PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE VILLAGE

Miss Mary Aldern and Bert Aussem left to take positions in the West Wednesday morning.

Mrs Wm. Aldern and baby are spending a few weeks with friends in the city.

Dr. McLean, Lauchie McTaggart and Heck McLean motored over to Durham on Monday.

Miss Edna Ferguson spent a few days with her friend May Muir, near Cayton.

Miss Pheobe Livingstone has returned to the city after spending several weeks with her mother here.

Corp. Rob McConkey visited with his cousin Mary McConkey north of Priceville one day last week.

Pte. Jack McArthur of Exhibition Camp, Toronto, is home on sick leave for awhile.

Mrs J. H. McLean, who was quite sick for a few days, is able to be up and around again.

John Brown is busy at present remodeling his house, recently purchased from Mrs. R. J. Conkey where he intends to move soon.

Miss Jean Bucham is spending the week end in Durham.

Mr and Mrs A. Ivory are spending a few days with the latter's mother, Mrs R. McIntosh.

Mrs S. McDermott, Louisa Watson Isabell McIntosh and Mrs H. Falkingham were in Durham last week.

Mrs Neil Shortreed is engaged with Jno. Stothart for the seeding.

Miss Laura McMillan, nurse of Scotchtown is attending Mrs A. Sinclair.

Ray McLean is quite busy making maple syrup with E.J. Sullivan, Glenelg Centre.

The girls of the Priceville High School, of the class of the year 1918, held a most pleasant reunion at the home of Miss Elina Ferguson, Priceville, in honor of Miss Mary Aldern on the eve of her departure for the West. A beautiful little bouclier clock of French Ivory, engraved with the class monogram in blue was presented to Miss Aldern, Miss May Muir making the presentation. Two other members of the class, Misses Elia and Luira McKinnon, who have lately removed to Toronto, were also present with a similar remembrance. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, and Miss Margaret Tryon proposed a toast to the former principal of the P. H. S., Captain Hector B. McKinnon, R. F. C., and Miss Myra McLean responded. One other member of the class, Miss Agnes Harrow, was unfortunately unable to be present.

Address and Presentation
On Friday evening, April 5th, a most a hundred of the friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs R. J. Conkey. A pleasant evening was spent in music, singing and speeches.

About nine o'clock order was called for and Mr George Tryon, who was elected chairman and performed his part in an excellent manner, gave a short speech in reference to the returned hero, after which the Revs. Mr Chapman and J. A. Matheson also gave short addresses.

Mr and Mrs Hermie McLean, Mrs P. F. McArthur, Louisa Watson, Thos. Nichol and Archie McDonald. All have a fine talent for singing and each did their part in making the occasion a success.

Miss Nellie Jones gave some fine instrumental music on the piano and Lillian McPhail of Cayton, favored us with a warlike recitation.

Mr W. S. Watson then read an address signed on behalf of Corporal McConkey's friends after which he was presented with $25.00.

Corp. McConkey made a fitting reply thanking all present for the kindness shown to him. A splendid luncheon was then served and the evening was closed by singing God Save the King. Corporal McConkey leaves on Tuesday morning to take treatment in a Toronto hospital. The good wishes of the community will go with him wherever he goes.

To our returned hero, Corporal R. H. Conkey:

We, your friends of the village of Priceville and the surrounding community, are here assembled on this joyous occasion to rejoice with you, mother, sister and brother on your return to home and friends from the seat of war.

We are here to honor you as a hero whose deeds in the line of battle for freedom and for right will be long remembered by all who know you. We assure you that your name will pass down in history as a brave veteran of the greatest war that the world ever knew.

We recognize the fact that upon the countries' call "to arms" you were amongst the first to offer your services with that noble battalion, the 37th.

You willingly sacrificed the comforts of home and the companionship of friends and you were ready to sacrifice even he it self if need be for the preservation of that liberty, freedom and righteousness which our native land has so long enjoyed.

We know not what the future may bring about in regard to the cruel war, the end of which is not yet in sight but we do know that you have done your part courageously and well towards the attainment of that victory for the allies which shall be a blessing to the world.

Our anxiety for you during your absence was often at an exceedingly high pitch when we knew you were in the thick of the fighting and when we heard you were wounded our suspense was almost unbearable. We never gave up but hoped, however, for your recovery and safe return to home and friends and native land.

We rejoice in the fact that our expectations have been realized and that you are in your "old haunts" once more and that we have this opportunity of spending with you this evening in your own home.

Now that the good Providence has spared you a life and brought you safely through many dangers when you were away from us, we trust that he will give you strength, wisdom, guidance and success in all things for the days that are coming.

As a small token of respect for yourself and as a mere recognition of your services as a valiant soldier for King and Country, we ask you to accept this purse.

Signed in behalf of your friends:
G. W. Tryon,
G. A. Watson,
Thos. Nichol,
W. G. Watson

Old Glenelg Boy Spent Furlough in Italy

Pte. John Beaton of Alberta, received by the Pope.

Mr A. C. Beaton, formerly of Bunessem and Edmonton, now residing at Torpe, Alberta, has forwarded us the following letters from his son Jack, which will interest many old Glenelg friends:

Rome, Oct. 29, 1917

I am having the most wonderful time of my life down here in Rome. We were received by his holiness the Pope of St. Peter's. It is the largest and most magnificent church in the world. The chamber we were received in was magnificent. It would take me too long to describe it. Then after that we had our pictures taken in the colosseum. In one of the pictures I am perched on the wall in front of the place the Emperor Nero used to sit to see the martyr's eaten up by the lions, etc. I may go down to Naples if I can figure the money out close enough.

The Italian people are very kind to us and very polite. As soon as we got to the border of France and Italy, the Italian Gov. supplied us with a coach all to ourselves and we travelled free so you see Canadians are welcomed down here.

They also gave us a great bunch of souvenir post cards and I will send them home to you as soon as I can. In Paris we were made to feel very much at home. As soon as we got off the train it was "Bon soir Canadian. Comment allez vous." You feel more at home there then if you get off the train in a strange city in Canada.

France, Jan. 18, 1918

Dear Dad—

Received your five for which I thank you very much, it will surely come in handy. I will have some big dinners out of it some of these fine days, of eggs and chips, french bread and beer. That is the fashionable French dinner.

I had a very good Christmas this year receiving ever so many parcels; three from Ontario, one from Aunt Lizzie and Maggie, one from the Bunessem Red Cross Society, one from Aunt Sarah, a letter from Winnie Binnie with some photos and a dozen or more parcels from Alberta. I have far more friends than I thought and they surely don't forget a fellow out here.

To his sister Blanche he writes:

Turin, Italy, Nov 8, 1917.

Am on my way back from having one of the most enjoyable trips I ever had in my life and especially at this unsettled time. The Italian people were very kind to us although we could not speak the language but most of them speak French and some of them English. I can get along pretty well with the French now. The hardest part of the French is the pronunciation.

I have been through most of the cities in Southern Europe. If I keep on I will soon be quite a globe trotter. Paris, Marseilles, Nice, Monte Carlo, Geneva, Pisa, Rome, Florence, Torino and maybe some more places before we get back to the muddy trenches. I have some good souvenirs from Italy and will send them to you from France. In Rome we were received by his holiness the Pope in the Vatican. They have some dandy churches, cathedrals, etc. in Rome. At Florence I went to an opera which cost six lira but in Canada the tickets would be something like twenty five dollars so you see I have been travelling high lately and not worrying enough about expenses but this is a trip of a lifetime so why worry! Live to-day for to-morrow we may die.

Jack.
