THE PEOPLE'S MILLS

Geo. Binnie, Secy.-Treas. These and four others, one from each rural municipality, constitute the Executive. The four representatives are: Egremont—J. R. Philp. Normanby—Richard Barber. Bentinck—Jas. E. Metcalfe. Glenelg—D. Edge. Auditors are C. L. Grant and P. Ramage.

The Society at present has a membership of somewhat less than 100, but the contagious enthusiasm of Pres. Edwards, Secy. Binnie and other officials, will, we predict result in doubling the membership before next winter's series of meetings are announced.

Mr Geo. Binnie has a record of 30 years service as Secy. of the Institution and to him in no small measure is due the continuous life and progress and benefits, springing from the work of Farmer's Institute, as formerly known, now Boards of Agriculture. For some years Mr. Binnie has given his services free, and the Board at this meeting acknowledged his work by a present of $20.

The Lighter Side of the War

Making "Fit" by Sports

(By C. C. Ramage)

Dear Father,— Your letter No XI came two days ago and as I am now in a peaceful country, with "nothing to do and all day to do it in," I will write a line or two. I am sitting in the shade of an old apple tree in an orchard suggesting to memory the one by the old Coleridge home in Egremont.

For the past few weeks the French orchards have been breathing out fragrant perfumes and we enjoy sestas in the green meadows nature has provided here in an atmosphere that has not been diluted or even tainted with gas or powder.

Sports occupy a great part of our time and we have some good times and games. You can readily understand that athletics which at present are on the wane in Canada owing to the absence of many stellar players, is in the ascendancy in the field of France to-day and when they are not making sport of Heine, they enjoy life and recreate energy behind the line. When a game of ball is announced to take place between the Yanks and Canucks, there is great excitement and large crowds. Rivalry is keen and some games on exhibition are as interesting as professional contests on Toronto Island and to use the phrasing of an American soldier, "The Canadian is no slouch" when it comes to playing his National game, for he is often defeated by our teams. We find the Americans splendid mixers and companions and I think they reciprocate the feeling.

A week or so, our Brigade held a big Circus and every unit put forth amazing creations and stunts in the field. It was truly a circus and if we lacked wild animals, the deficiency was made good by grotesque and hideous substitutes. Calisthenics and every kind of athletic performance were RITA Bailey, Rhena Livingston, Wm. Grierson and Wm. McDonald. We wish all success.

Master Rupert Johnston son of Mr and Mrs Robert Johnston, was operated on Monday last for appendicitis by Dr. D. B. Jamieson assisted by Hon. Dr. Jamieson and Dr. Stalker of Hanover. We hope the patient will get along nicely.

We are pleased to hear our teacher Miss Kirktown has been re-engaged for another year.

Miss Mattie Lawrence of Stratford is spending the holidays at the parental home here.

There were also side shows of various natures but all funds taken here went to Red Cross work. As the circus followed pay day, the canteens were also freely patronized. Captain Bailey who was jailed for slandering Canadian soldiers for alleged intemperance should have been here and witnessed the sports. He would probably change his tune. In fact he would have to, as there were no drunken soldiers or signs of insobriety. If Canada in civilian life had as clean a record as Canada in France enjoys, there would be no need to introduce prohibition measures and close the bars.

It is possible the food parcel you speak of will not arrive. It is said that owing to the effort to conserve food in Canada, parcels containing eats cannot be sent to France. This is not official, yet we would not be surprised if the measure came or had come into effect as it is known that U. S. A. and Britain have already undertaken measures restricting the shipping of foods to soldiers. At the same time it will cause much dissatisfaction among the men here. The army rations are sufficient but often they fall short or the cooking is rotten and it is necessary to supplement by buying at canteens and French stores and the latter charge outrageous prices for things they sell. Then again we all like a taste of homecooking now and again which varies the menu most agreeably. Army food is the same and as much alike as Sunday and Monday in France and for a certain day we can tell what will be on the bill of fare a month ahead of time. Still, if our precious boxes are to be cut off that will be another sin to curse the Kaiser for, but it will all dwindle down in the end to the philosophical French saying "C'est la guerre."

$132 Raised at Mulock Box Social

The school-house was filled to the doors at Mulock last Monday night when a successful box social was held. The program was given before the sale of boxes, and as some of the talented and speakers did not appear. Mr A. C. McDonald acted as chairman very acceptably. The major part of the program was contributed by Durham Presbyterian Choir who were highly appreciated in several choruses. Duets were rendered by Misses Hattie and Boyd, Mrs Buchan and Mr Harding of Durham; Mrs Lauder, Durham; Mrs. Edwards, Secy. Binnie and other officials, will, we predict result in doubling the membership before next winter's series of meetings are announced.

The sale of two quilts realized $16 and $37.50. They were sold and re-sold to many buyers, and Mrs R. Twamley and Miss Mildred Mighton finally secured them. Mr Ed. Boyce bought the cushion for $7.50, donated by Mrs Harry Irvin, and Mr Alex. McDonald the rooster for $1.75 which was re-sold to Nelson Redford for $1.25. John Adam donated it. Robt. Brigham is always a willing helper, and was the right man in the right place as auctioneer. $39.95 was obtained for boxes and $38.60 at the door, a total of $132.55 for the evening.

Mulock Red Cross Society desires to thank all those furnishing donations for the social, also the speakers and other talent who helped to make the evening a success.

Letters of thanks have been received from the boys in France to whom the Society sent parcels of socks and eatables.

VICKERS

Mrs W. A. Livingston spent Sunday afternoon with Mr and Mrs Thos. Brigham of Louise.

Those who wrote on the Entrance examinations were Rita Bailey, Rhena Livingston, Wm. Grierson and Wm. McDonald. We wish all success.

Master Rupert Johnston son of Mr and Mrs Robert Johnston, was operated on Monday last for appendicitis by Dr. D. B. Jamieson assisted by Hon. Dr. Jamieson and Dr. Stalker of Hanover. We hope the patient will get along nicely.

We are pleased to hear our teacher Miss Kirktown has been re-engaged for another year.
