may induce you to try the first packet of but we rely absolutely on the inimitable flavour and quality to make you a permanent customer. We will even offer to give this first trial free if you will drop us a postal to Toronto.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Letters Letter from Peter Noves to Monte

Covington, received by the latter at Nice, France, July 22.

Dear Covington:-

Riding to Cannes the very next day is like music. man, if I let myself loose.

cause we missed you. You have a she should be speaking to me-to my mighty good friend in her, Covington, ears alone.

said, and I find myself now thinking such a soul? In the midst of all more of you than of myself in connec- my princely emotions, that thought tion with her. I don't understand it, makes me humble, Covington. Perhaps it's because she seems so. I fear I have rambled a good deal, gione in the world, and you are the old man. I can't read over what I haps it's because you've seen so much let it go as it is. more of her than I in these last few I'm not asking you to answer, benonths. Anyway, I have a feeling cause what I should want to hear that somehow you are an integral part from you I wouldn't allow any one of her. I've tried to puzzle out the re- else to read. So tear this up and rade." If you were not already mar- Then I can talk to you face to face. ried, I'd almost suspect her of being in love with you. I know that sounds absurd. I know! Sitting alone in his room at the start fresh, I'd stand a mighty poor God!" chance with her.

drowning man does a straw. It was claiming this man as if he were her of the excitement of war. Yet they Some thirty thousand Soldiers of the found her on the little farm in Con- hours. For twelve hours you've left What they did in the fields of Eurnecticut. If I had been a little more me here all alone. I don't know how insistent then I think she would have I've lived. I don't know how I'm go. ope temporarily staved off the wolf. come with me. But I was afraid of ing to get through the night and to- of starvation from the doors of the now. She needs the help and the in- to save the harvest of 1918. her money. It was rumored that her morrow. Only there won't be any people. What they did in the muni- spiration of every one of them. There aunt left her a vast fortune, and— to-morrow. There'll never be any- tion shops kept the guns supplied with is none so weak that she cannot do Garden crops will not give good reyou know the mongrels that hound a thing more than periods of twelve shells. What they did in office, in something, and surely none so craven sults unless the soil is kept well culgirl in that position, Covington? I hours, until you come back: just from factory, in work-shop, in every phase that she WOULD not do something tivated. was afraid she might think I was one dawn to dark, and then from dark to of industrial life, kept the wheels of No true Canadian woman would let Wilmar local of the Saskatchewan with her. I was earning enough to ers. I'm beginning on the third. The support her decently, and I should morning will bring the fourth. have thought of nothing else. In- Each one is like a lifetime—a birth men were suddenly called to arms and But when it begins to rot would be

I'm going to get my eyes back, they used on snipboard when the largedy the slightest doubt in the waves threw the big propellor out of the slightest doubt in the waves threw the big propellor out of the slightest doubt in the waves threw the big propellor out of the share of this world's goods. There I haven't the slightest doubt in the waves threw the big propellor out of world about that. Already I feel the the water and the full power of the grip of grim tragedy. In Flanders, is a new democracy abroad—a wonmagic of the new balm that has been engines was wasted on air. They applied. They don't ache any more. called it "racing." It was bad for the barges and plod along the towpath, barges are to barges and plod along the towpath, barges are Sitting here to-night without my ship to have this energy go for noth- thanking God they've released—not a ness and service are the things that shade, I can hold them open and catch ing. It racked her and made her man, but a horse to help in the war." count. the feeble light that filters in from the tremble and groan. I've been racing In Russia and Italy the women plow, Every woman must search her soul street lamps at a distance. It is only ever since you went, churning the air sow and reap. Even on the beautiful and ask herself how she can best help we meet I shall be able to see you. | where I started after it all. You won't object to hearing a man Dearest heart of mine, I love you. transportation stagger under kegs of farmerette, though if she is, it's all rave a little, Covington? If you do, Though I tremble away from those wine or water weighing eighty pounds. the better. you can tear up this right here. But words, I must put them down for In Scotland, girls single turnips, If she is a city girl who was brought I know I can't say anything good once in black and white. Though I plant potatoes, drive horses and carts up on the farm, she should be useful about Marjory that you won't agree tear them up into little pieces so small with. Maybe, however, you'd call my that no one can read them, I must present condition abnormal. Perhaps write them once. It is such a reit is; but I wonder if it isn't part of lief, here by myself, to be honest. or not, whether it is good for you or can volunteer to help the farmer's every normal man's life to be ab- If you were here and I were honest, not, I love you, Monte," I would say wife for a time.

