs T. Allan, A. S. Morton and J. A. Graham, formed the substantial delegation from the town to the O. E. A. last week. The last named is one of the three representatives of Rural Public Schools on the Advisory Board of the great Educational Institution and is also convener.

CLOTHING
Let your New Suit be an "Empire - Tailored"
Owing to the absence of a Tailor in town, we wish to announce that we are carrying a higher grade of Clothing than before. We have taken over the agency for Empire Tailored Clothes, which we can offer to the buying public at a much lower price than if we were to repeat on our order to-day.

Spring Range of Hats & Caps
Never before have we had such a splendid range of Hats and Caps for Men and Boys who are particular as to getting the best value for their money.

SAVE MONEY
and Get the Best by Buying
Brandram-Henderson's Paint
Pratt's Poultry and Stock Food
Lighter Day high oven Ranges
Handmade and Factory Tinware
Sap Pails and Evaporaters
Well Pumps and Repairs
Cistern Pumps and Sinks
Wilkinson Plows and Repairs
Repairs for any Stove or Range on the market

"GETTING BY YOUR HOODOO"
By a Man Who Got By His
Samuel W. Grathwell's Chautauqua Lecture Describes Why Men Fail

He tells us that the world is full of men who would climb to great heights if they but gripped themselves for the struggle. Barriers in the way must be leaped. Opportunities must be seized, or made. While waiting for "pull" others forge ahead through "push."

He tells us that the world is full of men who would climb to great heights if they but gripped themselves for the struggle. Barriers in the way must be leaped. Opportunities must be seized, or made. While waiting for "pull" others forge ahead through "push."

He tells us that the world is full of men who would climb to great heights if they but gripped themselves for the struggle. Barriers in the way must be leaped. Opportunities must be seized, or made. While waiting for "pull" others forge ahead through "push."

Daylight Saving Starts April 15

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

Sir Robert Borden intimated Tuesday night that Canada's daylight saving bill will go into effect on Monday, April 15. The bill, which is now before the Senate, will be put through its various stages this week and assented to. The necessary proclamation to bring the bill into effect will probably appear in the Canada Gazette on Saturday and the clocks will be advanced an hour at midnight on Sunday.

THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA

CONDENSED STATEMENT 31ST JANUARY, 1918
LIABILITIES $ 5,484,383.00
ASSETS $ 5,484,383.00