

PRICEVILLE AND VICINITY

PRICEVILLE AND LIMITS

The Gaelic communion held in the Presbyterian Church here last Sunday was fairly well attended. Owing to a funeral in town, that of Mrs Ostrander which a good many attended, the congregation was smaller than usual.

Mr Thos Shortreed and daughter of Galt, are at present visiting at his brother's, Mr Robt. Shortreed, South line, Glenelg.

Picnics galore. Quite a number from this vicinity attended the one at Beaman last Friday and report a good time, but if the dumb animals that were tied to a fence or a tree could speak, like Baslam's ass they would tell their commanders to hurry home as they were getting hungry and cold, but having sense of their own as if knowing the delay was for a good cause, they waited patiently till released.

The Rev Dr. Watson of Toronto, will preach in the Presbyterian church here next Sunday morning and evening.

Miss Bella Campbell of Montreal, is spending her holidays at her brother's, Mr Dan Campbell, north line, Arto-masta.

Did we hear anybody saying there was frost Sunday night. No, but the danger is worse this Monday night as the air is too cold to be comfortable wearing light garments.

The funeral of Miss Martha McKechnie took place to the graveyard on her old home on Thursday of last week. Miss McKechnie was born at the old home 63 years ago. She always lived a Christian life and was a consistent member of the Baptist church.

Ostrander to Salem cemetery. Proton Mrs Ostrander was a highly respected Christian lady, and a good member of the Methodist church. To her lonely partner her death is a severe blow, but it's only but a while till they meet again. At this writing we have not learned the particulars of her death. Rev Mr Matheson attended the funeral and probably conducted the services.

The other day we had quite a conversation with Mr Colin McDougall of Durham. In olden times Mr McDougall was raised about 1/2 of a mile east of the ordination of the late Rev. Robert McIntyre 60 or more years ago in the old log barn on our old home-stand. The old barn was full of highlanders and nobling but Gaelic used. A Rev. Mr McNeil from Bruce was one of the preachers. Ascension in the homes was not so comfortable as nowadays but such as there was was thankfully received by the recipients. The old barn which was used as a place of worship was built in the year 1858 and some of those attending the raising by the size of it called it Noah's Ark.

The master builders are all gone to their reward long years ago. The old barn was taken down and replaced by a different one. Those that were small children then are now old and feeble and in looking backward more than 60 years ago they will wonder where the intervening years between then and now went but time like an everlastingly flowing river keeps moving on till it empties into deep waters somewhere.

Dr. Hutton will visit Priceville professionally Monday and Thursday of each week from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. until further notice.

It stated one hundred and twenty-five dollars was the proceeds of the Red Cross garden Party. It should of been one hundred and ninety-three dollars, also no mention was made of the solo sang by Miss Eibel Watson entitled "The little grey mother." Death of Martha McKechnie

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of Miss Martha McKechnie, who died at the home of her brother Angus, Gravel Road, on July 1st, at the age of sixty years. She had been ailing for only about a week and her death came as a severe shock to her many friends. She had just recently returned from a visit to her brother Alex, in Muskoka and the week before her death complained of not being well. Drs. Jamieson and Hutton were called and decided on an operation the following Monday, but by that time her condition was so serious they thought it best not to operate and on Monday afternoon she passed peacefully away.

Her life in this community (where she had lived since childhood) was a grand example to follow. She was kindness itself and none ever left her home hungry or cold, she treated rich and poor alike. To her aged mother who was ailing for some time, she was ever a loving and dutiful daughter, being constantly by her bedside caring tenderly and patiently for her until the end came. She was a true Christian and her seat in church was never vacant in health.

She was also a faithful worker of the Red Cross Society and her good work in that great cause will be sorely missed. She was always ready and willing to sacrifice everything to send to the boys overseas. She lived a worthy life and her many friends will cherish her memory for time to come. The immediate friends who mourn her loss are her brothers Angus on the old homestead; Jno of O. Sound; Alex of Muskoka and one sister, Mrs. Margaret McLachlan of Calgary. Alex and Mrs McLachlan were unable to attend the funeral. To them we extend our deepest sympathy.

A Scotch minister from the city was asked to pray for rain and his prayer was answered by such a downpour that the crops were injured. During the rain one old farmer said to another, "This" comes of trusting sic a meenister who isna acquainted wi' agriculture."