the Hotel Normandie, Paris, France:- her before, Covington, I marveled at of Canada's harvest this year. The they can go out on the land themthat told you so little and made you set this fact. I don't know whether you can make and her straight nose, and her beautiout this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I

out this scrawl, because I have to feel ful lips Those things I see now as I out this scrawl, because I have the feel ful lips Those things I see now as I out this scrawl, becau my way across the paper; but I'm sit- saw them then. I must wait a little yet ever new in the wonder of it. their wives are doing no less. They sustain them in safety and comfort. of how the ancient martyrs felt after ting alone in my room, aching to talk while really to see them again. In What the women of Canada have done responded splendidly to the appeal for with you as we used to talk. If you their place, however, I have now her in this line is negligible yet, although increased production earlier in the were here I know you would be glad voice and the sound of her footsteps. there has been some brave pioneering year, with the result that it is estimat. to listen, because—suddenly all I told To hear her coming, just to hear the in Eastern Ontario, and for years past ed that there are now 2,600,000 acres after you left I spoke to her and- But when she speaks, Covington, she listened. It was all rather vague then all other sounds cease, and she and she made no promises, but she speaks alone to me in a world grown listened. In a few weeks or months silent to listen. There is some quality ands of men who are daily acrificing increased acreage, coupled with the or years, now, she'll be mine for all in that voice that gets into me-that time. She doesn't want me to tell reaches and vibrates certain hidden Beatrice, and there is no one else to strings I did not know were there. So tell except you-so forgive me, old sweet is the music that I can hardly give enough attention to make out the Besides, in a way, you're respon- meaning of her words. What she sible. We were talking of you, be- says does not so much matter as that

She knows you—the real you that I And these things are merely the thought only I had glimpsed. She superficialities of her. There still sees the man in the game-not the remains the princess herself below man in the grand-stand. Her Cov- these wonderful externals. There ington is the man they used to give still remains the woman herself. Wonine long Harvards for. I never man, any woman, is marvellous enheard that in front of my name. I ough, Covington. When you think was a grind-a "greasy grind," they of all they stand for, the fineness of used to call me. It didn't hurt, for I them compared with our man grosssmiled in rather a superior sort of way ness, that wonderful power of creaat the men I thought were wasting tion in them, their exquisite delicacy. their energy on the gridiron. But, combined with the big-souled capacity after all, you fellows got something for sacrifice and suffering that dwarfs out of it that the rest of us didn't any of our petty burdens into insigniget. A 'Varsity man remains a ficance-God knows, a man should bow Varsity man all his life. I think she his knee before the least of them. always thinks of you as in a red But when to all those general attrisweater with a black "H." Any time butes of the sex you add that somethat you feel you're up against any- thing more born in a woman like Marthing hard, that ought to help you. | jory-what in the world can a man do We talked a great deal of you, as I big enough to deserve the charge of most intimate friend she has. Per- have been scribbling here, so I must lationship, and I can't. "Brother" forget it if you want., Some day I does not refine it; neither does "com_ shall meet you again and see you.

Peter J Noves.

t is absurd. She isn't the kind to ai- Normandie, Monte read this through. low her emotions to get away from Then his hands dropped to his side and her like that. But I'll say this much, the letter fell from them to the floor. Covington: that if we three were to "Oh, my God!" he said. "Oh, my!

Letter from Madame Covington to This is strange talk from a man her husband, Monte Covington, which themselves on the battlefields of Eur- exodus of young men from the farms weaknesses and dangers. Unity of who less than six hours ago became the latter never received at all beope have eclipsed the heroism, the ento join the colors, makes the situation purpose and constituted leadership is bad let her go once and that now I never meet to be sent at the patience of the women of infinitely more serious. It has been essential. It is a case of a strong durance, the patience of the women of infinitely more serious. had let her go once, and that now I never meant to be sent. It was writhad found her again I wanted her to ten merely to save herself from doing They have known the extremity of needed to gather in this year's harvest. Men must be found for the army, for stay. And she said, "I'll try." That something rash, something for which They have known the extremity of needed to gather in this year's harvest. Men must be found for the army, for wasn't very much, Covington, was it? she could never forgive herself—like suffering. They have tasted the dregs! The teen-age boys have been called But I seized the implied promise as a taking the next train to Paris and of war. They have lacked the stimulus upon, and have responded gallantly.

