The Christmas entertainment on Thursday, Dec. 19th, was a successtul event. Rev F. Ashton, made an excellent chairman and had a fine I hereby, again, wish to thank you for program at his disposal. Addresses your courteous and kindly co-operation in were delivered by Sunday School the management of our township affairs Superintendents, Messrs Wm Cook, Frank Smith and A. C. McDonald. Rev. Ashton gave instrumentals on barp and accordeon and a duett with Miss Flora McDonald, while recitations, dialogues and exercises by the children were also well rendered. I there was one number on the program evidently more appreciated than another, it was a recitation by Mr. C. Rudolph, our teacher.

Mr and Mrs Will Brown and daughter Laverns, Sask, are at present visiting the former's parents, Mr and Mrs Wm Brown. Will is making good in the West and prefers the prairies to old O tario.

Mr Machesney and Misses Phaler and Wilson of Elmwood took in the Christmas entertainment here Thursday evening and atterwards spent a tew pleasant hours with their friend, Mr.C. Rudolph.

Mrs W. Fulton received a sad telegram last week that her sister, Mrs. Gideon Clair had died in Pekoa, Washington, from pneumonia, preceded by influenza. She leaves a husband and three children, Britton, Jessie and Flora to mourn her loss Relatives here have the sympathy of the neighborhood. We hope to publish fuller particulars later.