In the restaurants in Roumania you can get nothing but beans to eat—there are seven meatless days a week. No stores are open because there is nothing to sell in the way of clothing. Ever since the beginning of the war the import of cotton has ceased. The Germans occupied two-thirds of the country and stripped it of all the materials they were in need of.

MAY WEAR HIS MEDAL.—The only person authorized to wear a decoration or medal, or the ribbon thereof, is the soldier to whom the distinction was awarded. This information has been issued by the militia department in answer to a large number of persons who have been enquiring as to whether relatives of deceased soldiers have the right to wear decorations awarded to these soldiers.

Fines of $10 and costs, amounting to $14.50 each, were paid by four Toronto, Dundalk and Markdale men for fishing in the hydro lake at Eugenia on Sunday, June 23rd. Another party from Toronto and Hespeler, who refused to give their names, have been served with summonses for the same offence and no doubt will be forced to settle similarly. Their names were taken from a hotel register in Dundalk where they had put up.

Victory Bread

On and after July 15th, every baker must place on each loaf of bread a label or sticker bearing his name and address and the words "Victory Bread." The latter prescription will be a guarantee that the prescribed amount of substitutes of standard flour required by the Canada Food Board have been used in making the loaf. Bread which does not bear such label or sticker may be seized and forfeited to His Majesty.

The order makes it an offence for any person to sell or have in his possession any bread, rolls or pastry or any other product in which white or standard flour is used which does not conform to the requirements of the Food Board. The penalty for violation of the new requirements is a fine of not less than $100 and up to $1,000, or imprisonment for a period of three months, or both fine and imprisonment.

Would Transfer Patriotic Fund

Legislation empowering the Dominion Government to take over the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and to furnish, from the general revenues of Parliament, the funds thereto supplied by public and private subscriptions, will be introduced at the next session of Parliament. This decision was arrived at by the general executive of the Patriotic Fund at a general meeting held recently in Ottawa. All members agreed that the greatly increased taxation of the last two years, the enhanced cost of living, and numerous calls upon private wealth incident to the war would make it unfair to call upon the public for contributions to the Patriotic Fund, and that the Government should be asked in future to vote all the supplies required for the fund.

NOTICE

Dr Jamieson will be at the Commercial Hotel, Priceville, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Any calls left with Mr. McVicar will be attended to immediately.

LBB-MacGILLIVRAY

The home of Mr James McGillivray, Sr., was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday, June 20th, the occasion being the marriage of his daughter, Margaret Maud, to Mr W. Edward Lee, of East Linton. Promoted at four o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs Robert McGillivray, the groom took his place on the verandah, under an arch of evergreens, decorated with June roses and flags. The bride followed on the arm of her father. Rev. Mr McEwen performed the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in a neat dress of white pussy willow silk with touches of gold and carried a bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and fern. The only ornament worn was the groom's gift, a beautiful necklace of diamonds and pearls and to the organist he gave a dainty necklace of pearls. To their waitresses, Mr Duncan Cameron, of East Linton and Miss Sadie MacGillivray, sister of the bride, he gave a pearl tie pin and gold bracelet, respectively.

After congratulation and good wishes, all repaired to the dining room, where dinner was served. The tables were decorated with white peonies and fern, also a large four-storey cake, the work of the bride.

In the evening, Mr and Mrs Lee left for their home at East Linton, the bride travelling in a suit of navy blue serge, with touches of old blue and gold, and large Panama hat with gold band and white satin roses.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

Those from a distance who were present at the ceremony were; Mrs Brown (the groom's sister), Mr and Mrs J. Ferguson, Mr and Mrs B. Campbell, Miss Sadie Catto, all of Owen Sound; Mr and Mrs Ed. McGregor, Miss M. Lyness, Mr D. and Miss Emma Cameron, Mr John and Miss Jean McNaught, of East Linton; Miss M. Barefoot, of Ben Allen; Mr Angus and Miss Margaret McInnis, of Presque Isle; Mr Luther and Miss Jean Clarke, of Kemble; Mrs A. Lee, Mrs Robert Gardiner, Mrs Irvine, Mrs. Will and Anna Ellison, Mr and Mrs A. McKay, of Toronto; and a few of the bride's old friends, Miss Jean McFarlane and Miss Jessie McDonald, of Toronto, and Miss Leah McComb, of Durham.