Dearest Prince of my Heart:-I should have kept her that time I You've been gone from me twelve worked. of the pack. She was frightened— dawn, over and over again. Each commerce turning and steadied the the grain spoil on the stalk were she Grain Growers' Association has re-stead of that I held back a little, and and a death. And oh, my Prince, I the crops would have rotted had they too late. so lost her, as I thought. She sail- shall soon be very, very old. I don't not harvested them that the women ed away, and I returned to my work dare look in the mirror to-night, for first showed their mettle and rose to like a madman-and I nearly died. fear of seeing how old I've grown the occasion voluntarily. As Lloyd Now I feel alive clear to my finger- since morning. I remember a word George said of them:

WAR'S INSISTENT CALL TO THE WOMEN OF CANADA

Canada Appeals to Her Daughters to Rally to Her Aid in This the Greatest Crisis in History-Enlist For Food Saving and Food Production.

forth: "To the farms!"

been caught up and thrown back tural work alone. from time to time. But now it comes resistible as the soldier's bugle call.

hearkening. They are thinking about even in three and a half years of war. whole-hearted action.

alike. Equality of service is demanded of them. Employer and employee way has been clearly indicated. are asked to help; the rich and the The greatest need of the hour is for poor; the busy and the idle. There labor on the farms. Mr. Henry B. ized. There is every intention that of Canada in no equivocal terms. not actually by my side. When I saw judiciously used in making the most arms in one of two ways. Either light fall of her feet upon the ground, in the West, when no other labor was more than last year under the princiobtainable, the farmer in desperation pal grain crops in Western Canada. enlisted his wife's help in the outdoors. It stands to reason that if labor Not even the deeds of the thous- was scarce before the war, the greatly

With the insistent note of a clarion in the fields, and help in every kind of during July and August towards ascall to service, the message has gone farm work. In Br tain to-day, there suring the country of the full benefit For months past it has wavered of men in various forms of work, fully yields, war or no war. It is one A mere civilian does not know what across the country, and the echo has There are 300,000 engaged in agricul-

The women of Canada can do these with a direct challenge that is as ir- things. They have been spared the suffering and the humiliation of the It sounds from end to end of the women of invaded countries. They country. Men and women are have had few material privations, it; talking about it. But there is no | They have worked splendidly, and time to play battledore and shuttle- time and again they have reiterated cock with such an issue. There must their desire to do everything asked of be action-immediate, clear-cut, them by the Government. Indeed, The challenge is to men and women activity.

is no intention that any industry be Thomson, chairman of the Food Board, It shows what might always be, if one put out of joint or business disorgan- has put it up to the men and women tion in Russia has practically ceased, all the resources of the country be The women can answer this call to her eyes—those deep, wonderful eyes need is imperative. Nothing can off selves, or they can release a man for land producing their usual amount of you might take them for innocent deal Please give position," the message the period of the harvest. What the women of Europe have The farmers have done their share.

with inscions Esclas.

Men Must Fight-and Women Must Reap.

have nobly "carried on." Even as Soil will help the farmers through the their men have fought, they have arduous period ahead of them.

It was in those early days when the cious than gold or rubies.

normal to this extent at least once—to see, for once, this staid old world through the eyes of a prince of the ancient city of Bagdad; to thrill with the magic and gorgeous beauty of it?

If you were here and I were honest, I would let you to say, Indic, I would let you wished, I would let you have them and over again. "I love you, Monte," I would kiss you on your dear tousled the magic and gorgeous beauty of it?

If she knows of any male loafers, would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss you on your dear tousled hair, on your forehead, on your eyes—

If she knows of any male loafers, would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. The can report them and have them would kiss you on your dear tousled hair, on your forehead, on your eyes—

If she knows of any male loafers, would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would say. If the knows of any male loafers, and you me would let me, I would let you have them and over again. "I love you, Monte," I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would kiss me. And, if you would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, if you would let me, I would kiss me. And, bewildered. I should have snatched period must be fought through as it fluctuating pulse of an over-wrought actually to see it wasting before her commended that all poolrooms and eyes—the grain that is now more pre- bowling alleys be closed during the

The time to act is now!

It does not matter a scrap what a woman is or ever will be; what her weeks, perhaps days. The next time meant to drive me ahead. I'm right and the young girls in the work of She does not need to be a trained and the young girls in the work of She does not need to be a trained porarily in the city, then by all means let her do it and add one man to re lieve the labor situation.

If she can give up her holidays this year to work on the farm, she will be doing a plucky and patriotic thing. If she is a g'rl of leisure, it is up to her to go out on the land or send a man from the city while she fills his

In short-every woman and every teen-age girl can do SOMETHING are 5,000,000 women taking the places of those crops which Nature so bountiof the biggest things ever asked of a a bed is. To him it is something soft should turn her hand to food conservation, to food production, or to both.

