Mr. Alex. McLean is busy in John Nichol's house last week as the funeral of Miss Martha Kechnie took place to the grave on her old home on Thursday week. Miss McKechnie was the old home 68 years ago. She ways lived a Christian life and consistent member of the church. In the absence of a clergyman, Rev. Mr. Matheson presided at the funeral service, taking for the departed one, for death was gain. The funeral was of the largest seen for some showing the respect the deceased held in by all who knew her brother, John McKechnie, of Sound, came in time to see her she passed away. Six of the men of the neighborhood were bearers.

Another large funeral took place Sunday afternoon last, that of