Bolsheviki doctrines have brough they have pleaded for a wider field of Russia down from one of the greatest food producing countries on the globe They have had the answer now. The to a condition of starvation. Drunk with liberty, which they did not understand, filled with idealistic notions about the equality of men, and lacking individual initiative, produc according to the evidences reaching the outside world. Transportation that even were the peasants of the elastic about them. To look at them, "Have important message for you. foodstuffs, the people in the manu- boards in need of a scrubbing. But ran each time. Unless the people of Russia steady a course on the rack." occurred in history. Without authority through lack of straw. for whom they have fear and respect, Still, with luck, you occasionally property holding class of the late and your legs on an escalator. aristocrat regime, destroying not only But you need not worry. The dream the personal effects of the nobility won't last for ever. There are variand the owning class, but the very ous ways of waking up. One is by crops which they had themselves suddenly striking the ground with under the former social organization your hands, for the tressels raise you produced for the nation at large. In only a few inches above it. Another their re-action against property own- is the collapse of the tressels theming, they have destroyed the goose selves. that laid the golden eggs. We read | Well, never mind! You have three the night. "Hallo!" said the operator. of peasants in certain villages having blankets. gone to such extremes as to seize the cattle of the local land owner, now deposed, flay them alive and turn and warm. The Army blanket was SOS. We generally tell the Old them loose. Without the old motive not designed to fulfil these require- Man-. There, somebody's picked of compulsion to cultivate the land for ments. the land-owner, now that the land has reverted to the peasants and they themselves are the owners, they have

> It is difficult to imagine China, one of the most densely populated areas in the world, living largely on rice and very meagre fare, having sufficient surplus to feed 150,000,000 people starving Russia. Bolshevism is sometimes quoted in this country as an ideal, worthy of imitation. The pass to which Russia has drifted is a warning that Bolshevism and insanity are not very far apart. The nation that will weather the storm of this war the best, is the nation that organizes most efficiently and disciplines itself most strictly. Production must be carried on to a limit of our power. Destructive is the nation drifting that recent dispatches have reported that the so-munition making and for food production. Non-essential industries must provide men for essential industries. Women in this country must take the places of men to the limit of their power when called upon. Farmers

SWEET OR CHURNING CREAM We supply cans, pay express charges Our price now is forty-six cents Mutual Dairy and Creamcry Co. 743-5 King St. West - Toront

UNEASY LIES THE HEAD-

The Army Bed is Really a Serious No Man Hates Germany More Fiercely Subject at First Acquaintance.

woman. It is for the sake of our and yielding, something the body can resistible argument why every woman perience when I say that a bed is no permitted to spend most of my time such thing. There is only one kind of hed nowadays-one kind, at least, worth reckoning. It consists of Three times we were called by Gerstraw, and three blankets. "No 'ot-water bottles this trip,' says the red-cheeked sergeant. says so, it is so. And then you ex- sunk to turn you from a flabby, namby- code. All three calls came about midgeant's phraseology, this) into a real our call.

down and organize themselves or | And the mattress! It is a snare allow other authorities to organize and a delusion! It has lumps in it. them, there is the possibility of one of There are some big lumps and small the most stupendous disasters to a lumps, and there are also spaces operator. nation and a great people that every where the top and bottom meet the Russian peasant seems to be with- fall asleep on the lumps, and dream out motive or initiative. We read of that your ear is on Mount Everest, peasants in their anger against the your shoulder in the Thames Valley,

The civilian idea of a blanket is swer?" I asked him. "Fat chance!"

something white and fluffy and soft he said. "It's too easy to fake an

A little disinfectant sprinkled on ly, distinctly the voice of some stranneglected to work and to produce the the straw litter in the coop will keep ger in the night. necessaries of life. To such a pass down vermin.

lecting the Williams New Scale Piano has been followed by many of the world's most renowned musicians. This fact has caused it to be known as the Choice of the Great

THE WILLIAMS PIANO CO., LIMITED, OSHAWA ONT. Canada's Oldest and Largest Piano Makers

OF WIRELESS

FRANTIC CALL FOR HELP FROM

A TORPEDOED VESSEL

Than He Who Has Picked Up An "S O S" At Sea.

I have just stepped ashore from a Allies. But most of all-for our men snuggle in and the soul can dream in. New York liner, and, because of my "over there." They provide the ir- | What a delusion! I speak from ex- interest in wireless telegraphy, I was en route in the wireless cabin, says a newspaper writer.

three boards, a couple of low tressels, man submarines. Apparently they mattress more or less stuffed with knew just when we had left New York. Apparently they knew just where we should have been-in peace time-on our ocean lane. If we had You grin, to show your apprecia- not been far off our usual course. I tion of the point. If the sergeant have no doubt we would have been amine the structure which is going They called us in the line's own pamby, puny molly-coddle (the ser- night, "H B, H B," came the call-

Each time the operator-a boy of The boards, you discover, are really nineteen who has been torpedoed once and distribution is so disorganized boards. There is nothing yielding or and shelled twice-answered the call

A Far, Faint Call.

Each time the captain was notified "Tell them to give their message," he said. "Probably a submarine," he continued, and evinced no surprise. "Give your message," replied the "Can't give message unless I know your position. Please give position." But it was too old a trick to work. On the seventh night out from New York I heard two ships torpedoed. Neither call was in code, but the first was very short. Poor davils. they must have gone down in a hurry. The latter call, however, I shall never forget. I can put down most of Keeping in Touch.

it from memory, for it is fairly burnt

"SOS, SOS, SOS," it came without warning out of the slow crackle of "Somebody's caught it." "Will we an-her up. No fake about that.") I could hear that answer very faint-

"What ship in distress?" A long pause.

"Who are you? Hurry, Sinking "What ship in distress?" "For God's sake, hurry. Who are "American destroyer ---. Coming to your assistance, full speed." "How far off?"

"Sixty miles. Shall we be in time?"

"What speed have you? Hurry. We are the --- London. Sixty-two "Will arrive in two hours. Can you keep up in your boats?" "Two boats fouled already. Hellish "Hang on. We are hurrying. How long will your wireless last?"

"For God's sake, hurry! All over "How were you sunk?" "Torpedoed, No warning, Too late! Another boat capsized. Too Late! "How far have you settled down "Save yourself. We are coming

"What spe-" "Can't hear you."

The ---, of London, had gone down in a hellish sea.

3 VICTORIA CROSSES GIVEN

British Sergeant Held Six Hundred of Enemy at Bay. Amnouncement of the award o three Victoria Crosses, including one to Sergeant Albert Mountain, West Yorks, whose act was an outstanding example of supreme fearlessness and initiative, is made in a recent number of the Official Gazette.

Mountain's company was compelled to fall back before the advancing enemy mass. Volunteers for a counter attack were being called, when Mountain and ten men stepped forward. He advanced on the flank with a Lewis machine gun and enfiladed an enemy patrol, of which about 100 were kill-

Mountain railied and organized the party for defence and covered the retirement of the rest of the company With one non-commissioned officer and four men he successfully held at bay 600 Germans for half an hour.

Later he took command of a flank post and held on for twenty-seven hours, until finally surrounded, Mountain was one of the few who managed to fight their way back.

We have gathered a bunch of posies from other men's gardens, and only the string that binds them is our own.

Some sugar refineries at Honolulu have installed furnaces that burn heretofere waste molasses as fuel, the ashes being valuable as a fertilizer.

The object of Address all qui vice of our farm authority on all s care of The Wilson and answers will !

which they are rece paper. As space is reply is necessary be enclosed with mailed direct. Proper Fertiliz horoughness. measures the succe No crop sh ages of poorly dra water shuts out a air, and evaporati lence, undrained ways to hinder i wheat. If the gr shallow and is ha the tiny rootlets of difficulty in pushi The result is that low and near the that the crop is by droughts and fi Many a man this beer discouraged his winter wheat a few places whel the wheat plant he the soil and much to sunlight and bli are various reason kills out. One i wheat soil is fre storage of the rail ng the early gro plant, hence in a humus supply mu ained. If the lai er wheat has lain much moisture is Recent investig remely low temp wheat which has growth is deadly

To avoid such dition of plantfor is of great bene fertilizer is spri the soil and work ood induces the ow deep into t make a wider ar crop can draw it that fertilizers growth have act winter wheat cro Recently we h he warmer secti not a few of th field of grain that has been plowed planted to other arens of wheat he bad winter c a make record 3 work which feri crop during the ear to have wever, the ad hat the crop was

Rerold's Parms

5MOKE

Farmers who direct to us than farmers general store. ASK AN who has sold ways, and not or, better still prices; they v much you lost General Store

We pay the high dealers in Cana mitted the same Ship us your wor more than pleas

H. V. A